- 2. The attorney general has investigative authority and criminal jurisdiction under this section at the time of the death of the person and the attorney general retains investigative authority and criminal jurisdiction over the incident unless the attorney general determines that such incident does not meet the requirements of this section. If the attorney general determines the incident does not meet the requirements for the attorney general to have investigative authority and criminal jurisdiction pursuant to this section, the attorney general shall, [as soon as practicable] within sixty days, provide written notice of such determination to the district attorney for the county in which the incident occurred.
- 6. (a) For any incident under this section, the office of special investigation shall issue a public report and post the report on its 17 website whenever the office of special investigation initiates an investigation and (i) the office of special investigation declines to present evidence to a grand jury or (ii) the office of special investigation 19 does present evidence to a grand jury but the grand jury declines to 20 return indictment on any charges. The report will include, to the extent 22 possible and lawful, the results of the investigation of the incident. 23 Such report shall be issued within sixty days of the initiation of the 24 investigation; provided that such period may, for good cause shown, be extended for thirty day intervals. 25
- (b) The report shall also include: (i) with respect to subparagraph 26 27 (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, an explanation as to why the 28 office of special investigation declined to present evidence to a grand
