AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to the sale of over-the-counter drugs and cosmetic products

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The article heading of article 38-A of the general business law, as added by chapter 697 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

SALE OF OUTDATED

AND LABEL OBSTRUCTED OVER-THE-COUNTER DRUGS AND COSMETIC PRODUCTS

§ 2. Section 820 of the general business law, as added by chapter 697 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

§ 820. Unlawful practices. 1. It shall be unlawful for any retailer:

~~[1-]~~ (a) to knowingly sell or offer for sale, any drug or cosmetic sold over-the-counter without the need of a prescription, later than the date, if any, marked upon the label as indicative of the date beyond which the contents cannot be expected beyond reasonable doubt to be safe and effective; provided, however, that when such drug or cosmetic is identified as an outdated drug or cosmetic by segregation from regular stock or by other means, the holding of such drug or cosmetic beyond its expiration date shall not be deemed a violation of this section. When the expiration date is expressed by month and year, the expiration date shall be the last day of the month indicated; or

~~[2-]~~ (b) to knowingly alter, mutilate, destroy, obliterate, obstruct or remove by means of a price sticker or otherwise the whole or any part of ~~[the expiration date displayed on]~~ the label or packaging, including, where applicable, the expiration date displayed thereon, of any over-the-counter drug or cosmetic.

2. For purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets ~~[-]~~ is old law to be omitted.
