IN SENATE

March 25, 2024

Introduced by Sen. MARTINS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, the emergency housing rent control law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to establishing tenant eligibility for certain housing accommodations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 10 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, 2 constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-3 four, is amended by adding a new subdivision d to read as follows:

4 d. Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, any person,
5 or persons, whose income exceeds one hundred twenty-five percent of area
6 median income shall be ineligible to occupy any housing accommodation
7 subject to this act.

8 (1) The division of homes and community renewal and the department of 9 taxation and finance shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to 10 implement this subdivision, provided however, such rules and regulations
11 shall include holding the owner, or such owner's agent, of the housing 12 accommodation harmless for any violation of this subdivision.

13 (2) A tenant found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have will-14 fully violated this subdivision, including, but not limited to, by 15 providing the owner, or such owner's agent false income documentation in 16 an effort to obtain tenancy of the housing accommodation, shall be 17 subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars per day of 18 illegal occupancy, provided however, that a tenant who currently occu-
19 pies a housing accommodation subject to this act, and whose income 20 exceeds the threshold provided in this subdivision, shall be exempt from 21 civil penalties and shall not be evicted on the grounds of a violation
22 of this subdivision for a period of ten years from the date of execution 23 of the most recent lease agreement prior to the effective date of this 24 subdivision. After a period of ten years from the date of execution of 25 the lease agreement, continued violation of this subdivision by the

1 tenant, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall 2 constitute grounds for eviction.

3 (3) A tenant who lawfully occupies a housing accommodation subject to 4 this act, and whose income increased above one hundred twenty-five 5 percent of area median income, shall be exempt from civil penalties and 6 shall not be evicted on the grounds of a violation of this subdivision 7 for a period of three years from the date of execution of the most 8 recent lease agreement prior to the increase in income. After a period 9 of three years from the date of execution of the lease agreement, 10 continued violation of this subdivision by the tenant, as determined by 11 a court of competent jurisdiction, shall constitute grounds for 12 eviction.

13 (4) Any person who inherits tenancy through successorship as defined 14 in section 24-04 of title twenty-eight of the rules of the city of New 15 York, must meet the income eligibility requirements as defined in this 16 subdivision, in order to occupy the housing accommodation. Notwith-
17 standing any other provisions of law, should said person be ineligible
18 as defined in this subdivision, such application for tenancy by succes-
19 sorship shall be denied.

20 § 2. Section 10 of chapter 274 of the laws of 1946, constituting the 21 emergency housing rent control law, is amended by adding a new subdivi-22 sion 6 to read as follows:

23 6. Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, any person,
24 or persons, whose income exceeds one hundred twenty-five percent of area
25 median income shall be ineligible to occupy any housing accommodation
26 subject to this act.

27 (a) The division of homes and community renewal and the department of 28 taxation and finance shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to 29 implement this subdivision, provided however, such rules and regulations
30 shall include holding the owner, or such owner's agent, of the housing 31 accommodation harmless for any violation of this subdivision.

32 (b) A tenant found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have will-33 fully violated this subdivision, including but not limited to, by 34 providing the owner, or such owner's agent false income documentation in 35 an effort to obtain tenancy of the housing accommodation, shall be 36 subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars per day of 37 illegal occupancy, provided however, that a tenant who currently occu-
38 pies a housing accommodation subject to this act, and whose income
39 exceeds the threshold provided in this subdivision, shall be exempt from 40 civil penalties and shall not be evicted on the grounds of a violation
41 of this subdivision for a period of ten years from the date of execution
42 of the most recent lease agreement prior to the effective date of this 43 subdivision. After a period of ten years from the date of execution of
45 tenant, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall 46 constitute grounds for eviction.

47 (c) A tenant who lawfully occupies a housing accommodation subject to 48 this act, and whose income increased above one hundred twenty-five 49 percent of area median income, shall be exempt from civil penalties and 50 shall not be evicted on the grounds of a violation of this subdivision
51 for a period of three years from the date of execution of the most 52 recent lease agreement prior to the increase in income. After a period
53 of three years from the date of execution of the lease agreement,
54 continued violation of this subdivision by the tenant, as determined by 55 a court of competent jurisdiction, shall constitute grounds for 56 eviction.

1 (d) Any person who inherits tenancy through successorship as defined
2 in section 24-04 of title twenty-eight of the rules of the city of New
3 York, must meet the income eligibility requirements as defined in this
4 subdivision, in order to occupy the housing accommodation. Notwith-
5 standing any other provisions of law, should said person be ineligible
6 as defined in this subdivision, such application for tenancy by succes-
7 sorship shall be denied.

8 § 3. The administrative code of the city of New York is amended by 9 adding a new section 26-418 to read as follows:

10 § 26-418 Means testing. a. The division of homes and community 11 renewal and the department of taxation and finance shall promulgate 12 rules and regulations necessary to implement this section, provided 13 however, such rules and regulations shall include holding the owner, or 14 such owner's agent, of the housing accommodation harmless for any 15 violation of this section.

16 b. A tenant found, by a court of competent jurisdiction, to have will-17 fully violated this section, including but not limited to, by providing 18 the owner, or such owner's agent false income documentation in an effort 19 to obtain tenancy of the housing accommodation, shall be subject to a 20 civil penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars per day of illegal 21 occupancy, provided however, that a tenant who currently occupies a 22 housing accommodation subject to the emergency tenant protection act of 23 nineteen seventy-four, and whose income exceeds the threshold provided 24 in this section, shall be exempt from civil penalties and shall not be 25 evicted on the grounds of a violation of this section for a period of 26 ten years from the date of execution of the most recent lease agreement 27 prior to the effective date of this section. After a period of ten 28 years from the date of execution of the lease agreement, continued 29 violation of this section by the tenant, as determined by a court of 30 competent jurisdiction, shall constitute grounds for eviction.

31 c. A tenant who lawfully occupies a housing accommodation subject to 32 the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, and whose 33 income increased above one hundred twenty-five percent of area median 34 income, shall be exempt from civil penalties and shall not be evicted on 35 the grounds of a violation of this subdivision for a period of three 36 years from the date of execution of the most recent lease agreement 37 prior to the increase in income. After a period of three years from the 38 date of execution of the lease agreement, continued violation of this 39 section by the tenant, as determined by a court of competent jurisdic-40 tion, shall constitute grounds for eviction.

41 d. Any person who inherits tenancy through successorship as defined in 42 section 24-04 of title twenty-eight of the rules of the city of New 43 York, must meet the income eligibility requirements as defined in this 44 section, in order to occupy the housing accommodation. Notwithstanding 45 any other provisions of law, should said person be ineligible as defined 46 in this section, such application for tenancy by successorship shall be 47 denied.

48 § 4. Section 26-512 of the administrative code of the city of New York 49 is amended by adding a new paragraph h to read as follows:

50 h. Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, beginning 51 January first, two thousand twenty-seven, dwelling units subject to this 52 chapter as prescribed in section 26-504 of this chapter shall be rented 53 to persons whose adjusted gross income is less than one hundred twenty-54 five percent of area median income.

55 (1) The division of homes and community renewal and the department of 56 taxation and finance shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to

1 implement this paragraph, provided however, such rules and regulations 2 shall include holding the owner of the dwelling unit harmless for any 3 violation of this paragraph.

4 (2) A tenant found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have will-5 fully violated this paragraph shall be subject to a civil penalty not to 6 exceed five hundred dollars per day of illegal occupancy, provided 7 however, that a tenant who currently occupies a dwelling unit subject to 8 the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, and whose 9 income exceeds the threshold provided in this paragraph, shall be exempt 10 from civil penalties and shall not be evicted on the grounds of a 11 violation of this paragraph for a period of ten years from the date of 12 execution of the most recent lease agreement prior to the effective date 13 of this paragraph. After a period of ten years from the date of 14 execution of the lease agreement, continued violation of this paragraph 15 by the tenant, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall 16 constitute grounds for eviction.

17 (3) A tenant who lawfully occupies a dwelling unit subject to the 18 emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, and whose
20 income, shall be exempt from civil penalties and shall not be evicted on 21 the grounds of a violation of this paragraph for a period of three years 22 from the date of execution of the most recent lease agreement. After a 23 period of three years from the date of execution of the lease agreement, 24 continued violation of this paragraph by the tenant, as determined by a 25 court of competent jurisdiction, shall constitute grounds for eviction.

26 (4) Any person who inherits tenancy through successorship as defined
27 in section 24-04 of title twenty-eight of the rules of the city of New 28 York, must meet the income eligibility requirements as defined in this 29 paragraph, in order to occupy the dwelling unit. Notwithstanding any 30 other provisions of law, should said person be ineligible as defined in 31 this paragraph, such application for tenancy by successorship shall be 32 denied.

33 § 5. The division of homes and community renewal, in conjunction with 34 the department of taxation and finance, shall promulgate rules and regu-35 lations necessary for the implementation of this act.

36 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that the addi-37 tion of section 26-418 of the city rent and rehabilitation law made by 38 section three of this act shall remain in full force and effect only as 39 long as the public emergency requiring the regulation and control of 40 residential rents and evictions continues, as provided in subdivision 3 41 of section 1 of the local emergency housing rent control act; and 42 provided, further that the amendments to section 26-512 of chapter 4 of 43 title 26 of the administrative code of the city of new York made by 44 section four of this act shall expire on the same date as such law 45 expires and shall not affect the expiration of such law as provided 46 under section 26-520 of such law.
