AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to the disclosure of information to employees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 72 of the civil service law, as amended by chapter 547 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

1. When in the judgment of an appointing authority an employee is 4 5 unable to perform the duties of [his or her] such employee's position by 6 reason of a disability, other than a disability resulting from occupa-7 tional injury or disease as defined in the workers' compensation law, the appointing authority may require such employee to undergo a medical examination to be conducted by a medical officer selected by the civil 10 service department or municipal commission having jurisdiction. Written 11 notice of the facts providing the basis for the judgment of the appointing authority that the employee is not fit to perform the duties of [his 12 13 or her] such employee's position, and copies of any written, electronic or other communication by the appointing authority to a medical officer 14 15 or any other entity regarding the claim that such employee is unable to 16 perform their duties pursuant to this section, shall be provided to the employee, the authorized representative of such employee and the civil 17 service department or commission having jurisdiction prior to the conduct of the medical examination. If, upon such medical examination, 19 such medical officer shall certify that such employee is not physically 20 or mentally fit to perform the duties of [his or her] such employee's 21 22 position, the appointing authority shall notify such employee that [he 23 or she] they may be placed on leave of absence. An employee placed on 24 leave of absence pursuant to this section shall be given a written statement of the reasons therefor and complete copies of all of the 25 26 documentation, reports and records relied upon by the medical officer during their examination, including any documents, reports and corre-27 28 spondence sent to the appointing authority at the conclusion of the examination. Such notice shall contain the reason for the proposed leave and the proposed date on which such leave is to commence, shall be made in writing and served in person or by first class, registered or certi-4 fied mail, return receipt requested, upon the employee. Such notice 5 shall also inform the employee of [his or her] their rights under this procedure. An employee shall be allowed ten working days from service of 7 the notice to object to the imposition of the proposed leave of absence and to request a hearing. The request for such hearing shall be filed by 9 the employee personally or by first class, certified or registered mail, 10 return receipt requested. Upon receipt of such request, the appointing 11 authority shall supply to the employee, [his or her] such employee's 12 personal physician or authorized representative, copies of all diag-13 noses, test results, observations and other data supporting the certif-14 ication, and imposition of the proposed leave of absence shall be held 15 abeyance until a final determination is made by the appointing authority as provided in this section. The appointing authority will 16 17 afford the employee a hearing within thirty days of the date of a request by the employee to be held by an independent hearing officer 18 agreed to by the appointing authority and the employee except that where 19 20 the employer is a city of over one million in population such hearing 21 may be held by a hearing officer employed by the office of administra-22 tive trials and hearings. If the parties are unable to agree upon a 23 hearing officer, [he or she] such hearing officer shall be selected by lot from a list of persons maintained by the state department of civil 24 service. The hearing officer shall not be an employee of the same 25 26 appointing authority as the employee alleged to be disabled. [He or she] 27 The hearing officer shall be vested with all of the powers of the 28 appointing authority, and shall make a record of the hearing which 29 shall, with [his or her] such hearing officer's recommendation, be 30 referred to the appointing authority for review and decision and which 31 shall be provided to the affected employee free of charge. A copy of the 32 transcript of the hearing shall, upon request of the employee affected, 33 be transmitted to [him] such employee without charge. The employee may 34 be represented at any hearing by counsel or a representative of a certi-35 fied or recognized employee organization and may present medical experts 36 and other witnesses or evidence. The employee shall be entitled to a 37 reasonable period of time to obtain such representation. The burden of proving mental or physical unfitness shall be upon the person alleging 39 it. Compliance with technical rules of evidence shall not be required. The appointing authority will render a final determination within ten 40 working days of the date of receipt of the hearing officer's report and 41 42 recommendation. The appointing authority may either uphold the original 43 proposed notice of leave of absence, withdraw such notice or modify the notice as appropriate. In any event, a final determination of an employee's contest of a notice of leave shall be rendered within seventy-five 45 46 days of the receipt of the request for review. An employee on such leave 47 of absence shall be entitled to draw all accumulated, unused sick leave, 48 vacation, overtime and other time allowances standing to [his or her] such employee's credit. The appointing authority in the final determi-49 nation shall notify the employee of [his or her] such employee's right 50 to appeal from such determination to the civil service commission having 51 52 jurisdiction in accordance with subdivision three of this section.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
