8 tigator employed in the office of a district attorney, or to a sworn 9 officer of the division of state police, of a city, county, town or 10 village police department or of a county sheriff's office ~~(A)~~ when such 11 official verifies that the report is necessary to conduct an active 12 investigation or prosecution of a violation of subdivision four of 13 section 240.50 of the penal law~~[-]~~ or (B) upon a court order finding 14 that justice requires the information in such reports is necessary for 15 the purpose of prosecuting a violation of the penal law; and

16 (vi) to a grand jury, upon a court order finding that justice requires 17 the information in such reports is necessary for the determination of 18 charges being investigated by such grand jury.

19 § 2. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 5 of section 422 of the social 20 services law, as amended by section 7 of part D of chapter 501 of the 21 laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:

22 (b) Persons given access to unfounded reports pursuant to subparagraph 23 (v) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall not redisclose such 24 reports except as necessary to conduct such appropriate investigation or 25 prosecution and shall request of the court that any copies of such 26 reports produced in any court proceeding be redacted to remove the names 27 of the subjects and other persons named in the reports or that the court

1 issue an order protecting the names of the subjects and other persons
2 named in the reports from public disclosure. The local child protective 3 service or state agency shall not indicate the subsequent report solely 4 based upon the existence of the prior unfounded report or reports.
5 Notwithstanding section four hundred fifteen of this title, section one 6 thousand forty-six of the family court act, or, except as set forth
7 herein, any other provision of law to the contrary, an unfounded report 8 shall not be admissible in any judicial or administrative proceeding or 9 action; provided, however, an unfounded report may be introduced into 10 evidence: (i) by the subject of the report where such subject is a 11 respondent in a proceeding under article ten of the family court act or 12 is a plaintiff or petitioner in a civil action or proceeding alleging 13 the false reporting of child abuse or maltreatment; ~~or~~ (ii) in a crim-
14 inal court for the purpose of prosecuting a violation of ~~[subdivision~~ 15 ~~four of section 240.50 of]~~ the penal law; or (iii) in a grand jury or 16 other judicial proceeding for the purpose of determining charges being 17 investigated by such grand jury. Legally sealed unfounded reports shall 18 be expunged ten years after the receipt of the report.

19 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 20 have become a law.
