IN SENATE

April 22, 2024

Introduced by Sen. JACKSON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to requiring colleges and universities in the state to adopt a policy that requires students in programs for teaching, school administration, or counseling to have a curriculum that promotes diversity, equity and inclusion, and is multilingual for teaching immigrant-origin students

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 6206 of the education law is amended by adding a
2 new subdivision 23 to read as follows:

3 23. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, the 4 board of trustees shall update course curriculum as necessary to require
5 senior colleges and community colleges within the city university
6 include, within all education programs for teachers, administrators and 7 counselors, the topics of local, state and national immigration policy
8 and immigrant integration and how to best educate immigrant-origin
9 students with different status in ways that promote diversity, equity
10 and inclusion, and are multilingual.

11 As used in this subdivision:

12 a. "diversity, equity and inclusion" includes, but is not limited to,
13 cultural sensitivity, and awareness of conscious and unconscious biases;
14 and

15 b. "multilingual" means that the person speaks or understands a
16 language other than English and possibly speaks or understands little or 17 no English, and may require support in order to become proficient in 18 English.
