IN SENATE

April 22, 2024

Introduced by Sen. MAY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the public housing law, in relation to specifying that low-income housing tax credits may be issued both for projects creating new housing and projects renovating and preserving existing housing

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 5 of section 21 of the public housing law, as 2 added by section 1 of part CC of chapter 63 of the laws of 2000, is
3 amended to read as follows:

4 5. "Eligible low-income building" means a building located in this
5 state which ~~[either]~~:

6 (a) either:

7 (i) is a qualified low-income building as defined in section 42(c) of 8 the internal revenue code~~[-]~~; or

9 ~~[(b)]~~ (ii) would be a qualified low-income building under such section 10 if the 20-50 test specified in subsection (g)(1) of such section were 11 disregarded and the 40-60 test specified in such subsection (requiring 12 that at least forty percent of residential units be both rent-restricted 13 and occupied by individuals whose income is sixty percent or less of 14 area median gross income) were a 40-90 test; and

15 (b) is part of a qualified low-income housing project, as defined by 16 section 42(c) of the internal revenue code, for the creation of new 17 housing, or for the renovation and preservation of existing housing.

18 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
