1 Section 1. The part heading of part 6 of article 2 and section 261 of 2 the family court act, as added by chapter 682 of the laws of 1975, are
3 amended to read as follows:

4 COUNSEL FOR [~~INDIGENT~~] ADULTS IN 5 FAMILY COURT PROCEEDINGS WHO ARE FINANCIALLY UNABLE TO OBTAIN 6 COUNSEL

7 § 261. Legislative findings and purpose. Persons involved in certain 8 family court proceedings may face the infringements of fundamental

10 possibility of criminal charges, and therefore have a constitutional 11 right to counsel in such proceedings. Counsel is often indispensable to 12 a practical realization of due process of law and [~~may be helpful to~~] in 13 helping the court [~~in making~~] to make reasoned determinations of fact 14 and proper orders of disposition. The purpose of this part is to provide 15 a means for implementing the right to assigned counsel for [~~indigent~~ 16 ~~persons~~] adults in proceedings under this act who are financially unable 17 to obtain counsel.

18 § 2. The section heading and subdivision (c) of section 262 of the 19 family court act, as added by chapter 682 of the laws of 1975, are 20 amended to read as follows:

21 Assignment of counsel for [~~indigent~~] persons who are financially 22 unable to obtain counsel.

8 the filing of a petition under article ten or ten-A of this act or to a 9 parent, caretaker or interested adult prior to the filing of a petition
10 under article ten-C of this act, such representation shall be eligible 11 for compensation under paragraph (i) of this subdivision.

12 § 3. The family court act is amended by adding a new section 1016-a to 13 read as follows:

14 § 1016-a. Representation for adults subject to a child protective 15 services investigation and/or child protective proceeding. (a) An adult 16 who is the subject of a child protective services investigation has the 17 right to counsel prior to the initiation of any court proceeding. If 18 such a person appears in court without counsel at the first appearance 19 for any matter under this article, the court, at the outset of the 20 proceeding, shall inform the person of the right to be represented by 21 counsel of their own choosing, of the right to have an adjournment to 22 confer with counsel, and of the right to publicly funded legal represen-
23 tation if the person is financially unable to obtain counsel. For 24 purposes of this section, such person shall be referred to as an "eligi-25 ble person".

26 (b) Whenever a person has been provided with publicly funded legal 27 representation under this article, such representation shall continue 28 during (i) the period in which an order of disposition issued by the 29 court pursuant to section one thousand fifty-two of this article direct-30 ing supervision or protection or suspending judgment, or any extension 31 thereof, is in effect; (ii) an adjournment in contemplation of dismiss-

33 or any extension thereof; (iii) a permanency hearing pursuant to subdivi-34 vision (b) of section one thousand ninety of this act; and (iv) the 35 pendency of a supplemental or related proceeding, including any period 36 of continuing jurisdiction.

37 (c) All notices and reports required by law and all motions made by 38 any other party to the proceeding or the attorney for the child shall be 39 served upon the attorney for the eligible person.

40 (d) Representation of the eligible person terminates only if the court
41 relieves the attorney, or a final order is issued and the eligible
42 person is informed of any existing right to appeal and declines to exer-
43 cise any existing right to appeal and where no further jurisdiction 44 continues under section one thousand eighty-eight of this act or any 45 other provision of law.

46 (e) The attorney for the eligible person may be relieved as counsel 47 upon application to the court for termination of the appointment. If 48 the application is approved and the person remains eligible for publicly 49 funded counsel, the court shall immediately appoint another attorney 50 pursuant to section two hundred sixty-two of this act, upon whom all 51 notices and reports required by law and all motions made by any other 52 party to the proceeding or the attorney for the child shall be served.

53 (f) The attorney for the eligible person shall be entitled to compen-
54 sation pursuant to applicable provisions of law for services rendered 55 prior to and subsequent to the filing of a petition under this article, 56 including disposition of the petition, as well as all permanency and

1 other post-dispositional, supplemental and related proceedings. The 2 court may receive and approve periodic requests by attorneys for payment 3 for all such services provided.

4 § 4. Paragraph 1 of subdivision (a) of section 1094 of the family 5 court act, as amended by chapter 3 of the laws of 2012, is amended to 6 read as follows:

15 article, such representation shall be eligible for compensation under
