7 Section 66.00 Protections for child victims and child witnesses.

8 § 66.00 Protections for child victims and child witnesses.

9 1. The records of any proceeding in the criminal court involving a 10 child victim and/or child witness shall not be open to indiscriminate 11 public inspection. Provided, however, the court in its discretion in any 12 case may permit the inspection of any papers or records. Any duly 13 authorized agency, association, society or institution to which a child 14 is committed may cause an inspection of the record of investigation to 15 be had and may in the discretion of the court obtain a copy of the whole 16 or part of such record.

17 2. Any criminal proceeding where the victim is a child shall be a 18 closed proceeding upon request made by the child victim and/or such 19 child victim's parent, guardian, or advocate. For purposes of this 20 section, "closed proceeding" means that court records may not be 21 perused, examined, disclosed, taken or copied by any other person than a 22 party, the attorney or counsel of a party, the guardian, the court eval-
23 uator or the court examiner except by order of the court.

24 3. The identity of the child victim shall be made anonymous throughout 25 the proceeding unless a request is made to identify the child victim.

21 cies, social services agencies and the courts shall comply with the 22 following guidelines in their treatment of child victims:

23 1. (a) To minimize the number of times a child victim is called upon 24 to recite the events of the case and to foster a feeling of trust and 25 confidence in the child victim, whenever practicable and where one
26 exists, a multi-disciplinary team as established pursuant to subdivision
27 six of section four hundred twenty-three of the social services law 28 and/or a child advocacy center shall be used for the investigation and 29 prosecution of child abuse cases involving abuse of a child, as 30 described in paragraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of subdivision (e) of section 31 one thousand twelve of the family court act, sexual abuse of a child or 32 the death of a child, or where the child is the victim of or witness to

40 2. Whenever practicable, the same prosecutor should handle all aspects 41 of a case involving an alleged child victim. Whenever practicable, the 47 3. To minimize the time during which a child victim must endure the 48 stress of [~~his~~] such child victim's involvement in the proceedings, the 49 court should take appropriate action to ensure a speedy trial in all

50 proceedings involving an alleged child victim. In ruling on any motion 51 or request for a delay or continuance of a proceeding involving an 52 alleged child victim, the court [~~should~~] shall consider and give weight 53 to any potential adverse impact the delay or continuance may have on the 54 well-being of the child.

55 4. The judge presiding [~~should~~] shall be sensitive to the psycholog-
56 ical and emotional stress a child witness may undergo when testifying.

1 5. In accordance with the provisions of article sixty-five of the 2 criminal procedure law, when appropriate, a child witness as defined in 3 subdivision one of section 65.00 of such law [~~should~~] shall be permitted 4 to testify via live, two-way closed-circuit television.

5 6. In accordance with the provisions of section 190.32 of the criminal 6 procedure law, a person supportive of the "child witness" or "special 7 witness" as defined in such section [~~should~~] shall be permitted to be 8 present and accessible to a child witness at all times during [~~his~~] such 9 child witness's testimony, although the person supportive of the child
10 witness [~~should~~] shall not be permitted to influence the child's testi-11 mony.

12 7. A child witness should be permitted in the discretion of the court
13 to use anatomically correct dolls and drawings during [~~his~~] such child 14 witness's testimony.

15 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, the 16 amendments to section 65.00 of the criminal procedure law made by 17 section three of this act shall not affect the repeal of such section 18 and shall be deemed repealed therewith.
