LBD14581-02-6

1 4. (a) "Funeral arranging" means engaging in or holding oneself out as 2 engaged in the business, practice, or profession of arranging, direct-3 ing, or supervising funerals, including, but not limited to:

4 (i) the removal, transportation, sheltering, and preparation of the 5 body of a deceased person for burial, cremation, or other lawful dispo-6 sition;

7 (ii) coordinating with cemeteries, crematories, houses of worship, or 8 other disposition facilities;

9 (iii) supervising, directing, or the management of funeral, burial, 10 cremation, disposition, or memorial services, including meeting with the 11 next of kin to plan and carry out funeral services;

12 (iv) making, offering, or entering into funeral contracts, including 13 pre-need and at-need funeral agreements, and providing price disclo-14 sures;

15 (v) maintaining or operating a funeral establishment or mortuary in 16 relation to such non-embalming services;

17 (vi) preparing and filing necessary permits, authorizations, death
18 certificates and other documents required to facilitate lawful disposi-19 tion; and

20 (vii) any other acts authorized under existing law or regulation for 21 funeral directing, excluding acts that involve the use of chemicals for 22 preservation or disinfection (i.e., embalming) or invasive procedures 23 requiring embalming credentials.

24 (b) "Funeral arranging" shall not include embalming or any act requir-25 ing the practice of embalming.

26 5. "Funeral establishment" means funeral establishment as defined by 27 section three thousand four hundred of this chapter.

28 6. "Funeral director" means funeral director as defined by section 29 three thousand four hundred of this chapter.

30 7. "Registered transporter" means a person duly registered with the 31 bureau of funeral directing under the department to perform the trans-32 portation and removal of the body of a deceased person under the super-33 vision of a funeral director or funeral arranger.

34 § 3471. Funeral arranging; license to practice required; scope of 35 practice. 1. The bureau of funeral directing under the department shall 36 establish and issue "Licensed Funeral Arranger" licenses as provided by 37 this article. Such license shall allow a funeral arranger to perform all 38 acts permitted to a funeral director except embalming or any preserva-39 tion of the body of a deceased person requiring embalming.

40 2. A licensed funeral arranger may operate or supervise a funeral 41 establishment with respect to non-embalming services, so long as such 42 establishment has embalming services provided by a funeral director or 43 embalmer, as defined by section three thousand four hundred of this 44 chapter.

45 3. No person shall engage in the business or practice of funeral 46 arranging or hold themself out as practicing or as being entitled to 47 practice funeral arranging in this state unless such person holds a 48 funeral arranger license duly issued by the department in accordance 49 with this article or is a registered trainee working under the direct 50 supervision of a funeral arranger.

51 4. A funeral arranger may remove the bodies of deceased persons from 52 the place of death, and transport such bodies to funeral establishments, 53 crematories, cemeteries, or other lawful destinations for final dispo-
54 sition; provided that such activities shall be performed in compliance 55 with this article, the sanitary code, and regulations of the department 56 concerning the safe handling and transportation of human remains.

1 5. A funeral arranger license shall be renewable biennially. As a 2 condition of renewal, the licensee shall complete a minimum number of 3 continuing education credits as established by regulation. Such continu-4 ing education credits shall pertain to funeral arranging practices and 5 shall not require instruction in embalming.

6 6. A funeral arranger shall be subject to the same disciplinary,
7 investigation, hearing, and sanction authority as funeral directors
8 under article thirty-four of this chapter, including, but not limited 9 to, the suspension and revocation of licenses, fines, and prosecution.

10 § 3472. Funeral arranging; requirements for license to practice;
11 licensing examinations. 1. An applicant for funeral arranger licensure 12 shall:

13 (a) be over the age of eighteen;

14 (b) be a citizen of the United States or a noncitizen lawfully permit-
15 ted to reside and work in the United States;

16 (c) submit to the department a written application which shall include 17 evidence of (i) academic training in funeral service instruction from an 18 institution approved by the department and (ii) good moral character 19 qualifications;

20 (d) pass all requisite examinations in funeral arranging based upon a 21 curriculum approved by the department;

22 (e) pay applicable application fees to the department; and

23 (f) complete a supervised training period as a registered trainee in 24 funeral arranging, under the mentorship of a funeral director or funeral 25 arranger, with a minimum number of funeral cases not requiring embalming 26 services as promulgated by regulation.

27 2. The commissioner, or their designee, shall develop or adopt an 28 examination that tests knowledge and competency in funeral arranging.
29 The scope of such examination shall include, but not be limited to,
30 funeral law and regulation, ethics, funeral accounting, funeral
31 contracts and disclosures, transportation, and state and federal rules
32 for disposition, sanitary practices and infection control. Such examina-33 tion shall exclude embalming and preservation science.

34 § 3473. Funeral arranging; reciprocity. 1. The department shall 35 promulgate rules and regulations to authorize a funeral arranger to 36 obtain licensure as a funeral director within this state upon completion 37 of embalming instruction and passage of an embalming examination module, 38 without duplicative requirements for subjects already completed.

39 2. The bureau of funeral directing under the department may grant a 40 funeral arranger license to an out-of-state practitioner if such practi-41 tioner holds substantially equivalent credentials and has practiced 42 funeral arranging in another jurisdiction for a minimum period of at 43 least two years.

44 § 3474. Funeral arranging; registered transporter. 1. The bureau of 45 funeral directing under the department shall establish a registration 46 process by which individuals may submit an application to the department
47 to become a registered transporter pursuant to this section. Such regis-48 tered transporter shall:

49 (a) remove the bodies of deceased persons from hospitals, residences, 50 or other lawful locations; and

51 (b) transport the bodies of deceased persons to funeral establish-52 ments, crematories, cemeteries, or other lawful destinations.

53 2. A registered transporter shall act under the direction and super-54 vision of a funeral director or funeral arranger when engaged in the 55 removal or transportation of the bodies of deceased persons.

1 3. A registered transporter shall be subject to the same disciplinary,
2 investigation, hearing, and sanction authority as funeral directors
3 under article thirty-four of this chapter, including, but not limited
4 to, the suspension and revocation of a certificate of registration, 5 finest, and prosecution.

6 § 3475. Funeral arranging; registration requirements for registered
7 transporter. 1. An applicant for registration as a registered transpor-8 ter shall:

9 (a) be over the age of eighteen;

10 (b) be a citizen of the United States or a noncitizen lawfully permit-
11 ted to reside and work in the United States;

12 (c) possess a valid driver's license issued by the state of New York;

13 (d) have completed a department approved training program in the safe 14 handling and transportation of the bodies of deceased persons, infection 15 control, and applicable public health regulations; and 16 (e) submit a registration application and pay applicable fees to the 17 department.

18 2. The registration of a registered transporter shall be renewable 19 biennially in accordance with regulations of the department. Such regis-20 tration requirements may include continuing education credits in public 21 health and professional ethics.

22 § 3476. Rules and regulations. The department shall promulgate rules 23 and regulations consistent with the purposes of this article, or appro-24 priate for the effective administration of this article within eighteen
25 months of the effective date of this article. Such rules and regulations 26 shall include, but not be limited to:

27 1. Developing regulations regarding standards of care, minimum prac-
28 tice requirements, and recordkeeping;

29 2. Establishing procedures governing applications, examinations,
30 licensure and registration, and continuing education standards;

31 3. Prescribing requirements for the renewal of licenses and registra-32 tion certificates and enforcement mechanisms for violations of this 33 article;

34 4. Creating standards for the education and training of funeral arran-35 gers and registered transporters, including the approval of educational 36 programs for such training; and

37 5. Amending existing rules and regulations to include funeral arran-38 gers in consumer protection disclosures, general price lists, and any 39 other applicable oversight provisions.

40 § 3477. Construction. Nothing in this article shall be construed to 41 reduce or restrict any rights or duties of currently licensed funeral 42 directors.

43 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 44 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-45 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-46 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on or 47 before such effective date.
