CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

proposing amendments to section 14 of article 3 and section 2 of article 9 of the constitution, in relation to the procedure for voting increases in the rate of state taxes

1 Section 1. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That section 14 of article 2 3 of the constitution be amended to read as follows:
3 § 14. No bill shall be passed or become a law unless it shall have 4 been printed and upon the desks of the members, in its final form, at 5 least three calendar legislative days prior to its final passage, unless 6 the governor, or the acting governor, shall have certified, under [~~his~~ 7 ~~or her~~] hand and the seal of the state, the facts which in [~~his or her~~]
8 such governor or acting governor's opinion necessitate an immediate vote 9 thereon, in which case it must nevertheless be upon the desks of the 10 members in final form, not necessarily printed, before its final 11 passage; nor shall any bill, except as provided in this section, be 12 passed or become a law, except by the assent of a majority of the 13 members elected to each branch of the legislature; nor shall any bill 14 which increases, extends, imposes, or revives any tax, fee, assessment, 15 surcharge or any other such levy or collection, except any bill which 16 results from the passage of a home rule message pursuant to section two 17 of article nine of this constitution, be passed or become a law, except 18 by the assent of two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the 19 legislature voting separately; and upon the last reading of a bill, no 20 amendment thereof shall be allowed, and the question upon its final 21 passage shall be taken immediately thereafter, and the ayes and nays 22 entered on the journal.

23 For purposes of this section, a bill shall be deemed to be printed and 24 upon the desks of the members if: it is set forth in a legible electron-25 ic format by electronic means, and it is available for review in such 26 format at the desks of the members. For purposes of this section "elec-27 tronic means" means any method of transmission of information between 28 computers or other machines designed for the purpose of sending and 29 receiving such transmissions and which: allows the recipient to 4 § 2. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the opening paragraph of 5 paragraph (c) of section 2 of article 9 of the constitution be amended 6 to read as follows:

7 In addition to powers granted in the statute of local governments or 8 any other law, (i) every local government shall have power to adopt and 9 amend local laws not inconsistent with the provisions of this constitu-
10 tion or any general law relating to its property, affairs or government, 11 provided, however, any local law that increases, extends, imposes, or 12 revives any tax for which authority is required by the legislature shall 13 require the vote of two-thirds of the total voting power of the legisla-
14 tive body of such local government and, (ii) every local government 15 shall have power to adopt and amend local laws not inconsistent with the 16 provisions of this constitution or any general law relating to the 17 following subjects, whether or not they relate to the property, affairs 18 or government of such local government, except to the extent that the 19 legislature shall restrict the adoption of such a local law relating to 20 other than the property, affairs or government of such local government:

21 § 3. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the foregoing amendment be 22 referred to the first regular legislative session convening after the 23 next succeeding general election of members of the assembly, and, in 24 conformity with section 1 of article 19 of the constitution, be 25 published for 3 months previous to the time of such election.
