Introduced by M. of A. BURROUGHS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to a residential parking system in the village of Hempstead

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 1640-t to read as follows:

§ 1640-t. Residential parking system in the village of Hempstead. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, the village board of trustees of the village of Hempstead may, by adoption of a local law or ordinance, provide for a residential parking permit system and fix and require the payment of fees applicable to parking within the area in which such parking system is in effect in accordance with the provisions of this section.

2. No permit shall be required on streets or portions of streets where the adjacent properties are zoned for commercial/retail use.

3. The local law or ordinance providing for such residential parking system shall:

(a) set forth factors necessitating the enactment of such parking system;

(b) provide that motor vehicles registered pursuant to section four hundred four-a of this chapter shall be exempt from any permit requirement;

(c) provide the times of the day and the days of the week during which permit requirements shall be in effect;

(d) make not less than twenty percent of all spaces within the permit area available to nonresidents and shall provide for short-term parking of not less than ninety minutes in duration in such area;

(e) provide the schedule of fees to be paid for such permits; and

(f) provide that such fees shall be credited to the general fund of the village.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
