Introduced by M. of A. SHRESTHA -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to allowing municipalities to relieve property owners of penalties due to lack of payment if such property owner was a victim of property tax fraud

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new 2 section 924-c to read as follows:

3 § 924-c. Waiver of interest and penalties for victims of property tax 4 fraud. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the 5 governing body of any tax district may, by resolution, authorize the 6 enforcing officer, on a general or case-by-case basis, to cancel, in 7 whole or in part, any interest and penalties imposed upon a parcel of 8 real property where the owner of such property establishes, to the 9 satisfaction of the enforcing officer, that such owner was the victim of 10 property tax fraud in connection with an attempted payment of property
11 taxes. Property tax fraud shall include, without limitation, check
12 fraud, mail theft, or any theft, interception, diversion, or unauthor-
13 ized receipt of a payment intended to satisfy a real property tax obli-14 gation.

15 2. A property owner seeking relief under this section shall submit 16 such documentation as the enforcing officer may require, which may 17 include, but need not be limited to:

18 (a) an affidavit describing the incident of property tax fraud;

19 (b) documentation from a financial institution demonstrating property 20 tax fraud, including reimbursement of funds; or

21 (c) a police report or other evidence of property tax fraud.

22 3. Any cancellation of interest and penalties pursuant to this section 23 shall be limited to the period of delinquency attributable to property
24 tax fraud, and in no event shall exceed one year from the date the prop-
25 erty taxes became due.

26 4. If any portion of interest and penalties cancelled pursuant to this 27 section would, if collected, be payable to a municipal corporation with-

1 in such tax district, no such cancellation shall be made without the 2 consent of such municipal corporation. Such consent may be granted on a 3 case-by-case basis or on a general basis by local law or resolution
4 adopted after a public hearing.

5 § 2. Section 1182 of the real property tax law, as amended by chapter 6 532 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

7 § 1182. Cancellation or reduction of interest, penalties and other
8 charges. 1. If the governing body of any tax district shall determine 9 that it is for the best interests of the tax district, it shall have the 10 power, by resolution, to authorize the enforcing officer to permit the 11 cancellation in whole or in part of any interest, penalties or other 12 charges imposed by law to which the tax district or any other municipal 13 corporation shall be lawfully entitled; provided, however, that in cases 14 where such interest, penalties, or other charges, if collected by the 15 tax district, belong to a municipal corporation therein, no reduction or 16 remission in whole or in part of such interest, penalties, or other 17 charges shall be made without the consent of the municipal corporation
18 affected, which consent may be given by resolution adopted after a 19 public hearing.

20 2. Notwithstanding subdivision one of this section, authorization by 21 the governing body of any tax district and the consent of any municipal 22 corporation therein to waive interest and penalties for victims of prop-23 erty tax fraud pursuant to section nine hundred twenty-four-c of this 24 chapter may be granted on a general basis as described in such section 25 nine hundred twenty-four-c.

26 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
