11 § 1706. Third-party seller and seller profile pre-suspension warning 12 period. 1. No online marketplace shall suspend a third-party seller or 13 seller profile without first providing a two-week warning period in 14 which the online marketplace:

15 (a) notifies the third-party seller or seller profile with reasonable 16 documentation and details related to any and all infractions used to 17 justify a particular suspension;

26 required in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section and may be 27 extended at the online marketplace's discretion in order to allow the

6 are otherwise unrelated to any and all infractions used to justify a 7 particular suspension.

8 6. An online marketplace is prohibited from holding or seizing funds
9 from suspended third-party sellers or seller profiles that were gener-
10 ated from sales of consumer products unrelated to any and all infrac-11 tions used to justify a particular suspension.

12 § 1708. Enforcement and penalties. Any third-party seller or seller
13 profile who has been injured by reason of any violation of this article 14 may bring an action in such person's or entity's own name against an 15 online marketplace to enjoin such unlawful act or practice, an action to 16 recover such person's or entity's actual damages or fifty dollars, 17 whichever is greater, or both such actions. The court may, in its 18 discretion, increase the award of damages to an amount not to exceed 19 three times the actual damages if the court finds the defendant willful-
20 ly or knowingly violated this article. The court may award reasonable 21 attorney's fees to a prevailing plaintiff.
