Introduced by M. of A. BAILEY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to dedicating a portion of the state highway system to American Red Cross Founder Clara H. Barton

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The highway law is amended by adding a new section 343-ee to read as follows:

§ 343-ee. Portion of the state highway system to be dedicated to American Red Cross Founder Clara H. Barton. All that portion of the state highway constituting state route 63 in the village of Dansville, county of Livingston, from its intersection with Zerfass Road to its intersection with Hubbard Lane shall be dedicated to American Red Cross Founder Clara H. Barton.

§ 2. The commissioner of transportation shall provide for the installation and maintenance of adequate signing of the state highway system as dedicated pursuant to section one of this act, provided that such signage shall state "Highway Dedicated to American Red Cross Founder Clara H Barton". However, to avoid confusion and to limit any possible disruption of commerce, the dedication called for pursuant to section one of this act shall be one of ceremonial nature and the official name of such highway shall not be changed as a result of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
