AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to including a faculty or staff member on the board of trustees of community colleges

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 6306 of 2 the education law, as amended by chapter 268 of the laws of 2003, is 3 amended to read as follows:
4 Each community college, except in the city of New York, shall be 5 administered by a board of trustees of [~~ten~~] eleven members, nine of 6 whom shall be appointed for terms of seven years in annual rotation, and 7 [~~one member~~] two members elected as herein provided, except that initial 8 appointments shall be made for terms of one to nine years respectively.
9 Five members shall be appointed by the local legislative body or board, 10 or other appropriate governing agency, one of whom may be a member of 11 such local legislative body or board, or other appropriate governing 12 agency, four, from among persons residing in the sponsoring community, 13 by the governor and one member elected by and from among the students of 14 the college who shall serve as a member of the board for a one-year 15 term, provided, however, that the term of the student member first 16 elected shall be nine months commencing October first, nineteen hundred 17 seventy-five, and one of whom shall be elected by and from among the 18 faculty and staff of the college, ex-officio and non-voting, who shall 19 serve a two-year term, provided, however, that the term of the faculty 20 or staff member first elected shall commence July first, two thousand 21 twenty-seven. The faculty or staff member and student member shall be 22 afforded the same parliamentary privileges as are conferred upon voting 23 members, including but not limited to the right to make and second 24 motions and to place items on the agenda. Such faculty or staff and 25 student [~~member~~] members shall be subject to every provision of any 26 general, special or local law, ordinance, charter, code, rule or regu-27 lation applying to the members of such board with respect to the 28 discharge of their duties including, but not limited to, those

1 provisions setting forth codes of ethics, disclosure requirements and 2 prohibiting business and professional activities. The election of the 3 student member shall be conducted in accordance with rules and regu-
4 lations promulgated by the respective representative campus student 5 association in accordance with guidelines established by the state 6 university trustees. The election of the faculty or staff member shall 7 be conducted in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the 8 largest faculty organization on each campus. In the event that the 9 student member ceases to be a student at the institution, [~~he~~] they 10 shall be required to resign. In the event that the faculty or staff 11 member ceases to be an employee at the institution, they shall be 12 required to resign. The governor's initial appointments shall be for 13 terms of two, four, six and eight years respectively and those by local 14 authorities for terms of one, three, five, seven and nine years respec-
15 tively. Vacancies shall be filled for unexpired terms in the same manner 16 as original selections by the authority responsible for the original 17 selection. The board shall select its own [~~chairman~~] chair from among 18 its voting membership. Where two or more local sponsors join in the 19 establishment of a community college, the apportionment of the appoint-20 ments among them shall be made by the state university trustees. Trus-21 tees shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reim-22 bursed for their expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in 23 the performance of their duties under this article. Members initially 24 appointed or elected under this subdivision to the board of trustees of 25 any community college hereafter established shall take office immedi-26 ately upon their selection and qualification, but for purposes of determin-27 ing the expiration of their respective terms and the commencement of the 28 terms of their successors, the term of office of each such initial 29 member shall be deemed to have commenced on the first day of July of the 30 year in which such college was established. The terms of office of all 31 members of the boards of trustees of community colleges heretofore 32 established, appointed or elected as provided in this subdivision, shall 33 terminate on the thirtieth day of June of the calendar year within which 34 such terms expire under the provisions of this subdivision as hereby 35 amended. For the purpose of determining such year all initial terms of 36 office of appointed members of the boards of trustees of community 37 colleges heretofore established shall be deemed to have commenced on the 38 first day of July of the year in which such colleges were established 39 and the terms of their successors for full terms, if any, shall be 40 deemed to have commenced upon the expiration of the number of years from 41 such date for which such initial appointments were made.

42 § 2. Subdivision 3-a of section 6306 of the education law, as added by 43 chapter 319 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

44 3-a. [~~a~~] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions one and 45 three of this section, effective July first, two thousand [~~eight~~] twen-46 ty-seven, the fashion institute of technology shall be administered by a 47 board of trustees of [~~twelve~~] seventeen members. [~~Six~~] Eight members 48 shall be appointed by the local sponsor, one of whom may be a member of 49 such sponsor; [~~five~~] seven members shall be appointed by the governor 50 from among persons who reside in the city of New York; [~~and~~] one member 51 shall be elected by and from among the students of the fashion institute 52 of technology[~~r~~]

53 ~~(b) The provisions of subdivisions one and three of this section~~
54 ~~notwithstanding, effective July first, two thousand nine, the fashion~~ 55 ~~institute of technology shall be administered by a board of trustees of~~ 56 ~~fourteen members. Seven members shall be appointed by the local sponsor,~~

~~one of whom may be a member of such sponsor, six members shall be appointed by the governor from among persons who reside in the city of New York, and one member shall be elected by and from among the students of the fashion institute of technology.~~

~~(c) The provisions of subdivisions one and three of this section notwithstanding, effective July first, two thousand ten, the fashion institute of technology shall be administered by a board of trustees of sixteen members. Eight members shall be appointed by the local sponsor, one of whom may be a member of such sponsor, seven members shall be appointed by the governor from among persons who reside in the city of New York, and one member shall be elected by and from among the students of the fashion institute of technology]~~ who shall serve as a member of the board for a one-year term; and one of whom shall be elected by and from among the faculty and staff of the college, ex-officio and non-voting, who shall serve a two-year term, provided, however, that the term of the faculty or staff member first elected shall commence July first, two thousand twenty-seven. The faculty or staff member and student member shall be afforded the same parliamentary privileges as are conferred upon voting members, including but not limited to the right to make and second motions and to place items on the agenda. Such faculty or staff and student members shall be subject to every provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, charter, code, rule or regulation applying to the members of such board with respect to the discharge of their duties including, but not limited to, those provisions setting forth codes of ethics, disclosure requirements and prohibiting business and professional activities. The election of the student member shall be conducted in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the respective representative campus student association in accordance with guidelines established by the state university trustees. The election of the faculty or staff member shall be conducted in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the largest faculty organization on each campus. In the event that the student member ceases to be a student at the institution, they shall be required to resign. In the event that the faculty or staff member ceases to be an employee at the institution, they shall be required to resign.

§ 3. Subdivisions 1 and 1-a of section 6310 of the education law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 268 of the laws of 2003, and subdivision 1-a as added by chapter 144 of the laws of 1996, are amended to read as follows:

1. Each community college region and community college sponsored by such region shall be administered by a single board of trustees of ~~fourteen~~ fifteen members, thirteen of whom shall be appointed for terms of seven years, as set forth in this subdivision, and one member elected as herein provided, except that initial appointments shall be made for terms of one to nine years respectively. Seven members shall be appointed by the local legislative bodies or boards of those counties eligible to appoint members to the community college regional board of trustees. The seven locally appointed members of such board may include one member from the local legislative body or board of each county eligible to appoint members to the community college regional board of trustees. Membership in a community college regional board of trustees shall be apportioned among the counties participating in such board in accordance with the number of full-time equivalent students attending a community college sponsored by such regional board who are residents of the respective participating counties, and in accordance with such further regulations as may be prescribed by the state university trustees. Six members shall be appointed by the governor [~~and~~], one member shall be elected by and from among the students of the college who shall serve as a member of the board for a one-year term, provided, however, that the term of the student member first elected shall be nine months commencing October first, nineteen hundred eighty-four, and one member who shall be elected by and from among the faculty and staff of the college, ex-officio and non-voting, who shall serve a two-year term, provided, however, that the term of the faculty or staff member first elected shall commence July first, two thousand twenty-seven. The faculty or staff and student [~~member~~] members shall be afforded the same parliamentary privileges as are conferred upon members, including but not limited to the right to make and second motions and to place items on the agenda. Such faculty or staff and student [~~member~~] members shall be subject to every provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, charter, code, rule or regulation applying to the members of such board with respect to the discharge of their duties including, but not limited to, those provisions setting forth codes of ethics, disclosure requirements and prohibiting business and professional activities. The election of the student member shall be conducted in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the respective representative campus student association in accordance with guidelines established by the state university trustees. The election of the faculty or staff member shall be conducted in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the largest faculty organization on each campus. In the event that the student member ceases to be a student at the institution, [~~he~~] they shall be required to resign. In the event that the faculty or staff member ceases to be an employee at the institution, they shall be required to resign. The governor's initial appointments shall be as follows: (a) two individuals shall be appointed for terms of two and four years respectively; (b) two individuals for terms of six years and two individuals for terms of eight years. Appointments by local authorities shall be as follows: (a) three individuals for terms of one, three and five years, respectively; (b) two individuals for terms of seven years, and two individuals for terms of nine years. Vacancies shall be filled for unexpired terms in the same manner as original selections by the authority responsible for the original selection. The board shall select its own [~~chairman~~] chair from among its voting membership. Trustees shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for their expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties under this article. Members initially appointed or elected under this subdivision to any community college regional board of trustees hereafter established shall take office immediately upon their selection and qualification, but for purposes of determining the expiration of their respective terms and the commencement of the terms of their successors, the term of office of each such initial member shall be deemed to have commenced on the first day of July of the year in which such college was established. The terms of office of all members of community college regional boards of trustees heretofore established, appointed or elected as provided in this subdivision, shall terminate on the thirtieth day of June of the calendar year within which such terms expire under the provisions of this subdivision as hereby amended. For the purpose of determining such year all initial terms of office of appointed members of the community college regional board of trustees heretofore established shall be deemed to have commenced on the first day of July of the year in which such community college regions were established and the terms of their successors

1 for full terms, if any, shall be deemed to have commenced upon the expi-2 ration of the number of years from such date for which such initial 3 appointments were made.

4 The one member elected by and from among the students of the college
5 may be removed by such students in accordance with rules and regulations
6 promulgated by the respective representative campus student association
7 in accordance with guidelines promulgated by the state university trust-8 tees.

9 1-a. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this 10 section, a community college region established to operate as local 11 sponsor of Jamestown community college shall be administered by a single 12 board of trustees of [~~fifteen~~ sixteen members, fourteen of whom shall 13 be appointed for terms of seven years, except that the initial appoint-14 ments shall be made as set forth in this subdivision, [~~and~~] one member 15 who shall be elected by and from among the students of the college and 16 shall serve as set forth in subdivision one of this section, and one 17 member who shall be elected by and from among the faculty and staff of 18 the college and shall serve as set forth in subdivision one of this 19 section. Eight members shall be appointed by the local governing bodies 20 of the counties and city eligible to appoint members to the Jamestown 21 community college regional board of trustees, and six members shall be 22 appointed by the governor. The eight locally appointed members of such 23 board may include one member appointed from among the local governing 24 bodies of the counties or city eligible to appoint members to the 25 regional board of trustees. Membership in the Jamestown community 26 college regional board of trustees shall be apportioned in accordance 27 with the number of full-time equivalent students attending the community 28 college who are residents of the respective participating counties or 29 city, and in accordance with such further regulations as may be 30 prescribed by the state university trustees.

31 Upon the effective date of this subdivision, and notwithstanding any 32 inconsistent provision of any other law, the current Jamestown community 33 college board of trustees shall be redesignated the Jamestown community 34 college regional board of trustees and the terms of the current members 35 of the Jamestown community college board of trustees shall continue 36 until their expiration or termination as provided by section sixty-three 37 hundred six of this chapter. The governor's initial appointments to the 38 Jamestown community college regional board of trustees shall be as 39 follows: one individual shall be appointed for a term of three years, 40 and one individual shall be appointed for a term of five years. Initial 41 appointments by the local authorities shall be as follows: one individ-42 ual shall be appointed for a term of two years, one individual shall be 43 appointed for a term of four years, and one individual shall be 44 appointed for a term of six years. Vacancies shall be filled for unex-
45 pired terms in the same manner as original selections by the authority 46 responsible for the original selection. The board shall select its own 47 [~~chairman~~ chair from among its voting membership. Trustees shall 48 receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for 49 their expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in the perform-50 ance of their duties under this article. Members initially appointed or 51 elected under this subdivision to any community college regional board 52 of trustees hereafter established shall take office immediately upon 53 their selection and qualification, but for purposes of determining the 54 expiration of their respective terms and the commencement of the terms 55 of their successors, the term of office of each such initial member 56 shall be deemed to have commenced on the first day of July of the year

1 in which such college was established. The terms of office of all 2 members of community college regional boards of trustees heretofore
3 established, appointed or elected as provided in this subdivision, shall 4 terminate on the thirtieth day of June of the calendar year within which 5 such terms expire under the provisions of this subdivision as hereby 6 amended. For the purpose of determining such year, all initial terms of 7 office of appointed members of the community college regional board of 8 trustees heretofore established and the terms of their successors for 9 full terms, if any, shall be deemed to have commenced upon the expira-10 tion of the number of years from such date for which such initial 11 appointments were made.

12 The one member elected by and from among the students of the college
13 may be removed by such students in accordance with rules and regulations
14 promulgated by the respective representative campus student association
15 in accordance with guidelines promulgated by the state university trus-
16 tees.

17 In the event that the student member ceases to be a student at the 18 institution, they shall be required to resign. In the event that the 19 faculty or staff member ceases to be an employee at the institution, 20 they shall be required to resign.

21 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
