Introduced by M. of A. ROSENTHAL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the county law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the docketing of judgments imposing civil penalties for the violation of certain requirements imposed by the zoning resolution of the city of New York

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 4 of section 918 of the county law, as amended 2 by section 12 of part G of chapter 55 of the laws of 2024, is amended to 3 read as follows:
4 4. Any other laws to the contrary notwithstanding, the county clerk in 5 each of the counties within the city of New York is authorized and 6 empowered to maintain separate judgment docket volumes containing the 7 printed transcript or transcripts, in strict alphabetical order of judg-8 ment made, entered and docketed in the civil court of the city of New 9 York against individuals, corporations, and other entities on behalf of 10 the parking violations bureau, the environmental control board, the taxi 11 and limousine commission, the department of consumer and worker 12 protection, the office of administrative trials and hearings when acting 13 in accordance with subdivision c of section 7-551 or subdivision b of 14 section 26-3309 of the administrative code of the city of New York and 15 the commissioner of jurors of the city of New York, provided that the 16 judgments made, entered and docketed in the civil court of the city of 17 New York against individuals, corporations, and other entities on behalf 18 of the department of consumer and worker protection shall be limited to 19 final decisions and orders that either (a) award restitution, or mone-20 tary damages, to a consumer or worker; or (b) award such restitution, or 21 monetary damages, to a consumer or worker, together with civil penalties 22 or equitable relief. These volumes may be maintained in the form of 23 computer print outs which shall contain the date of judgment, the name 24 and address of the judgment debtor or debtors, the amount of the judg-25 ment and other information which the county clerk may deem necessary to 26 sufficiently describe the parties to the action or proceeding or nature

16 § 3. Section 26-3309 of the administrative code of the city of New 17 York, as added by local law number 45 of the city of New York for the 18 year 2022 and such section as renumbered by section two of this act, is 19 amended to read as follows:

20 § 26-3309 Enforcement of civil penalty. a. The owner, architect, 21 builder, contractor, engineer or any other person who maintains any 22 building, or who erects, constructs, alters, extends, occupies, uses, 23 operates, rents or sells any building or affordable housing unit subject 24 to applicable affordable housing provisions, or assists or causes same 25 to be done, in conflict with or in violation of any of such provisions, 26 or who fails to comply with an order of the commissioner or violates any 27 order of the commissioner issued pursuant to this chapter, shall be 28 liable for a civil penalty that may be recovered in a proceeding before 29 an administrative tribunal within the jurisdiction of the office of 30 administrative trials and hearings or before a court of competent juris-31 diction.

32 b. Any final decision or order of an administrative tribunal or divi- 33 sion of the office of administrative trials and hearings imposing a 34 civil penalty pursuant to subdivision a of this section, whether the 35 adjudication was had by hearing or upon default or otherwise, shall 36 constitute a judgment which may be entered by such office in the civil 37 court of the city of New York or any other place provided for the entry 38 of civil judgments within the state, and may be enforced without court 39 proceedings in the same manner as the enforcement of money judgments 40 entered in civil actions; provided, however, that no such judgment shall 41 be entered which exceeds the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, and 42 that the terms and limitations applicable to entry of final orders
