AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting the sale of xylazine above a certain weight

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 392-k to read as follows:

§ 392-k. Sale of xylazine. 1. For purposes of this section, the term "xylazine" shall mean a pharmaceutical drug used for sedation, anesthesia, muscle relaxation, and analgesia in animals such as horses, cattle, and other non-human mammals.

2. The provisions of this section shall apply only to the sale, offer for sale, delivery, or distribution of xylazine in quantities of fifty grams or more per occurrence.

3. No corporation, partnership, limited liability company, firm, online platform, or any other business entity doing business within this state shall knowingly sell, offer for sale, or deliver fifty grams or more of xylazine to individuals without proof of its intended use for institutional, veterinary, or scientific purposes.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD02623-07-5

4. No corporation, partnership, limited liability company, firm, online platform, or other business entity doing business within this state shall knowingly sell, offer for sale, or deliver fifty grams or more of xylazine to individuals under the age of twenty-one.

5. Any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, firm, online platform, or other business entity doing business within this state which knowingly sells, offers for sale, or distributes fifty grams or more of xylazine, shall require and retain sales records, proof of age, and proof of use from all purchasers.

6. Any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, firm, online platform, or other business entity doing business within this state that violates the provisions of this section by knowingly selling, offering for sale, or delivering fifty grams or more of xylazine shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than three thousand dollars for a first violation, and sixty-five hundred dollars for each subsequent violation, recoverable in an action by the attorney general of the state of New York. All funds collected or received by the state from civil penalties imposed under this section shall be deposited in the New York state drug treatment and public education fund established pursuant to section ninety-nine-jj of the state finance law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.
