IN ASSEMBLY

January 9, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. HUNTER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing catastrophe savings accounts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Article 22 of the tax law is amended by adding a new part
2 VII to read as follows:

3 PART VII--CATASTROPHE SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

4 Section 710. Definitions.

5 711. Catastrophe savings accounts.

6 § 710. Definitions. As used in this part, the following terms shall 7 have the following definitions:

8 (a) "Catastrophe savings account" means a regular savings account or 9 money market account established by an insurance policyholder for resi-
10 dential real property in this state to cover an insurance deductible 11 under an insurance policy for the taxpayer's primary residence that 12 covers hurricane, rising floodwaters, or other catastrophic windstorm 13 event damage or by an individual to cover self-insured losses for the 14 taxpayer's primary residence from a hurricane, rising floodwaters, or 15 other catastrophic windstorm event.

16 (b) "Qualified catastrophe expenses" mean expenses paid or incurred by 17 reason of a major disaster that has been declared by the governor to be 18 a state disaster emergency pursuant to the provisions of section twen-
19 ty-eight of the executive law.

20 (c) "Qualified deductible" means the deductible for the individual's 21 homeowner's policy for a taxpayer's primary residence.

22 § 711. Catastrophe savings accounts. (a)(1) An individual taxpayer
23 shall be allowed a deduction from the tax imposed pursuant to this arti-24 cle for amounts contributed to a catastrophe savings account pursuant to 25 paragraph three of subsection (b) of this section; and

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (2) All interest income earned by such catastrophe savings account
2 shall be exempt from the tax imposed pursuant to this article.

3 (b)(1) An account must be labeled as a catastrophe savings account in 4 order to qualify as a catastrophe savings account as defined in this 5 article. A taxpayer shall establish only one catastrophe savings account 6 and shall specify that the purpose of the account is to cover the amount 7 of insurance deductibles and other uninsured portions of risks of loss
8 from hurricane, rising floodwater, or other catastrophic windstorm
9 event.

10 (2) A catastrophe savings account shall not be subject to attachment,
11 levy, garnishment, or legal process in the state.

12 (3) The total amount that may be contributed to a catastrophe savings 13 account shall not exceed:

14 (A) in the case of an individual whose qualified deductible is not 15 more than one thousand dollars, two thousand dollars;

16 (B) in the case of an individual whose qualified deductible is more
17 than one thousand dollars, the amount equal to the lesser of fifteen 18 thousand dollars or twice the amount of the taxpayer's qualified deduct-19 ible; or

20 (C) in the case of a self-insured individual who chooses not to obtain 21 insurance on their primary residence two hundred fifty thousand dollars,
22 but in no event shall exceed the value of the individual taxpayer's 23 primary residence.

24 (4) If a taxpayer contributes in excess of the limits provided in 25 paragraph three of this subsection, such taxpayer shall withdraw the 26 amount of the excess contributions and include such amount in their 27 income for purposes of this article in the year of withdrawal.

28 (c) A distribution from a catastrophe savings account shall be 29 included in the income of the distributee unless the amount of the 30 distribution is used to cover qualified catastrophe expenses.

31 (d) No amount is included in income, pursuant to subsection (c) of 32 this section, if the qualified catastrophe expenses of the distributee
33 during the taxable year are equal to or greater than the aggregate
34 distributions during the taxable year.

35 (e) If aggregate distributions exceed the qualified catastrophe
36 expenses during the taxable year, the amount otherwise included in 37 income shall be reduced by the amount of the distributions for qualified 38 catastrophe expenses.

39 (f)(1) The tax imposed pursuant to this article attributable to a 40 taxable distribution shall be increased by two and one-half percent of 41 the amount which is includable in income.

42 (2) Such additional tax shall not apply if:

43 (A) the taxpayer no longer owns a primary residence within the state; 44 or

45 (B) the distribution is from an account conforming with subparagraph
46 (C) of paragraph three of subsection (b) of this section and is made on 47 or after the date on which the distributee attains the age of seventy.

48 (g)(1) No amount is includable in taxable income, pursuant to 49 subsection (c) of this section, if the distribution is from an account
50 conforming with subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph three of subsection 51 (b) of this section and is made on or after the date on which the 52 distributee attains the age of seventy.

53 (2) If a taxpayer receives a nontaxable distribution under this 54 subsection, such taxpayer shall not make further contributions to a 55 catastrophe savings account.

1 (h) In the event of death of the taxpayer that owns a catastrophe
2 savings account, such account shall be included in income of the person 3 who receives the account, unless such person is the surviving spouse of 4 the taxpayer. Upon the death of such surviving spouse, the account shall 5 be included in the income of the person who receives the account. The 6 additional tax in subsection (f) of this section shall not apply in the 7 event of a distribution on death.

8 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-9 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
