38 The disclosure requirement in questions (b-1) and (b-2) shall not

 42 the reporting individual's firm or if federal law prohibits or limits

44 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the commission on ethics
45 and lobbying in government or the office of court administration may 46 consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative 47 ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may 48 consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination,

50 court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider 51 factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of 52 the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state;

4 unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

5 The commission on ethics and lobbying in government or, as the case
6 may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final 7 determination in response to such request, which shall include an expla-
8 nation for its determination. The office of court administration shall 9 issue its final determination within three days of receiving the 10 request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional 11 disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any 12 client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute 13 professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, 14 or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceed-
15 ing. A reporting individual who first enters public office after January 16 first, two thousand sixteen, need not report clients or customers with 17 respect to matters for which the reporting individual or [~~his or her~~]

38 performed while lawfully acting pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and 39 (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article. The 40 disclosure requirements in this question shall not require disclosing 41 clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental

44 individual's firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The

3 initial public offering, and federal law or regulations restricts the 4 disclosure of information relating to such work, the reporting individ-

6 provided relating to the initial public offering to the office of court 7 administration, who will maintain such information confidentially in a
