AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to the privacy and confidentiality of urine test results performed pursuant to a judicial diversion program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 5 of section 216.05 of the criminal procedure
2 law, as amended by chapter 435 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read 3 as follows:

4 5. The defendant shall agree on the record or in writing to abide by 5 the release conditions set by the court, which, shall include: partic-
6 ipation in a specified period of alcohol or substance use treatment at a 7 specified program or programs identified by the court, which may include 8 periods of detoxification, residential or outpatient treatment, or both, 9 as determined after taking into account the views of the health care 10 professional who conducted the alcohol and substance use evaluation and 11 any health care professionals responsible for providing such treatment 12 or monitoring the defendant's progress in such treatment; and may 13 include: (i) periodic court appearances, which may include periodic 14 urinalysis, provided that the results of any such urinalysis, as well as 15 any other information acquired as part of the urinalysis process, shall 16 be deemed private and confidential and shall not be disclosed to the 17 court or any adverse party, unless the individual who was tested
18 consents to such disclosure, nor shall any urine test result that indi-
19 cates the use of a non-prescribed substance be used as evidence in a 20 criminal action against the individual whose urine was tested. The 21 results of any such urinalysis shall be disclosed to the specified
22 treatment program or programs; (ii) a requirement that the defendant
23 refrain from engaging in criminal behaviors; (iii) if the defendant
