Introduced by M. of A. MAHER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to authorize the commissioner of the department of civil service to reinstate Daniel Montalto on the eligible civil service list for employment as a police officer in the town of Shawangunk

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding the provision of section 58 of the civil service law or any other provision of law to the contrary, Daniel Montalto, who was eligible to sit for the civil service exam for police officers on December 4, 2004, and was eligible for employment as a police officer for the town of Hyde Park, New York, at that time, and who took and passed said exam on December 4, 2004, and whose name appeared on the next civil service eligible list, and who served as a police officer in the town of Hyde Park, New York from 2005 to 2019, and who is now forty-three years of age and no longer deemed eligible for employment as a police officer due to the 35-year maximum age limit for police officers pursuant to section 58 of the civil service law, shall be exempt from said thirty-five year old maximum age limit and shall be eligible for employment as a police officer in the town of Shawangunk, New York. Daniel Montalto shall otherwise be subject to the merit and fitness provisions of the civil service laws applicable to full-time police officers.

§ 2. The commissioner of the department of civil service shall reinstate Daniel Montalto on the eligible civil service list, without lost rank or seniority, provided Mr. Montalto files a request to that effect with the state comptroller by January 1, 2027. Any such reinstatement shall be effective immediately.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
