IN ASSEMBLY

January 23, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. ANDERSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the judiciary law, in relation to requiring certain justices and judges to visit the correctional facility with the highest population in the county in which such justice or judge was elected or appointed

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The judiciary law is amended by adding a new section 211-b 2 to read as follows:

3 § 211-b. Correctional facility visitation requirements for judges and 4 justices. 1. The chief judge shall require justices of the supreme 5 court, judges of the county court and judges of the court of claims,
6 regularly sitting in a criminal term or in a term with criminal as well 7 as civil jurisdiction to visit the correctional facility with the high-8 est population of incarcerated individuals in the county in which such 9 justice or judge is appointed or elected within two years of such 10 appointment or election and every two years thereafter. Such visitation 11 requirement shall be in addition to the requirements pursuant to 22
12 NYCRR section 17.1.

13 2. Within six months of a visit to the correctional facility as 14 required by subdivision one of this section, the justice or judge shall 15 prepare a report on the conditions of such correctional facility and 16 submit such report to the clerk of the court of appeals. Such conditions 17 shall include, but not be limited to the welfare of incarcerated indi-18 viduals, healthcare provided to incarcerated individuals, sanitary 19 conditions in the correctional facility and any disciplinary actions
20 against employees of the correctional facility and incarcerated individ-21 uals.

22 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
