1 ous five years with respect to benefits under the temporary assistance
2 to needy families block grant program, and safety net assistance program
3 and within the previous seven years with respect to medical assistance, 4 provided such noncitizen:

5 (1) (A) has been confirmed as a victim of human trafficking by the 6 office of temporary and disability assistance and the division of criminal 7 justice services, pursuant to section four hundred eighty-three-cc 8 of this chapter; or

9 (B) has provided a sworn statement that the noncitizen is a foreign-10 born victim of trafficking or domestic violence and other serious crimes
11 for which immigration relief is available via pursuit of a T or U visa,
12 Violence Against Women Act related petition or application, special 13 immigrant juvenile status, or application for asylum, in addition to at 14 least one item of corroborating evidence, including, but not limited to, 15 an attestation from an established provider of social or legal services
16 pursuant to applicable division of criminal justice services regulations
17 that the noncitizen is a victim of human trafficking, domestic violence
18 or any other crimes that form the basis for applying for a T or U visa,
19 filing a Violence Against Women Act related petition or application, 20 filing for special immigrant juvenile status, a victim of torture, or 21 filing an application for asylum and that the noncitizen is on the wait-22 ing list for legal or social services related to such victimization; 23 provided, however, that if an established provider of legal services who 24 provided a noncitizen with an attestation under this subclause is no 25 longer able to represent the noncitizen for these immigration needs, the 26 noncitizen may submit a new attestation from another established provid-27 er of legal services, which will start anew the deadline to apply for 28 immigration relief.

29 (2) (A) For a noncitizen who has filed a petition or application for 30 immigration relief pursuant to subclause (B) of clause one of this 31 subparagraph, benefits issued pursuant to this subparagraph shall be 32 available to the noncitizen and their spouse and unmarried children
33 under twenty-one years of age for the duration that such noncitizen's 34 immigration-related petition or application is pending. For petitions or 35 applications that remain pending two years after the initial filing of 36 such petition or application, the administering entities issuing the 37 temporary assistance to needy families block grant program, the safety 38 net assistance program or medical assistance to eligible noncitizens 39 shall issue requests for confirmation of pending status.

40 (B) For noncitizens who have not yet filed a petition or application
41 for immigration relief pursuant to subclause (B) of clause one of this 42 subparagraph, benefits issued pursuant to this subparagraph shall be 43 available for up to two years for the noncitizen and their spouse and 44 unmarried children under twenty-one years of age. Such benefits shall 45 discontinue if there is a final administrative denial of the immigra-
46 tion-related petition or application under Section 1101(a)(15)(T), 47 1101(a)(15)(U), 1101(a)(27)(J), 1101(a)(51), 1158, or 1229b(b)(2) of 48 Title 8 of the United States Code.

49 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
