Introduced by M. of A. REILLY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to allowing prosecutors to combine certain charges

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 12 of section 155.30 of the penal law, as added by section 1 of part FF of chapter 55 of the laws of 2024, is amended and a new subdivision 13 is added to read as follows:

12. The property consists of retail goods or merchandise stolen pursuant to a common scheme or plan or a single, ongoing intent to deprive another or others of the property or to appropriate the property to the actor or another person and the value of the property exceeds one thousand dollars, which value may be determined by the aggregate value of all such property regardless of whether the goods or merchandise were stolen from the same owner. Nothing in this subdivision shall be read to limit the ability to aggregate the value of any property or the ability to charge the larceny of retail goods or merchandise under another applicable provision of law[~~.~~]; or

13. Such person has previously been subjected to two or more petit larceny convictions as defined in section 155.25 of this article within the eighteen months immediately preceding the charge under this section and the aggregate value of the property exceeds one thousand dollars.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
