4362--A

2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 4, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. ROSENTHAL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Children and Families -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to duty owed by certain agencies to children in the legal custody of the agencies; and to amend the court of claims act, in relation to extending jurisdiction to certain claims for injuries to a child in the legal custody of the state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 2 419-a to read as follows:

3 § 419-a. Liability. 1. Notwithstanding their performance of govern-
4 mental functions, public agencies that are authorized agencies under 5 this chapter, including without limitation, cities, counties, towns,
6 villages and other municipalities, shall owe a nondelegable special duty 7 to a child under the age of eighteen in the authorized agency's legal 8 custody to provide for the child's safety and to exercise reasonable
9 care in the prevention of foreseeable harm to the child. Such public 10 agencies that breach this duty shall be liable to the child for negli-
11 gence in the placement of the child or in the supervision of the child 12 in a temporary home or residential facility, proximately causing injury 13 to the child. The liability of public agencies under this section shall 14 be in the same manner and to the same extent as private entities, with-15 out entitlement to governmental immunity.

16 2. The nondelegable special duty to a child in custody provided under 17 this section shall encompass liability for the negligent acts or omis-
18 sions of employees or agents of a not-for-profit contract agency
19 performing the duties of placement or supervision for the child.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 3. A person who has a physical, psychological, or other injury or 2 condition suffered as a result of acts or omissions which would violate 3 or not be in compliance with any requirement or duty arising under this 4 article or title three of article seven of this chapter, shall have a 5 statutory private right of action for compensatory damages.

6 § 2. Section 9 of the court of claims act is amended by adding a new 7 subdivision 14 to read as follows:

8 14. To hear and determine a claim against the state for negligence
9 causing injuries to a child in the legal custody of the state, including 10 juvenile detention, mental health placement, or any other manner of 11 custody by the state, caused by any person in the placement or super-12 vision of the child, or in the supervision of the facility in which the 13 child is placed.

14 § 3. Severability. The provisions of this act shall be severable, and 15 if any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision or part of this act
16 shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, 17 such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder 18 thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, 19 paragraph, subdivision or part thereof directly involved in the contro-
20 versy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

21 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately and its provisions shall 22 be applicable to civil claims or causes of action filed before, on, or 23 after, the effective date of this act.
