27 § 2. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new section
28 1266-n to read as follows:

29 § 1266-n. Training in the reporting of suspected cases of child abuse
30 and maltreatment. 1. Every employee of the authority required to report 31 child abuse or maltreatment, pursuant to subdivision one of section four 32 hundred thirteen of the social services law, shall, prior to assumption 33 of the position which requires such reporting, complete two hours of 34 coursework or training regarding the identification and reporting of 35 child abuse and maltreatment; provided that every employee holding such 36 a position on or before the effective date of this section shall 37 complete such coursework or training within one year of the effective 38 date of this section. Employees shall complete two hours of subsequent 39 coursework or training not less than once every two years.

40 2. The office of children and family services shall approve and/or 41 establish the coursework and training required to implement the 42 provisions of this section. Such coursework and training may be devel-43 oped so that it can be offered through various means including, but not 44 limited to, internet-based courses and teleconferences.

45 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 46 it shall have become a law; provided, however that if chapter 733 of the 47 laws of 2023 shall not have taken effect on or before such date then 48 section one of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the 49 same manner as such chapter of the laws of 2023, takes effect.
