2 diagnostic imaging studies using ionizing and non-ionizing imaging meth-
3 ods, adjustment, mobilization, manipulation, traction, and decom-
4 pression, and other procedures consisting of but not limited to, heat,
5 cold, light, air, water, sound, electricity, massage, manual therapies,
6 therapeutic exercise with or without assistive devices. Chiropractors 7 may use diagnostic clinical laboratory methods directly related to the 8 diagnosis and monitoring of neuromusculoskeletal conditions, including 9 those assessing nutritional or metabolic factors that impact musculosk-
10 eletal health, as approved by the department.

11 b. Chiropractic examination, diagnostic and treatment methods may also 12 include electrodiagnostic testing and manipulation under anesthesia when 13 appropriate education standards have been met and as approved by the 14 department as being appropriate to the practice of chiropractic.

15 c. The practice of the profession of chiropractic allows a licensed
16 chiropractor who has successfully completed a registered doctoral, post-
17 doctoral or continuing education certification program of a higher 18 education credential by an accrediting agency, which contains courses of 19 study in wellness care methods, nutrition, and dietary advice satisfac-
20 tory to the department; use of wellness care methods and the ability to 21 engage in nutritional counseling and dietary advice, including the 22 dispensing of food concentrates, food extracts, nutraceuticals, vita-23 mins, minerals, and other nutritional supplements approved by the 24 department as being appropriate to, and as a part of, the practice of 25 chiropractic, as the above relates to the definition of the practice of 26 chiropractic in subdivision one of this section.

27 3. a. A license to practice as a chiropractor shall permit a chirop-28 ractic practitioner in their professional discretion the ability to 29 take, order and use x-ray and diagnostic imaging studies but shall not 30 permit the holder thereof to use [~~radio-therapy, fluoroscopy, or any~~ 31 ~~form of ionizing radiation except X-ray which shall be used for the~~ 32 ~~detection of structural imbalance, distortion, or subluxations in the~~ 33 ~~human body]~~ ionizing radiation sources for the purposes of radiotherapy.

34 b. The requirements and limitations with respect to the use of [~~X-ray]~~ 35 diagnostic imaging studies by chiropractors shall be enforced by the 36 state commissioner of health and [~~he]~~ the commissioner is authorized to 37 promulgate rules and regulations after conferring with the [~~board]~~
38 department to carry out the purposes of this subdivision.

39 c. Chiropractors shall retain for a period of three years all [~~X-ray~~
40 ~~films]~~ diagnostic images taken in the course of their practice, together
41 with the records pertaining thereto, and shall make such [~~films]~~ images 42 and records available to the state commissioner of health or [~~his]~~ their 43 representative on demand.

44 [~~3.~~] 4. Chiropractors may use diagnostic clinical laboratory methods 45 involving chemical or biological means which particular tests and 46 services shall be approved by the department as appropriate to the prac-
47 tice of chiropractic as defined in this section.

48 5. A license to practice chiropractic shall not permit the holder
49 thereof to treat for any infectious diseases such as pneumonia, any 50 communicable diseases listed in the sanitary code of the state of New 51 York, any of the cardio-vascular-renal or cardio-pulmonary diseases, any 52 surgical condition [~~of the abdomen such as acute appendicitis, or~~ 53 ~~diabetes]~~, or any benign or malignant neoplasms; to operate; to reduce 54 fractures [~~or dislocations]~~; to prescribe, administer, dispense or use 55 in [~~his]~~ their practice drugs or medicines[~~, or to use diagnostic or~~ 56 ~~therapeutic methods involving chemical or biological means except diag-~~

1 ~~nostic services performed by clinical laboratories which services shall~~
 2 ~~be approved by the board as appropriate to the practice of chiropractic,~~
 3 ~~or to utilize electrical devices except those devices approved by the~~ 4 ~~board as being appropriate to the practice of chiropractic. Nothing~~
 5 ~~herein shall be construed to prohibit a licensed chiropractor who has~~
 6 ~~successfully completed a registered doctoral program in chiropractic,~~
 7 ~~which contains courses of study in nutrition satisfactory to the depart-~~ 8 ~~ment, from using nutritional counseling, including the dispensing of~~ 9 ~~food concentrates, food extracts, vitamins, minerals, and other nutri-~~ 10 ~~tional supplements approved by the board as being appropriate to, and as~~ 11 ~~a part of, his or her practice of chiropractic. Nothing herein shall be~~ 12 ~~construed to prohibit an individual who is not subject to regulation in~~ 13 ~~this state as a licensed chiropractor from engaging in nutritional coun-~~
 14 ~~seling.] or controlled substances or to administer or use anesthetics.~~
 15 Chiropractors may use topical analgesic substances and anesthetic balms, 16 salves or emollients or advise on over the counter substances.

17 § 2. Section 6552 of the education law, as added by chapter 987 of the 18 laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

19 § 6552. Practice of chiropractic and use of title "chiropractor" or 20 "doctor of chiropractic". Only a person licensed [~~or exempt~~] or other-21 wise authorized under this article [~~shall~~] to practice chiropractic [~~or~~]
 22 may use the title "chiropractor" or "doctor of chiropractic".

23 § 3. Section 6553 of the education law, as added by chapter 987 of the 24 laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

25 § 6553. State board for chiropractic. A state board for chiropractic 26 shall be appointed by the board of regents on recommendation of the 27 commissioner for the purpose of assisting the board of regents and the 28 department on matters of professional licensing and professional conduct 29 in accordance with section sixty-five hundred eight of this title. The 30 board shall be composed of not less than [~~seven~~] eight members, includ-
 31 ing [~~at least four licensed~~] seven chiropractors[~~, one licensed physi-~~
 32 ~~cian who is a doctor of medicine, one licensed physician who is a doctor~~
 33 ~~of osteopathy, and one educator who holds a doctorate or equivalent~~
 34 ~~degree in either anatomy, physiology, pathology, chemistry or microbiol-~~
 35 ~~ogy] licensed in this state and one public member. An executive secre-
 36 tary to the board shall be appointed by the board of regents on recom-
 37 mendation of the commissioner.~~

38 § 4. Section 6554 of the education law, as added by chapter 987 of the 39 laws of 1971, subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 994 of the laws of 40 1971, subdivision 6 as amended by chapter 669 of the laws of 2022, and 41 subdivision 8 as amended by chapter 62 of the laws of 1989, is amended
 42 to read as follows:

24 ioner's regulations and has received two years of training at a United 25 States accredited chiropractic school;

26 d. Any graduate of a chiropractic school which meets standards satis-
27 factory to the department, provided such practice is under the general
28 supervision of a licensed chiropractor for a maximum period of twelve 29 months from date of graduation.

30 2. Limit of practice. A permittee shall be authorized to practice
31 chiropractic only under the supervision of a licensed chiropractor and 32 only in a licensed chiropractic office or clinical setting.

33 3. Duration. A limited permit shall be valid for one year. A limited
34 permit may be renewed annually at the discretion of the department.

35 4. Fees. The fee for each limited permit and for each renewal shall be 36 one hundred five dollars.

37 § 7. The education law is amended by adding a new section 6557 to read
38 as follows:

39 § 6557. Special provisions. 1. Non-liability of licensed chiropractors
40 for first aid or emergency treatment. Notwithstanding any inconsistent
41 provision of any general, special or local law, any licensed chiroprac-
42 tor who voluntarily and without the expectation of monetary compensation 43 renders first aid or emergency treatment at the scene of an accident or 44 other emergency, outside a hospital, doctor's office or any other place 45 having proper and necessary chiropractic equipment, to a person who is 46 unconscious, ill or injured, shall not be liable for damages for inju-47 ries alleged to have been sustained by such person or for damages for 48 the death of such person alleged to have occurred by reason of an act or 49 omission in the rendering of such first aid or emergency treatment
50 unless it is established that such injuries were or such death was 51 caused by gross negligence on the part of such chiropractor. Nothing in 52 this section shall be deemed or construed to relieve a licensed chiro-53 practor from liability for damages for injuries or death caused by an 54 act or omission on the part of a chiropractor while rendering profes-
55 sional services in the normal and ordinary course of their practice.

1 2. This article shall not be construed to affect or prevent the 2 following:

3 a. The furnishing of any assistance in an emergency;

4 b. The chiropractor from being a primary portal of entry healthcare
5 provider.

6 3. There shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause
7 of action for damages shall arise against, any person, partnership,
8 corporation, firm, society, or other entity on account of the communi-
9 cation of information in the possession of such person or entity, or on 10 account of any recommendation or evaluation, regarding the qualifica-
11 tions, fitness, or professional conduct or practices of a chiropractor,
12 to any governmental agency, chiropractic society, a hospital as defined
13 in article twenty-eight of the public health law, a hospital as defined 14 in subdivision ten of section 1.03 of the mental hygiene law, or a 15 health maintenance organization organized under article forty-four of 16 the public health law or article forty-three of the insurance law, 17 including a committee of an individual practice association or medical 18 group acting pursuant to a contract with a health maintenance organiza-
19 tion. The foregoing shall not apply to information which is untrue and 20 communicated with malicious intent.

21 § 8. This act shall take effect eighteen months after it shall have 22 become a law.
