

STATE OF NEW YORK

4877

2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 7, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. SHRESTHA, SHIMSKY, KELLES, ROMERO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, in relation to enacting the rent emergency stabilization for tenants act on local determinations of a housing emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "rent emergency stabilization for tenants act".

3 § 2. Section 3 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974,
4 constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-5 four, subdivision a as amended by chapter 69 of the laws of 1980, subdivi-6 sions d, f and g as added by chapter 698 of the laws of 2023 and 7 subdivision e as amended by chapter 100 of the laws of 2024, is amended 8 to read as follows:

9 § 3. Local determination of emergency; end of emergency. a. The exist-
10 ence of public emergency requiring the regulation of residential rents 11 for all or any class or classes of housing accommodations, including any 12 plot or parcel of land which had been rented prior to May first, nine-13 teen hundred fifty, for the purpose of permitting the tenant thereof to 14 construct or place [~~his~~] such tenant's own dwelling thereon and on which 15 plot or parcel of land there exists a dwelling owned and occupied by a 16 tenant of such plot or parcel, heretofore destabilized; heretofore or 17 hereafter decontrolled, exempt, not subject to control, or exempted from 18 regulation and control under the provisions of the emergency housing 19 rent control law, the local emergency housing rent control act or the 20 New York city rent stabilization law of nineteen hundred sixty-nine; or 21 subject to stabilization or control under such rent stabilization law, 22 shall be a matter for local determination within each city, town or 23 village. Any such determination shall be made by the local legislative 24 body of such city, town or village on the basis of the supply of housing

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

LBD05109-03-5

1 accommodations within such city, town or village, the condition of such 2 accommodations and the need for regulating and controlling residential 3 rents within such city, town or village.

4 [A] b. For a city having a population of one million or more resi-
5 dents, a declaration of emergency may be made as to any class of housing 6 accommodations if the vacancy rate for the housing accommodations in 7 such class within such municipality is not in excess of five percent and 8 a declaration of emergency may be made as to all housing accommodations
9 if the vacancy rate for the housing accommodations within such munici-10 pality is not in excess of five percent.

11 [B-] c. For a city having a population of less than one million resi-12 dents or a town or village, the local legislative body may declare a 13 housing emergency through the process described in paragraph one or two 14 of this subdivision.

15 (1) The local legislative body may declare a housing emergency after 16 considering publicly available data and holding public hearings. Before 17 declaring such emergency, the local legislative body shall consider 18 publicly available data measuring or estimating factors such as: over-19 all housing supply, vacancy rate for housing accommodations, the avail-
20 ability of affordable and habitable housing accommodations, rent burdens 21 for tenants or other measures of housing affordability, the local or 22 regional homelessness rate, and the need for regulating rents within 23 such city, town or village.

24 (2) The local legislative body may declare an emergency as to any 25 class of housing accommodations if the vacancy rate for such housing 26 accommodations in such class within such municipality is not in excess 27 of five percent and a declaration of emergency may be made as to all 28 housing accommodations if the vacancy rate for the housing accommo-29 dations within such municipality is not in excess of five percent.

30 (i) A municipality or a designee, as part of a study to determine its 31 vacancy rate, owners, or their agent, of housing accommodations in the 32 class of housing accommodations determined, shall provide the most 33 recent records of rent rolls and, if available, records for the preced-
34 ing thirty-six months. Such records shall include the tenant's relevant 35 information relating to finding the vacancy rate of such municipality 36 including but not limited to the name, address, and amount paid or 37 charged on a weekly, monthly, or annual basis for each occupied housing 38 accommodation and which housing accommodations are vacant at the time of 39 the survey and available for rent. Such records shall also include any 40 housing accommodations that are vacant and not available for rent and 41 provide the reason why such unit is not available for rent.

42 (ii) A municipality may impose a civil penalty or fee of up to five 43 hundred dollars on an owner or their agent if such owner or their agent 44 refuses to participate in such vacancy survey and cooperate with such 45 municipality or a designee in such vacancy survey, or submits knowingly
46 and intentionally false vacancy information.

47 (iii) A nonrespondent owner shall be deemed to have zero vacancies.

48 (iv) Identifying data or information shall be kept confidential and 49 shall not be shared, traded, given, or sold to any other entity for any 50 purpose outside of such vacancy study.

51 d. A city of under one million residents or a town or village may add 52 classes of accommodation to regulation under this act in buildings
53 containing fewer than six units.

54 e. The local governing body of a city, town or village having declared 55 an emergency pursuant to subdivision a, b, or c of this section may at 56 any time, on the basis of the supply of housing accommodations within

1 such city, town or village, the condition of such accommodations and the 2 need for continued regulation and control of residential rents within 3 such municipality, declare that the emergency is either wholly or 4 partially abated or that the regulation of rents pursuant to this act
5 does not serve to abate such emergency and thereby remove one or more
6 classes of accommodations from regulation under this act. ~~[The emergency 7 must be declared at an end once the vacancy rate described in subdivi-
8 sion a of this section exceeds five percent.~~

9 ~~c.]~~ f. No resolution declaring the existence or end of an emergency, 10 as authorized by subdivisions a ~~[and]~~, b or c of this section, may be 11 adopted except after public hearing held on not less than ten days 12 public notice, as the local legislative body may reasonably provide.

13 ~~[d. When requested by a municipality or a designee, as a part of a 14 study to determine its vacancy rate, owners, or their agent, of housing 15 accommodations in the class of housing accommodations determined, shall 16 provide the most recent records of rent rolls and, if available, records 17 for the preceding thirty six months. Such records shall include the 18 tenant's relevant information relating to finding the vacancy rate of 19 such municipality including but not limited to the name, address, and 20 amount paid or charged on a weekly, monthly, or annual basis for each 21 occupied housing accommodation and which housing accommodations are 22 vacant at the time of the survey and available for rent. Such records 23 shall also include any housing accommodations that are vacant and not 24 available for rent and provide the reason why such unit is not available
25 for rent.~~

26 ~~e. A municipality may impose a civil penalty or fee of up to five 27 hundred dollars on an owner or their agent if the owner or their agent 28 refuses to participate in such vacancy survey and cooperate with the 29 municipality or a designee in such vacancy survey, or submits knowingly
30 and intentionally false vacancy information.~~

31 ~~f. A nonrespondent owner shall be deemed to have zero vacancies.~~

32 ~~g. Identifying data or information shall be kept confidential and 33 shall not be shared, traded, given, or sold to any other entity for any
34 purpose outside of such vacancy study.]~~

35 § 3. Subdivision a of section 5 of chapter 4 of chapter 576 of the 36 laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nine-37 teen seventy-four, is amended by adding a new paragraph 5-b to read as 38 follows:

39 (5-b) housing accommodations located in a city having a population of 40 less than one million residents or a town or village in buildings 41 completed or buildings substantially rehabilitated as family units with-42 in the past fifteen years.

43 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.