AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to establishing Three King's day as a school holiday

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 3204-a to read as follows:

§ 3204-a. Three King's day school holiday. 1. The sixth day of January, commonly known as Three King's day, is hereby made and declared to be a holiday for all public schools in a qualified school district.

2. A qualified school district, for purposes of this section, shall mean a city school district of a city having a population of one million or more inhabitants.

3. The school authorities of a qualified school district are hereby authorized and directed to cause all public schools within such district to be closed on Three King's day.

§ 2. Section 3604 of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 7-a to read as follows:

7-a. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for purposes of any calculation under subdivision seven or eight of this section, the commissioner shall disregard any reduction resulting from observance of Three King's day and, if necessary, such observed holiday shall be calculated as a session day.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
