AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to the determination of damages in a civil action arising from personal injury or wrongful death

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "protecting rights in civil earnings determinations (P.R.I.C.E.D) act".

§ 2. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new section 5022 to read as follows:

§ 5022. Determination of damages. 1. In any civil action arising from personal injury or wrongful death, any estimations, measures, or calculations of damages for lost earnings or impaired earning capacity shall not be reduced because of age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence.

2. In any civil action arising from personal injury or wrongful death, any reduction of damages shall not be based upon statistical tables alone.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to civil actions commenced on or after such effective date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
