§ 1301. Legislative findings. The legislature finds and declares that:

1. During the period beginning late in the fifteenth century through the nineteenth century, millions of persons of African origin were enslaved and brought to the Western Hemisphere, including the United States of America; of the 12.5 million enslaved Africans brought, 10.7 million survived the middle passage or approximately 20% perished during their journey to the Western hemisphere. The enslavement of Africans and their descendants was part of a concerted effort of physical and psychological terror that deprived groups of people of African descent the

1 opportunity to preserve many of their economic, social, religious, poli-
2 tical and other customs; the vestiges of slavery in this country contin-
3 ued with the legalization of second class citizenship status for Afri-
4 can-Americans through from the end of Reconstruction in 1876 until the 5 Civil Rights Era that spanned the 1950s through 1968, including Jim Crow 6 laws, segregation and other similar practices; the legacy of slavery has 7 pervaded the fabric of our society; and in spite of these events there 8 are endless examples of the influence of the history of Africans on the 9 cultural, economic, political and social foundation of the United 10 States, the Americas and the economies, politics and societies of Europe
11 and beyond. The enduring legacy of chattel slavery in the United States 12 and the Americas, including the social construct created and cemented by 13 the biological myth of race and the resulting inequities and injustices
14 stemming from racism. That was challenged by the perseverance, activism 15 and aforementioned contributions of the enslaved Africans, their 16 descendants and stakeholders, throughout history.

17 2. We should know of and remember the human carnage and dehumanizing 18 atrocities committed during the period of the African slave trade and 19 slavery in America and of the vestiges of slavery in this country; and 20 it is in fact vital to educate our citizens on these events, the legacy 21 of slavery, the sad history of racism in this country, and on the prin-22 ciples of human rights and dignity in a civilized society.

23 3. It is the policy of the state of New York that Black history, 24 including the history of Africa, the trans-Atlantic slave trade, the 25 African diaspora, chattel slavery, the African slave trade, slavery in 26 America, the legacy of slavery on our society, the depth of their impact 27 in our society, and the triumphs of Africans and their descendants and 28 their significant contributions to the development of this country is 29 the proper concern of all people, particularly students enrolled in the 30 schools of the state of New York.

31 4. There is a need for education reform from preschool through college 32 in order to mitigate the devastating effect of racism in education and 33 the complete miseducation of our population around Black history.

34 5. It is therefore desirable to create a state-level commission, which 35 shall oversee the budget and operation of the Amistad commission as it 36 seeks to provide the students of New York with a more adequate inclu-
37 sion of the history of Africa, chattel slavery, the African diaspora, 38 the legacy of slavery and the contributions of African-Americans in 39 building our country.
