

STATE OF NEW YORK

595

2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

(Prefiled)

January 8, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. HEVESI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to establishing alternative living arrangements for children who are at a substantial risk of abuse

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 412 of the social services law is amended by adding 2 a new subdivision 10 to read as follows:

3 10. An "alternative living arrangement" means a temporary, written and 4 agreed upon out of home living arrangement developed as a result of an 5 investigation of child maltreatment by the child protective service that 6 would allow for a relative or suitable person as defined in subdivisions 7 (m) and (n) of section one thousand twelve of the family court act or 8 paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subdivision three of section four hundred 9 fifty-eight-a of this article, who is identified by any parent, person 10 legally responsible or child over the age of five, to temporarily care 11 for a child who is at a substantial risk of abuse as defined in para-12 graph (i), (ii) or (iii) of subdivision (e) of section one thousand 13 twelve of the family court act or in imminent danger of neglect as 14 defined in paragraph (i) of subdivision (f) of section one thousand 15 twelve of such act.

16 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 424 of the social services law, as added 17 by chapter 1039 of the laws of 1973, is amended to read as follows:

18 2. maintain and keep up-to-date a local child abuse and maltreatment
19 register of all cases reported under this title together with any addi-20 tional information obtained and a record of the final disposition of the 21 report, including services offered and accepted and any alternative 22 living arrangement made for the care of any child in the home of a rela-23 tive or suitable person;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD01614-01-5

1 § 3. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 424-c 2 to read as follows:

3 § 424-c. Alternative living arrangements. 1. An alternative living 4 arrangement may be facilitated by the child protective service to 5 arrange for the child to temporarily reside with a relative or suitable 6 person without a judicial removal for a limited amount of time and is 7 available only in circumstances where grounds exist for removal pursuant 8 to article ten of the family court act. Prior to offering such an 9 arrangement to a family, the child protective service worker must 10 explain that the child protective service has no legal authority to 11 compel such family to agree to the arrangement but may inform the family 12 of the obligations and authority of the child protective service to 13 petition the family court for a determination that a child is in need of 14 care and protection. This out of home arrangement shall not be used 15 without written documentation of the circumstances that warrant removal.

16 2. (a) An alternative living arrangement agreement shall be in writ-17 ing, signed by the authorized child protective services worker, parent 18 or person legally responsible, and the relative or suitable person and 19 shall include:

20 (i) a specific action or actions agreed upon for the parent or person 21 legally responsible to mitigate the identified grounds that warrant 22 removal;

23 (ii) names, addresses, and contact information of the authorized child 24 protective services worker and their immediate supervisor, parent or 25 person legally responsible, and the relative or suitable person or 26 persons;

27 (iii) length of the alternative living arrangement; and 28 (iv) plan for re-assessment for reunification or judicial removal.

29 (b) The signature of the parent or person legally responsible only 30 signifies agreement to the temporary alternative living arrangement and 31 shall not be considered an admission of the accuracy of the safety eval-32 uation and determination of risk pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivi-33 sion six of section four hundred twenty-four of this title by the parent 34 or person legally responsible. It shall not be admissible in a court of 35 law as proof of the allegations in a neglect or abuse filing.

36 3. An alternative living arrangement shall last no longer than five 37 business days. One additional extension of no more than five business 38 days may be requested by the authorized child protective service, parent
39 or person legally responsible, or relative or suitable person. An exten-40 sion of an alternative living arrangement agreement shall be:

41 (a) in writing;

42 (b) signed by the authorized child protective service, parent or 43 person legally responsible, and the relative or suitable person;

44 (c) include all of the provisions in subdivision two of this section; 45 and

46 (d) include the reason for such extension.

47 4. Prior to the execution of the alternative living arrangement agree-48 ment, the child protective service shall provide written information as 49 described in this section to the parent or parents or person or persons 50 legally responsible and the prospective relative or suitable person or 51 persons. Such information shall include but not be limited to:

52 (a) information about supportive services for the parents, children
53 and relative or suitable person;

54 (b) information about the options for care and custody of the child 55 pursuant to section three hundred ninety-two of this article;

56 (c) information on how to apply for public assistance; and

1 (d) any other relevant information related to supporting the alterna-2 tive living arrangement.

3 5. (a) The office of children and family services shall collect the 4 following data regarding alternative living arrangements and compile an 5 annual report for the preceding calendar year on such data provided by 6 every local social services district:

7 (i) total number of alternative living arrangement agreements;

8 (ii) total number of extensions to alternative living arrangement
9 written agreements;

10 (iii) total number of children, parents and relatives or suitable 11 persons who were the subject of alternative living arrangement agree-12 ments;

13 (iv) average length of alternative living arrangements in each county;

14 (v) total number of alternative living arrangements that lasted longer 15 than the ten days permitted by this section;

16 (vi) total number of children who were reunited with parents upon 17 cessation of an alternative living arrangement agreement;

18 (vii) total number of children who were not reunited with parents upon 19 cessation of an alternative living arrangement agreement;

20 (viii) total number of children who were the subject of a proceeding
21 pursuant to article ten of the family court act upon cessation of all 22 alternative living arrangement agreements;

23 (ix) total number of children who were the subject of a proceeding
24 pursuant to article ten of the family court act upon cessation of all 25 alternative living arrangement agreements and who were directly placed 26 with relatives pursuant to article ten of the family court act;

27 (x) total number of children who were the subject of a proceeding
28 pursuant to article ten of the family court act upon cessation of all
29 alternative living arrangement agreements and who were placed in foster 30 care with a relative or suitable person;

31 (xi) total number of children who were the subject of a proceeding
32 pursuant to article ten of the family court act upon cessation of all
33 alternative living arrangement agreements and who were placed in foster
34 care with a non-relative or congregate care setting;

35 (xii) total number of children who were placed in the custody of a 36 relative or suitable person pursuant to article six of the family court 37 act upon cessation of all alternative living arrangement agreements;

38 (xiii) a descriptive list of preventive services and their utilization 39 rates, if practicable, that were provided to parents, children and rela-40 tives or suitable persons who were the subject of an alternative living 41 arrangement agreement in each local social services district; and 42 (xiv) any other information the commissioner may deem necessary to 43 include.

44 (b) The office of children and family services shall submit such 45 report to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the temporary pres-46 ident of the senate, the chairperson of the assembly children and fami-47 lies committee, and the chairperson of the senate children and families 48 committee, and the chairperson of the assembly ways and means committee, 49 and the chairperson of the senate finance committee by no later than 50 September first, two thousand twenty-seven and annually thereafter. Such 51 report shall include the data and information required under paragraph 52 (a) of this subdivision for the preceding calendar year, to the extent 53 such information is available. When practicable, such information shall 54 be disaggregated by age, sex, race and ethnicity.

55 § 4. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 56 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or

1 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 2 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on or before 3 such date.