Introduced by M. of A. WOERNER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to providing for certain victim statements to be taken at their workplace instead of the police department

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 642 of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdivision 6 to read as follows:

6. Unless a victim of an assault in the second degree pursuant to section 120.05 of the penal law chooses to make their statement at a police department, as that term is defined in subdivision a of section eight hundred thirty-seven-c of this chapter, such victim shall be interviewed by the police in their workplace providing such workplace was the scene of the crime and is a hospital, emergency medical facility, nursing home, or residential health care facility as defined in section twenty-eight hundred one of the public health law, or is a facility or hospital as defined in section 1.03 of the mental hygiene law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
