Introduced by M. of A. MITAYNES, CLARK, FORREST, MAMDANI, ANDERSON, GALLAGHER, SEAWRIGHT, EPSTEIN, R. CARROLL, REYES, JACKSON, SIMON, ROSENTHAL, MEEKS, KELLES, GONZALEZ-ROJAS, BRONSON, COLTON, STECK, DINOWITZ, GIBBS, DE LOS SANTOS, CUNNINGHAM, CRUZ, SHRESTHA, BURDICK, SIMONE, RAGA, ZINERMAN, BORES, KIM, SHIMSKY, GLICK, TAPIA, WALKER, CHANDLER-WATERMAN, ALVAREZ, ZACCARO, LEE, BICHOTTE HERMELYN, DAVILA, LUPARDO, JACOBSON, VALDEZ, TORRES -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. LEVENBERG -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend the real property actions and proceedings law, in relation to establishing the tenant opportunity to purchase act

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "tenant opportunity to purchase act".
3 § 2. Legislative findings. The legislature finds that there is a 4 significant unmet need for affordable housing for low-income people and 5 families. Almost half of all New York State tenants -- in both urban and 6 suburban areas -- are rent-burdened. In the Hudson Valley and the South-
7 ern Tier, and in non-municipal Green and Suffolk counties, more than 60%
8 of New Yorkers are paying over 30% of their income toward rent. More-
9 over, between 2012 and 2017, New York State lost more than 160,000
10 affordable rental homes, almost 55,000 of them outside of New York City, 11 Westchester and Long Island. This has led to an increase in an already 12 escalating homelessness crisis. According to HUD's 2019 Point in Time 13 Estimate, approximately 79,000 people were homeless in New York State.
14 The legislature recognizes that New York's rental housing market has 15 become even more threatened by the outbreak of novel coronavirus, 16 COVID-19, which, as of the date of this legislation, created destabi-17 lized housing, loss of employment and income, closure of business and 18 schools and financial insecurity in the state of New York. The legisla-19 ture finds that the loss of employment, illness and deaths caused by the

1 COVID-19 outbreak have rendered many individuals and families unable to 2 pay for the costs of housing and other life necessities. U.S. Census' 3 Household Pulse survey shows that in the last week of May 2020, 29% of 4 all NYS tenants showed little to no confidence in being able to make 5 their June rent payment. The share was higher among Black tenants (41%), 6 Latinx tenants (41%) and tenants earning less than $50K (34%).

7 The legislature finds that the sudden decline in rent payments as a
8 result of COVID-19--particularly on properties overloaded with debt -- 9 coupled with the ensuing economic recession will lead to evictions and 10 speculation, resulting in the loss of vital and irreplaceable affordable 11 housing as well as the decline in affordable community-ownership and 12 home-ownership opportunities for New Yorkers. This was evident in the 13 Great Recession of 2008. Before and in the immediate aftermath of that 14 crisis, multinational private equity firms had access to capital and 15 low-interest rates at a time when many New Yorkers were losing employ-16 ment and income. With that uneven access, they were able to enter a 17 modest and localized multi-family rental market, purchasing 100,000
18 units in New York City alone, which represented 10% of all rent-regulat-
19 ed housing. Only a few years after the crisis, between 2014 and 2017, 20 rents for vacant units increased 29.9% above inflation, exacerbating an 21 existing housing and homelessness crisis and displacing tenants in crit-22 ical need of affordable housing.

23 The legislature further finds that in order to prevent increased 24 displacement of lower-income tenants and preserve New York's affordable 25 housing market, it is necessary and appropriate to require that, in the 26 cases defined herein, owners of rental properties in the State offer 27 tenants the first opportunity to purchase and qualified purchasers the 28 second opportunity to purchase the property before it may be sold on the 29 market to a third-party purchaser.

30 The legislature further finds that such action is necessary in order 31 to prevent exactions of unjust, unreasonable and oppressive rental 32 agreements and evictions, and to forestall profiteering, speculation and 33 other disruptive practices tending to produce further threats to public 34 health; that the normal market of free bargaining between landlord and 35 tenant, while still the objective of state policy, must be administered 36 with due regard for the uncertainty, hardship and dislocation caused by 37 the current health, housing and unemployment crises.

38 The legislature therefore declares that the provisions of this act are 39 necessary and designed to protect the public health, safety and general
40 welfare of New Yorkers, as well as the economic stability and viability 41 of neighborhoods.

42 § 3. The real property actions and proceedings law is amended by 43 adding a new article 7-E to read as follows:

29 purchaser. Such contact information shall include, but need not be 30 limited to, a mailing address, an e-mail address that the qualified 31 purchaser monitors regularly, and a telephone number.

33 HCR shall promptly investigate any complaint alleging that a qualified 34 purchaser has failed to comply with this section. Subject to regulations 35 promulgated by HCR, if, after providing the qualified purchaser with 36 notice and opportunity to be heard, HCR determines that a purchaser 37 listed as a qualified purchaser has failed to comply with this section, 38 HCR may suspend or revoke that purchaser's certification as a qualified 39 purchaser. HCR shall establish a process for addressing potential and 40 actual conflicts of interests that may arise among supportive partners, 41 qualified purchasers, and tenants through promulgation of regulations.

42 § 799-g. Supportive partners. 1. Supportive partner criteria. HCR

44 organizations that meet the following minimum criteria:

45 (a) The individual or organization has demonstrated ability and capac-
46 ity to guide and support tenants in forming a tenant organization;

47 (b) The individual or organization has demonstrated ability and capac-48 ity to assist tenants in understanding and exercising their rights under 49 this article;

50 (c) The individual or organization has demonstrated expertise, or 51 existing partnerships with other organizations with demonstrated exper-52 tise, to counsel tenants on first-time homeownership and collective 53 ownership structures;

54 (d) The individual or organization has a demonstrated commitment to 55 creating democratic resident-controlled housing; and

1 (e) The individual or organization has agreed to attend mandatory
2 trainings, to be determined, from time to time, by HCR.

3 2. Certification, term, and renewal. Individuals and organizations
4 that HCR certifies as having met the criteria in subdivision one of this 5 section shall be known as "supportive partners". An individual or organ-6 ization's certification as a supportive partner shall be valid for four 7 years. HCR shall solicit new applications for supportive partner status 8 at least once each calendar year, at which time existing supportive 9 partners shall be eligible to apply for renewed certification as 10 supportive partners.

11 3. Purpose of supportive partner. A supportive partner shall function 12 in a supportive role to assist tenants in exercising their rights under 13 this article. This article shall not confer any rights to a supportive 14 partner. A supportive partner shall be distinct from a qualified 15 purchaser that is conferred subordinated rights under this article as 16 described in section seven hundred ninety-nine-d of this article. HCR 17 may determine that a qualified purchaser described in section seven 18 hundred ninety-nine-f of this article that meets the criteria in subdivi-19 vision one of this section shall also be eligible to serve as a support-20 ive partner. HCR may also serve as a supportive partner.

21 4. Existence and publication of supportive partners list. HCR shall 22 publish on its website, and make available upon request, a list of 23 supportive partners. In addition to such other information as HCR may 24 include, this list shall include contact information for each supportive 25 partner. Such contact information shall include, but need not be limited 26 to, a mailing address, an e-mail address that the supportive partner 27 monitors regularly, and a telephone number.

28 5. Disqualification of supportive partner and conflicts of interest.
29 HCR shall promptly investigate any complaint alleging that a supportive 30 partner has failed to comply with this section. Subject to regulations 31 promulgated by HCR, if, after providing the supportive partner with 32 notice and opportunity to be heard, HCR determines that an individual or 33 organization listed as a supportive partner has failed to comply with 34 this section, HCR may suspend or revoke such individual or organiza-
35 tion's certification as a supportive partner. HCR shall establish a 36 process for addressing potential and actual conflicts of interests that 37 may arise among supportive partners, qualified purchasers, and tenants 38 through promulgation of regulations.

39 § 799-h. Assignment of rights. 1. A tenant or tenant organization may 40 assign rights under this section in compliance with subdivision one of 41 section seven hundred ninety-nine-e of this article to a qualified 42 purchaser of their choice.

43 2. Subject to regulations promulgated by HCR, the assignment of rights 44 described in this section shall occur prior to the tenant or tenant 45 organization waiving their rights pursuant to section seven hundred 46 ninety-nine-i of this article, and only during the process provided in 47 section seven hundred ninety-nine-k of this article. Except as provided 48 in section seven hundred ninety-nine-i of this article, the waiver and 49 assignment of rights shall be made in a written agreement executed by 50 the tenant or tenant organization and the qualified purchaser.

51 3. Qualified purchasers shall not accept any payment, consideration, 52 or reward in exchange for the assignment of rights under this section.

53 § 799-i. Waiver of rights. 1. Tenants may affirmatively waive their 54 rights before the time periods specified in sections seven hundred nine-55 ty-nine-k and seven hundred ninety-nine-l of this article elapse, by

1 notifying the owner in writing, signed by the tenants and in compliance 2 with section seven hundred ninety-nine-e of this article.

3 2. Tenants' failure to complete actions required under sections seven 4 hundred ninety-nine-k and seven hundred ninety-nine-l of this article 5 within the allotted time periods, and any extensions thereof, shall be 6 deemed an implied waiver of such tenants' rights.

7 § 799-j. Notice requirements. Any notices required or permitted by 8 this article shall also comply with regulations promulgated by HCR.

9 § 799-k. Right of first offer. 1. General construction. Before an 10 owner of a rental housing accommodation may offer such rental housing 11 accommodation for sale to, solicit any offer to purchase from, or accept 12 any unsolicited offer to purchase from, any third-party purchaser, such 13 owner shall give the tenant of such rental housing accommodation the 14 first opportunity to make an offer as set forth by this section.

15 2. Joint notification. (a) In accordance with section seven hundred 16 ninety-nine-j of this article, the owner shall:

17 (i) Notify each tenant eighteen years of age and over of the owner's 18 intent to sell the rental housing accommodation by certified mail and by 19 posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place in common areas of 20 the rental housing accommodation.

21 (A) Such notice shall be in the top three languages spoken at home
22 within the property's census tract based on the latest United States
23 census bureau's American community survey.

24 (B) Such notice shall include, at a minimum:

25 (1) A statement that the owner intends to sell the rental housing 26 accommodation;

27 (2) A statement of the rights of tenants and qualified purchasers and 28 the accompanying timelines described in this section;

29 (3) A statement that the owner shall make the related disclosures 30 described in this section available to the tenant; and

31 (4) A statement stating that if the tenant requires the notice in a 32 language not provided, they can contact HCR and request the notice in 33 their requested language and/or the assistance of an interpreter.

34 (ii) Notify HCR of the owner's intent to sell the rental housing 35 accommodation by sending a copy of the notice provided to tenants to an 36 e-mail address designated by HCR and posting the notice on a website to 37 be designated by HCR.

38 (b) HCR shall update the website at least daily and shall include 39 disclaimers to the effect that (i) where a notice is provided on the 40 website, such notice usually will not be provided in any other manner to 41 individuals or entities other than tenants eighteen years of age and 42 over in the rental housing accommodation; and (ii) it is the responsi-43 bility of any person or entity interested in receiving such notice to 44 monitor the website for such notices.

45 3. Related disclosures. When the owner, pursuant to this section, 46 notifies each tenant and qualified purchaser of its intent to sell a 47 rental housing accommodation, the owner shall also provide each tenant 48 and qualified purchaser with the following information, at minimum:

49 (a) A floor plan of the property;

50 (b) An itemized list of monthly operating expenses, utility consump-51 tion rates, real property taxes and capital expenditures for each of the 52 two preceding calendar years;

53 (c) A list of any known defects and hazards, and any related costs for 54 repair;

1 (d) The most recent rent roll, a list of occupied units and list of 2 vacant units, including the rate of rent for each unit, and any esca-3 lations and lease expirations;

4 (e) Covenants, conditions, and restrictions and reserves, in the case 5 of a condominium dwelling;

6 (f) HCR rent registrations;

7 (g) Regulatory agreements;

8 (h) Any mortgages and notes and any documentation of any other finan-9 cial commitments that affect the financial operations of the building, 10 including but not limited to obligations to equity investors; and

11 (i) Any other disclosures required by New York state law or HCR regu-12 lation.

13 4. Time to submit a statement of interest. (a) Upon receipt of the 14 notice and disclosures described in subdivisions two and three of this 15 section, tenants shall deliver one statement of interest to the owner on 16 behalf of the rental housing accommodation.

17 (b) Tenants shall have twenty days in a rental housing accommodation 18 comprised of one or two units, and thirty days in a rental housing 19 accommodation with three or more units, to deliver the statement of 20 interest. Tenants in a rental housing accommodation with thirty or more 21 units shall be granted one extension of up to fifteen days upon request, 22 for a total of forty-five days. If the tenants waive their rights in 23 accordance with section seven hundred ninety-nine-i of this article, 24 qualified purchasers shall have the remaining time or a minimum of five 25 days, whichever is greater, to deliver a statement of interest to the 26 owner.

27 (c) The statement of interest shall be a clear expression from the 28 tenants that they intend to further consider making an offer to purchase 29 the rental housing accommodation or further consider assigning their 30 rights to a qualified purchaser.

31 (d) The statement of interest shall include documentation demonstrat-32 ing that the tenants' decision was supported by the standard described 33 in section seven hundred ninety-nine-e of this article.

34 (e) If the tenants waive their rights in accordance with section seven 35 hundred ninety-nine-i of this article, the owner shall notify all quali-36 fied purchasers, via e-mail, on the same day that tenants waive their 37 rights, of the right of each qualified purchaser to submit a statement 38 of interest to the owner.

39 (f) Upon receipt of the notice, a qualified purchaser that intends to 40 further consider making an offer to purchase the rental housing accommo-41 dation shall deliver a statement of interest to the owner and every 42 other qualified purchaser via e-mail within the time periods provided by 43 this subdivision.

44 (g) The statement of interest shall be a clear expression that the 45 qualified purchaser intends to further consider making an offer to 46 purchase the rental housing accommodation.

47 (h) If a qualified purchaser has delivered a statement of interest 48 consistent with this subdivision, the owner shall, subject to seeking 49 tenant approval for disclosure of any confidential or personal informa-50 tion, disclose to each such qualified purchaser, via e-mail, the names 51 of tenants in each occupied unit of the rental housing accommodation, as 52 well as any available contact information for each tenant.

53 (i) If tenants and qualified purchasers do not deliver a statement of 54 interest within the time periods specified in this subdivision, the 55 owner may immediately proceed to offer the rental housing accommodation 56 for sale to, and solicit offers of purchase from, prospective third-par-

1 ty purchasers, subject to the right of first refusal provided by section 2 seven hundred ninety-nine-1 of this article.

3 5. Time to submit offer. (a) The following procedures shall apply to 4 offers to purchase a rental housing accommodation with only one tenant 5 household:

6 (i) Upon receipt of a statement of interest from tenants consistent
7 with subdivision four of this section, an owner shall afford the tenants 8 an additional twenty-one days to select a supportive partner and submit 9 an offer to purchase the rental housing accommodation. If the tenants 10 waive their rights in accordance with section seven hundred 11 ninety-nine-i of this article, qualified purchasers shall have the 12 remaining time or a minimum of five days, whichever is greater, to 13 submit an offer to the owner.

14 (ii) If the tenants waive their rights in accordance with section
15 seven hundred ninety-nine-i of this article, the owner shall notify all 16 qualified purchasers, via e-mail, of their rights to submit an offer.
17 Upon receipt of this notice, each qualified purchaser that intends to 18 purchase the rental housing accommodation shall submit an offer to the 19 owner within the time period specified in subparagraph (i) of this para-20 graph.

21 (b) The following procedures shall apply to offers to purchase a 22 rental housing accommodation with two units or a single family home with 23 multiple tenant households, unless subject to paragraph (a) of this 24 subdivision:

25 (i) Upon receipt of a statement of interest from tenants consistent
26 with subdivision four of this section, an owner shall afford the tenants 27 an additional forty-five days to form a tenant organization, select a 28 supportive partner, and deliver an offer to purchase the rental housing 29 accommodation. If the tenants waive their rights in accordance with 30 section seven hundred ninety-nine-i of this article, qualified purchas-31 ers shall have the remaining time or a minimum of five days, whichever 32 is greater, to deliver an offer to the owner.

33 (ii) If the tenants waive their rights in accordance with section
34 seven hundred ninety-nine-i of this article, the owner shall notify all 35 qualified purchasers, via e-mail, of their rights to submit an offer.
36 Upon receipt of this notice, each qualified purchaser that intends to 37 purchase the rental housing accommodation shall deliver an offer within 38 the time period specified in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph.

39 (c) The following procedures shall apply to offers to purchase a 40 rental housing accommodation with three or more units, unless subject to 41 paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

42 (i) Upon receipt of a statement of interest from tenants consistent 43 with subdivision four of this section, an owner shall afford tenants an 44 additional sixty days to form a tenant organization, select a supportive 45 partner, and deliver an offer to purchase the rental housing accommo-46 dation. Tenants in a rental housing accommodation with ten to twenty-47 nine units shall be granted one extension of up to thirty days upon 48 request, for a total of ninety days to submit an offer to the owner.
49 Tenants in a rental housing accommodation with thirty or more units
50 shall be granted two extensions of up to thirty days each, for a total 51 of one hundred twenty days to deliver an offer to the owner. If the 52 tenants waive their rights in accordance with section seven hundred 53 ninety-nine-i of this article, qualified purchasers shall have the 54 remaining time within these time periods and any extensions thereof, or 55 a minimum of five days, whichever is greater, to deliver an offer to the 56 owner.

1 (ii) If the tenants waive their rights in accordance with section
2 seven hundred ninety-nine-i of this article, the owner shall notify all
3 qualified purchasers, via e-mail, of their rights to submit an offer.
4 Upon receipt of this notice, each qualified purchaser that intends to 5 purchase the rental housing accommodation shall deliver an offer within 6 the time period specified in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph.

7 (d) Within the timeframes provided by paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of 8 this subdivision for submitting an offer, the tenant, tenant organiza-9 tion, or qualified purchaser that submits an offer to the owner shall 10 also submit an agreement to HCR pursuant to subdivision two of section 11 seven hundred ninety-nine-r of this article, agreeing to be bound by 12 requirements of such section.

13 6. Owner free to accept or reject offer. The owner shall be free to 14 accept or reject any offer of purchase from a tenant, tenant organiza-
15 tion or qualified purchaser. Any such acceptance or rejection shall be 16 communicated in writing.

17 (a) Incentives to accept offer. If the owner accepts any such offer of 18 purchase from a tenant, tenant organization or a qualified purchaser, 19 the owner may be eligible to receive incentives pursuant to section 20 seven hundred ninety-nine-s of this article.

21 (b) Rejection of offer. If the owner rejects all such offers of 22 purchase, the owner may immediately offer the rental housing accommo-23 dation for sale to, and solicit offers of purchase from, prospective 24 third-party purchasers, subject to the right of first refusal described 25 in section seven hundred ninety-nine-l of this article.

26 (c) Lapse of time. If ninety days elapse from the date of an owner's 27 rejection of an offer from a tenant, tenant organization or a qualified 28 purchaser, and the owner has not provided an offer of sale as described 29 in section seven hundred ninety-nine-l of this article, the owner shall 30 comply anew with this section.

31 7. Time to secure financing. (a) The following procedures shall apply 32 to a purchase of a single family home with only one tenant household.

33 (i) The owner shall afford the tenant or qualified purchaser thirty 34 days after the date of the entering into a purchase contract to secure 35 financing.

36 (ii) If, within thirty days after the date of contracting, the tenant 37 or qualified purchaser presents the owner with the written decision of a 38 lending institution or agency that states that the institution or agency 39 estimates that a decision with respect to financing or financial assist-40 ance will be made within forty-five days after the date of contracting, 41 the owner shall afford the tenant or qualified purchaser an extension of 42 time consistent with the written estimate.

43 (iii) If the tenant or qualified purchaser does not secure financing 44 and close the transaction within the timeframes described in this subdivi-45 vision and subdivision eight of this section, and any extensions there-46 of, the owner may immediately proceed to offer the rental housing accom-47 modation for sale to, and to solicit offers of purchase from prospective 48 third party purchasers other than the tenant or qualified purchaser.

49 (b) The following procedures shall apply to a purchase of a rental 50 housing accommodation with two units or a single family home with multi-51 ple tenant households.

52 (i) The owner shall afford the tenant organization or qualified
53 purchaser ninety days after the date of entering into a purchase 54 contract to secure financing.

55 (ii) If, within ninety days after the date of contracting, the tenant 56 organization or qualified purchaser presents the owner with the written

1 decision of a lending institution or agency that states that the insti-2 tution or agency estimates that a decision with respect to financing or 3 financial assistance will be made within one hundred twenty days after 4 the date of contracting, the owner shall afford the tenant organization 5 or qualified purchaser an extension of time consistent with the written 6 estimate.

7 (iii) If the tenant organization or qualified purchaser does not 8 secure financing and close the transaction within the timeframes 9 described in this subdivision and subdivision eight of this section, and 10 any extensions thereof, the owner may immediately proceed to offer the 11 rental housing accommodation for sale to, and to solicit offers of 12 purchase from prospective third-party purchasers other than the tenant 13 organization or qualified purchaser.

14 (c) The following procedures shall apply to purchases of rental hous-15 ing accommodations with three or more units.

16 (i) The owner shall afford the tenant organization or qualified
17 purchaser one hundred twenty days after the date of entering into a

19 (ii) If, within one hundred twenty days after the date of contracting, 20 the tenant organization or qualified purchaser presents the owner with 21 the written decision of a lending institution or agency that states that 22 the institution or agency estimates that a decision with respect to 23 financing or financial assistance will be made within one hundred sixty 24 days after the date of contracting, the owner shall afford the tenant 25 organization or qualified purchaser an extension of time consistent with 26 the written estimate.

27 (iii) If the tenant organization or qualified purchaser does not 28 secure financing and close the deal within the timeframes described in 29 this subdivision and subdivision eight of this section, and any exten-
30 sions thereof, the owner may immediately proceed to offer the rental 31 housing accommodation for sale to, and to solicit offers of purchase 32 from prospective third-party purchasers other than the tenant organiza-
33 tion or qualified purchaser.

34 8. Time to close. In addition to the time periods in subdivision seven 35 of this section, the owner shall afford each tenant, tenant organiza-36 tion, or qualified purchaser with an additional fourteen days to close.
37 So long as the tenant, tenant organization, or qualified purchaser is 38 diligently pursuing the close, the owner shall afford them a reasonable 39 extension beyond this fourteen-day period to close.

40 § 799-1. Right of first refusal. 1. General construction. This section 41 shall be construed to confer a right of first refusal only upon each 42 tenant, tenant organization, and qualified purchaser that exercised the 43 right of first offer pursuant to section seven hundred ninety-nine-k of 44 this article.

45 2. Offer of sale to tenant, tenant organizations, and qualified 46 purchasers. Before an owner of a rental housing accommodation may sell a 47 rental housing accommodation, the owner shall give each tenant, tenant 48 organization, or qualified purchaser that previously made an offer to 49 purchase such rental housing accommodation pursuant to section seven 50 hundred ninety-nine-k of this article an opportunity to purchase such 51 rental housing accommodation at a price and terms that represent a bona 52 fide offer of sale.

53 (a) The owner's offer of sale shall include, at minimum:

54 (i) The asking price and terms of the sale. The terms and conditions 55 shall be consistent with the applicable timeframes described in subdivi-56 sions three and four of this section;

1 (ii) A statement as to whether a purchase contract with a third-party 2 purchaser exists for the sale of the rental housing accommodation, and 3 if so, a copy of such purchase contract; and

4 (iii) A statement in English and Spanish stating that if the tenant 5 requires the offer of sale in a language other than English, they may 6 contact HCR and request the offer of sale in their requested language 7 and/or the assistance of an interpreter.

8 (b) If a tenant or tenant organization is receiving the offer of sale, 9 the owner shall deliver a written copy of the offer of sale to each 10 tenant or tenant organization by certified mail.

11 (c) If a qualified purchaser is receiving the offer of sale, the owner 12 shall deliver the offer of sale to each qualified purchaser that previ-13 ously made an offer to purchase the rental housing accommodation. The 14 owner shall submit an offer of sale to each such qualified purchaser on 15 the same day, and to the extent possible, at the same time, by e-mail.

16 (d) If the owner has a purchase contract with a third-party purchaser 17 for the sale of the rental housing accommodation, the owner shall deliv-18 er the offer of sale to each tenant, tenant organization or qualified 19 purchaser within two days of entering into a purchase contract with the 20 third-party purchaser.

21 (e) The owner shall also provide HCR with a written copy of the offer 22 of sale and a statement certifying that the items described by paragraph 23 (a) of this subdivision were delivered to each tenant, tenant organiza-
24 tion, or qualified purchaser.

25 3. Time to accept offer. (a) The following procedures shall apply to a 26 rental housing accommodation with only one tenant household: Upon 27 receipt of the offer of sale from the owner, a tenant or qualified 28 purchaser shall have ten days to accept the offer of sale, provided, 29 however, that the deadline to accept any offer of sale shall be extended 30 to allow the tenant or qualified purchaser to exercise their right to an 31 appraisal pursuant to section seven hundred ninety-nine-n of this arti-
32 cle, if they believe that the offer of sale is not a bona fide offer of 33 sale.

34 (b) The following procedures shall apply to a rental housing accommo-35 dation with multiple tenant households:

36 (i) Upon receipt of the offer of sale from the owner, a tenant organ-37 ization shall have forty-five days to accept the offer of sale.

38 (ii) Upon receipt of the offer of sale from the owner, a qualified 39 purchaser shall have thirty days to accept the offer of sale.

40 (iii) The deadline to accept any offer of sale shall be extended to 41 allow the tenant or qualified purchaser to exercise their right to an 42 appraisal pursuant to section seven hundred ninety-nine-n of this arti-
43 cle, if they believe that the offer of sale is not a bona fide offer of 44 sale.

45 (c) If, during these time periods, any qualified purchaser that has 46 received such offer of sale decides to accept the owner's offer of sale, 47 such qualified purchaser shall notify the owner and every other quali-
48 fied purchaser of such decision by e-mail. After a qualified purchaser 49 notifies the owner of its decision to accept the owner's offer of sale, 50 meaning before any other qualified purchaser so notified the owner, such 51 qualified purchaser shall be deemed to have accepted the offer of sale, 52 and no other qualified purchaser shall accept the owner's offer of sale, 53 whether or not the time periods in this subdivision have elapsed.

54 4. Time to secure financing and close. If a tenant, tenant organiza-
55 tion, or qualified purchaser accepts an owner's offer of sale in accord-56 ance with this article, the owner shall afford such tenant, tenant

1 organization, or qualified purchaser time to secure financing and close,
2 consistent with this article.

3 5. Rejection of offer. If each tenant, tenant organization, and quali-4 fied purchaser that received an offer of sale consistent with this arti-
5 cle, rejects such offer of sale or fails to respond within the timelines 6 described in this section, the owner may immediately proceed with the 7 sale of the rental housing accommodation to a third-party purchaser 8 consistent with the price and material terms of that offer of sale.

9 § 799-m. Third-party rights. The right of a third-party to purchase a 10 rental housing accommodation shall be conditional upon the exercise of 11 tenant, tenant organization, and qualified purchaser rights under this 12 article. The time periods for submitting and accepting an offer, secur-13 ing financing, and closing under this article shall be minimum periods, 14 and the owner may afford any tenant, tenant organization, and qualified 15 purchaser a reasonable extension of such period, without liability under 16 a third-party purchase contract. Third-party purchasers shall be 17 presumed to act with full knowledge of the rights of tenants, tenant 18 organizations, and qualified purchasers and public policy under this 19 article.

20 § 799-n. Right to appraisal. 1. Right to appraisal. This section shall 21 apply whenever an offer of sale is made to a tenant, tenant organiza-
22 tion, or qualified purchasers as required by this article and the offer 23 is made in the absence of an arm's-length third-party purchase contract.

24 2. Request for appraisal. The tenant, tenant organization, or quali-25 fied purchaser that receives an owner's offer of sale may challenge such 26 offer of sale as not being a bona fide offer of sale, and request an 27 appraisal to determine the fair market value of the rental housing 28 accommodation. The party requesting the appraisal shall be deemed the 29 "petitioner" for purposes of this section. The petitioner shall deliver 30 the written request for an appraisal to HCR and the owner by hand or by 31 certified mail within five days of receiving the offer of sale.

32 3. Time for appraisal. Beginning with the date of receipt of a written 33 request for an appraisal, and for each day thereafter until the peti-34 tioner receives the appraisal, the time periods described in subdivision 35 three of section seven hundred ninety-nine-1 of this article shall be 36 extended by an additional time of up to ten business days.

37 4. Selection of appraiser. The petitioner shall select an appraiser 38 from a list of independent, qualified appraisers, that HCR shall main-39 tain. HCR-approved appraisers shall hold an active appraiser license 40 issued by the New York state board of real estate appraisal and shall be 41 able to conduct an objective, independent property valuation, performed 42 according to professional industry standards. All appraisers shall 43 undergo training organized by HCR before they are approved and added to 44 the HCR's list.

45 5. Cost of appraisal. The petitioner shall be responsible for one-46 third and the owner shall be responsible for two-thirds of the total 47 cost of the appraisal.

48 6. Appraisal procedures and standards. The owner shall give the 49 appraiser full, unfettered access to the property. The owner shall 50 respond within three days to any request for information from the 51 appraiser. The petitioner may give the appraiser information relevant to 52 the valuation of the property. The appraisal shall be completed expe-
53 ditiously according to standard industry timeframes. An appraised value 54 shall only be based on rights an owner has as a matter-of-right as of 55 the date of the alleged bona fide offer of sale, including any existing 56 right an owner may have to convert the property to another use. Within

1 the restrictions in this subdivision, an appraised value may take into 2 consideration the highest and best use of the property.

3 7. Validity of appraisal. The determination of the appraised value of 4 the rental housing accommodation, in accordance with this section, shall 5 become the sales price of the rental housing accommodation in the bona 6 fide offer of sale, unless:

7 (a) The owner and the petitioner agree upon a different sales price of 8 the rental housing accommodation; or

9 (b) The owner elects to withdraw the offer of sale altogether within 10 fourteen days of receipt of the appraisal, in which case:

11 (i) the owner shall withdraw the offer of sale by delivering a written 12 notice by hand or by certified mail to HCR and to the petitioner;

13 (ii) upon withdrawal, the owner shall reimburse the petitioner and HCR 14 for their share of the cost of the appraisal within fourteen days of 15 delivery of written notice of withdrawal; and

16 (iii) An owner who withdraws an offer of sale in accordance with this 17 paragraph shall be precluded from proceeding to sell the rental housing 18 accommodation to a third-party purchaser without complying with this 19 section by honoring the first right of purchase of tenants and qualified 20 purchasers; or

21 (c) The petitioner elects to withdraw the offer of sale altogether 22 within fourteen days of receipt of the appraisal, in which case:

23 (i) the petitioner shall withdraw the offer of sale by delivering a 24 written notice by hand or by certified mail to HCR and to the owner; and

25 (ii) upon withdrawal, the petitioner shall reimburse the owner and HCR 26 for their share of the cost of the appraisal within fourteen days of 27 delivery of written notice of withdrawal.

28 § 799-o. Purchase contract negotiation. 1. Bargaining in good faith.
29 The owner and any tenant, tenant organization, and/or qualified purchas-30 er shall bargain in good faith regarding the terms of any offer for 31 sale. Any one of the following shall constitute prima facie evidence of 32 bargaining without good faith:

33 (a) The failure of an owner to offer a tenant, tenant organization, or 34 qualified purchaser a price and other material terms at least as favora-35 ble as that offered to a third-party purchaser;

36 (b) Any requirement by an owner that a tenant, tenant organization, or 37 qualified purchaser waive any right under this article; or

38 (c) The intentional failure of an owner, tenant, tenant organization, 39 or qualified purchaser to comply with the provisions of this article.

40 2. Reduced price. If the owner sells or contracts to sell the rental 41 housing accommodation to a third-party purchaser for a price less than 42 the price offered to the tenant, tenant organization, or qualified 43 purchaser in the offer of sale, or for other terms, which would consti-44 tute bargaining without good faith, the owner shall comply anew with all 45 requirements of this article, as applicable.

46 3. Termination of rights. The intentional failure of any tenant, 47 tenant organization, or qualified purchaser to comply with the 48 provisions of this article shall result in the termination of their 49 rights under this article.

50 § 799-p. No selling of rights. 1. A tenant, tenant organization, or 51 qualified purchaser shall not sell any rights under this article.

52 2. An owner shall not coerce a tenant or tenant organization to waive 53 their rights under this article.

54 § 799-q. Tenant protections. 1. No tenant in the rental housing accom-55 modation, including tenants who do not exercise rights to purchase under 56 this article, shall be evicted by the TOPA buyer, except for good cause.

1 2. Should the maximum allowable rent provision of the state's emergen-2 cy tenant protection regulations, and the state's rent stabilization
3 code, promulgated by the division of housing and community renewal, TOPA 4 buyers shall adjust the rent annually to allow an increase of no more 5 than the increase in the CPI.

6 3. TOPA buyers shall not refuse to provide rental housing accommo-7 dations to any person based on the source of funds used to pay for the 8 rental housing accommodations, including but not limited to any funds
9 provided by Section 8 vouchers or any other subsidy program established 10 by federal, state or municipal government, or any future rent subsidy 11 from a governmental entity made available to extremely low to moderate 12 low income households for vacant units in the purchased rental housing 13 accommodation.

14 § 799-r. Price stabilization. 1. Price stabilization. A rental housing 15 accommodation purchased by a TOPA buyer under this article shall be 16 subject to permanent affordability restrictions as set forth in this 17 section and by regulations promulgated by HCR, which shall be promulgat-18 ed with the intent of fulfilling the purpose of this section.

19 2. Term. Subject to regulations promulgated by HCR, permanent affor-20 dability standards shall restrict the use of the rental housing accommo-21 dation to require that permanent affordability restrictions remain in 22 force for ninety-nine years and with an option to renew at year one 23 hundred. This subdivision shall not to be construed to apply only to 24 community land trusts.

25 3. Permanent affordability. In exchange for the rights conferred under 26 this section, each TOPA buyer shall agree to maintain the permanent 27 affordability of the rental housing accommodation. No TOPA buyer shall 28 be entitled to a purchase contract under this section without executing 29 an agreement with HCR to limit the future appreciation of the rental 30 housing accommodation and only sell, or rent, to income-eligible house-31 holds in accordance with this section, section seven hundred ninety-32 nine-q of this article and relevant standards and exemptions created by 33 HCR through regulation. Under such agreement, each TOPA buyer shall 34 represent to HCR that they agree to be bound by the permanent affor-
35 dability requirements under this section. The TOPA buyer shall deliver 36 such agreement to HCR no later than the deadline for submitting an offer 37 provided under section seven hundred ninety-nine-k of this article.

38 4. Permanent affordability standards for tenants or tenant organiza-
39 tions. For a tenant or tenant organization purchasing a rental housing 40 accommodation, permanent affordability standards created by HCR shall:

41 (a) Restrict the resale price of the rental housing accommodation, or 42 separate ownership interests in the rental housing accommodation, by 43 limiting the annual market appreciation of the rental housing accommo-44 dation, or separate ownership interest, to a percentage increase as 45 agreed upon by HCR or the regulating municipal housing agency, not to 46 exceed an annual interest rate of three percent simple;

47 (b) Ensure that a unit in which a tenant determines to remain a renter
48 following a purchase under this article shall be maintained as a unit 49 subject to the requirements of section seven hundred ninety-nine-q of 50 this article, unless HCR determines a valid exemption or alternative
51 standard should apply for such unit assisted by HCR or other public
52 subsidy program which is subject to separate permanent affordability 53 requirements; and

54 (c) At minimum, make the restricted resale price of the rental housing 55 accommodation, or ownership interests in the rental housing accommo-56 dation, available only to households with income at or below the average

1 AMIs of the initial TOPA buyers as of the initial purchase date of the 2 rental housing accommodation, as verified and recorded by HCR as of the 3 initial purchase date and not to exceed eighty percent of AMI.

4 5. Permanent affordability standards for qualified purchasers. For 5 qualified purchasers purchasing the rental housing accommodation, perma-6 nent affordability standards created by HCR shall:

7 (a) Restrict the resale price of the rental housing accommodation, or 8 separate ownership interests in the rental housing accommodation, by 9 limiting the annual appreciation of the rental housing accommodation, or 10 separate ownership interest, to a percentage increase as agreed upon by 11 HCR or the regulating municipal housing agency, not to exceed an annual 12 interest rate of three percent simple;

13 (b) Ensure that a unit in which a tenant determines to remain a renter
14 following a purchase under this article shall be maintained as a unit 15 subject to the requirements of section seven hundred ninety-nine-q of 16 this article, unless HCR determines a valid exemption or alternative
17 standard should apply for such unit assisted by HCR or other public
18 subsidy program which is subject to separate permanent affordability 19 requirement; and

20 (c) Prioritize making vacant or vacated units in the rental housing 21 accommodation available to households with incomes at or below the aver-
22 age neighborhood AMI at the time of purchase but not to exceed eighty 23 percent of AMI.

24 6. Mechanism. Permanent affordability restrictions shall materialize 25 as at least one of the following:

26 (a) A restrictive covenant placed on the recorded title deed to the 27 rental housing accommodation that runs with the land and is enforceable
28 by HCR against the TOPA buyer and its successors, and other affordabili-29 ty restrictions in land leases or other recorded documents not specif-30 ically listed in this subdivision, so long as HCR determines that such 31 restrictions are enforceable and likely to be enforced such as a 32 recorded mortgage promissory note and/or regulatory agreements with 33 local housing agencies where government subsidies are involved; and

34 (b) A community land trust lease, which is a ninety-nine-year renew-35 able land lease with affordability and owner-occupancy restrictions.

36 7. Required recordings and filings. (a) All covenants created in 37 accordance with section seven hundred ninety-nine-q of this article 38 shall be recorded before or simultaneously with the close of escrow in 39 the office of the county recorder where the rental housing accommodation 40 is located and shall contain a legal description of the rental housing 41 accommodation, indexed to the name of the TOPA buyer as grantee.

42 (b) Each TOPA buyer of the rental housing accommodation shall be 43 required to file a document annually with HCR in which the TOPA buyer 44 affirmatively states the rents and share price for each unit in the 45 rental housing accommodation. HCR may engage a third-party monitoring 46 agent to monitor the compliance of this subdivision, pursuant to HCR 47 regulations.

48 § 799-s. Incentives. 1. Access to buyers. HCR shall endeavor to main-49 tain and publicize the list of qualified purchasers in a manner that, to 50 the maximum extent feasible, promotes the existence of the qualified 51 purchasers as a readily accessible pool of potential buyers for covered 52 properties. HCR shall, to the maximum extent permitted by law and other-53 wise feasible, publicize the existence of this list in a manner intended 54 to facilitate voluntary sales to qualified purchasers in a manner that 55 avoids or minimizes the need for a broker, other search costs, or other 56 transactions.

1 2. Partial transfer tax exemption. The tax rate shall be reduced in 2 accordance with section fourteen hundred two of the tax law with respect 3 to any deed, instrument, or writing that affects a transfer under this 4 article.

5 3. Potential federal tax benefits. Any qualified purchaser that 6 purchases a rental housing accommodation under the right of first offer 7 set forth in section seven hundred ninety-nine-k of this article shall, 8 to the maximum extent permitted by law and otherwise feasible, be 9 obliged to work with the owner in good faith to facilitate an exchange 10 of real property of the kind described in 26 U.S.C. § 1031, for the 11 purpose of facilitating the owner's realization of any federal tax bene-12 fits available under that section of the internal revenue code.

13 4. Information to owners. HCR shall produce an information sheet 14 describing the benefits of an owner's decision to accept a tenants' or 15 qualified purchaser's offer of purchase made in connection with the 16 first right to purchase set forth in sections seven hundred 17 ninety-nine-k and seven hundred ninety-nine-l of this article. The 18 information sheet shall further explain that, even if an owner does not 19 accept a tenant's or qualified purchaser's offer to purchase a rental 20 housing accommodation pursuant to the right of first offer set forth in 21 section seven hundred ninety-nine-k of this article, the rental housing 22 accommodation will still be subject to the right of first refusal set 23 forth in section seven hundred ninety-nine-l of this article. The infor-24 mation sheet shall contain a field in which the owner may acknowledge, 25 in writing, that the owner, or the owner's authorized representative, 26 has read and understood the information sheet. A tenant, tenant organ-27 ization, or qualified purchaser that makes an offer to purchase a rental 28 housing accommodation under the right of first offer set forth in 29 section seven hundred ninety-nine-k of this article, shall include a 30 copy of, or link to, such information sheet with such offer of purchase, 31 but any failure to comply with this section shall have no effect on a 32 qualified purchaser's exercise of the right of first offer.

33 § 799-t. Enforcement. 1. Powers and duties of HCR. HCR shall be 34 authorized to take all appropriate action, including but not limited to 35 the actions specified in section seven hundred ninety-nine-a of this 36 article, to implement and enforce this article.

37 2. Implementation. (a) HCR shall promulgate rules and regulations
38 consistent with this article.

39 (b) HCR shall adopt regulations to implement a petition and hearing 40 procedure for administering the enforcement of this article.

41 (c) HCR shall establish and make available standard documents to 42 assist owners, tenants, tenant organizations, and qualified purchasers 43 in complying with the requirements of this article through an online 44 portal, provided that use of such documents does not necessarily estab-45 lish compliance.

46 (d) Owner certification and disclosures. Every owner of a residential 47 property in the state shall, within fifteen days of the sale of such 48 residential property, submit to HCR a signed declaration, under penalty 49 of perjury, affirming that the sale of such residential property 50 complied with the requirements of this article. Such declaration shall 51 include the address of the relevant residential property and the name of 52 each new owner of the rental housing accommodation. HCR shall publish 53 all such addresses on its website. Failure to file a declaration 54 required by this paragraph shall result in the penalty described in 55 subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of subdivision three of this section.

1 3. Enforcement. (a) Civil action. Any party may seek enforcement of 2 any right or provision under this article through a civil action filed 3 with a court of competent jurisdiction and, upon prevailing, shall be 4 entitled to remedies, including those described in paragraph (b) of this 5 subdivision.

6 (b) Penalties and remedies.

7 (i) Civil penalties. An owner who willfully or knowingly violates any 8 provision of this article shall be subject to a cumulative civil penalty 9 imposed by HCR in the amount of up to one thousand dollars per day, per 10 tenant-occupied unit in a rental housing accommodation, for each day 11 from the date the violation began until the requirements of this article 12 are satisfied, payable to the New York housing trust fund.

13 (ii) Legal remedies. Remedies in civil action brought under this 14 section shall include the following, which may be imposed cumulatively:

15 (A) Damages in an amount sufficient to remedy the harm to the plain-16 tiff;

17 (B) In the event that an owner sells a rental housing accommodation 18 without complying with the requirements of this article, and if the 19 owner's violation of this article was knowing or willful, mandatory 20 civil penalties in an amount proportional to the culpability of the 21 owner and the value of the rental housing accommodation. There shall be 22 a rebuttable presumption that this amount is equal to ten percent of the 23 sale price of the rental housing accommodation for a willful or knowing 24 violation of this article, twenty percent of the sale price for a second 25 willful or knowing violation, and thirty percent of the sale price for 26 each subsequent willful or knowing violation. Civil penalties assessed 27 under this paragraph shall be payable to the New York housing trust 28 fund; and

29 (C) Reasonable attorneys' fees.

30 (iii) Equitable remedies. In addition to any other remedy or enforce-31 ment measure that a tenant, tenant organization, qualified purchaser, or 32 HCR may seek under this section, any court of competent jurisdiction may 33 enjoin any sale or other action of an owner that would be made in 34 violation of this article.

35 § 799-u. Statutory construction. The purpose of this article shall be 36 to prevent the displacement of lower-income tenants in New York and to 37 preserve affordable housing by providing an opportunity for tenants to 38 own or remain renters in the properties in which tenants reside as 39 provided in this article. If a court finds ambiguity and there is any 40 reasonable interpretation of this article that favors the rights of the 41 tenant, then the court shall resolve ambiguity toward the end of 42 strengthening the legal rights of the tenant or tenant organization to 43 the maximum extent permissible under law.

44 § 799-v. Administration and reports. 1. HCR shall report annually on 45 the status of the tenant opportunity to purchase act program to the 46 legislature or to such legislative committee as the legislature may 47 designate. Such reports shall include, but shall not be limited to the 48 following:

49 (a) Statistics on the number and types of sales of tenant occupied 50 properties;

51 (b) Statistics on the number of tenants and qualified purchasers that 52 invoke action under this article;

53 (c) Number and types of units covered by this article; and

54 (d) Any other information the legislature or legislative committee may 55 request.

1 2. HCR shall make available translation services in languages other
2 than English, where requested in advance by a tenant, tenant organiza-3 tion, qualified purchaser, owner, or member of the public as it relates 4 to TOPA, to interpret and translate documents and procedures as needed.

5 § 799-w. Severability. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence,
6 subsection, section, or other portion of this article, or any applica-7 tion thereof to any person or circumstance is declared void, unconstitu-8 tional, or invalid for any reason by a decision of a court of competent 9 jurisdiction, then such word, phrase, clause, sentence, subsection, 10 section, or other portion, or the prescribed application thereof, shall 11 be severable, and the remaining provisions of this article, and all 12 applications thereof, not having been declared void, unconstitutional or 13 invalid, shall remain in full force and effect. The legislature hereby 14 declares that it would have passed this article, and each section, 15 subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, and word thereof, irrespective of 16 the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, 17 phrases, or words had been declared invalid or unconstitutional.

18 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 19 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-20 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-21 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 22 completed on or before such effective date.
