43 section one of the veterans' services law, and has received a discharge 44 other than bad conduct or dishonorable from such service; or service in 45 police duty on behalf of the United States government in a foreign coun-46 try, if such person is a police officer, as defined by section 1.20 of 47 the criminal procedure law, and if such police officer obtained the 48 prior consent of [~~his or her~~] their public employer to absent [~~himself~~ 49 ~~or herself~~] themselves from [~~his or her~~] their position to engage in the 50 performance of such service; or as an enrollee in the United States
51 maritime service on active duty and, to such extent as may be prescribed 52 by or under the laws of the United States, any period awaiting assign-53 ment to such service and any period of education or training for such 54 service in any school or institution under the jurisdiction of the 55 United States government, but shall not include temporary and intermit-56 tent gratuitous service in any reserve or auxiliary force. It shall

1 include time spent in reporting for and returning from military duty and 2 shall be deemed to commence when the public employee leaves [~~his or her~~ 3 their position and to end when [~~he or she is~~ they are reinstated to 4 [~~his or her~~ their position, provided such reinstatement is within nine-5 ty days after the termination of military duty, as hereinafter defined.
6 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the term
7 "military duty" shall not include any of the foregoing services entered 8 upon voluntarily on or after January first, nineteen hundred forty-seven 9 and before June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred fifty; and, on or after 10 July first, nineteen hundred seventy, the term "military duty" shall not 11 include any voluntary service in excess of four years performed after 12 that date, or the total of any voluntary services, additional or other-13 wise, in excess of four years performed after that date, shall not 14 exceed five years, if the service in excess of four years is at the 15 request and for the convenience of the federal government, except if 16 such voluntary service is performed during a period of war, or national 17 emergency declared by the president.

18 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of April next succeeding 19 the date on which it shall have become a law.
