3 2. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit or prevent 4 an employer from providing an amount of sick leave, paid or unpaid, paid 5 leave, or paid prenatal personal leave which is in excess of the 6 requirements set forth in subdivision one and subdivision four-a of this 7 section, or from adopting a paid leave policy that provides additional 8 benefits to employees. An employer may elect to provide its employees 9 with the total amount of sick leave and paid leave required to fulfill 10 its obligations pursuant to subdivision one of this section at the 11 beginning of the calendar year, provided, however that no employer shall 12 be permitted to reduce or revoke any such sick leave or paid leave based 13 on the number of hours actually worked by an employee during the calen-

25 such illness, injury, or health condition has been diagnosed or requires 26 medical care at the time that such employee requests such leave;

27 (ii) for the diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical 28 illness, injury or health condition of, or need for medical diagnosis
29 of, or preventive care for, such employee or such employee's family 30 member; or

31 (iii) for an absence from work due to any of the following reasons

49 of the employee or the employee's family member or to protect those who 50 associate or work with the employee.

51 For purposes of this subdivision, the reasons outlined above in 52 [~~subparagraph~~] clauses (a) through (g) of this subparagraph must be 53 related to the domestic violence, family offense, sexual offense, stalk-54 ing, or human trafficking. Provided further that a person who has 55 committed such domestic violence, family offense, sexual offense, stalk-56 ing, or human trafficking shall not be eligible for leave under this

1 subdivision for situations in which the person committed such offense
2 and was not a victim, notwithstanding any family relationship.

3 b. For purposes of this section, "family member" shall mean an employ-4 ee's child, spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, grandchild or 5 grandparent; and the child or parent of an employee's spouse or domestic 6 partner. "Parent" shall mean a biological, foster, step- or adoptive 7 parent, or a legal guardian of an employee, or a person who stood in

9 biological, adopted or foster child, a legal ward, or a child of an 10 employee standing in loco parentis.

11 4-a. In addition to the sick leave and paid leave provided for in this 12 section, on and after January first, two thousand twenty-five, every 13 employer shall be required to provide to its employees twenty hours of 14 paid prenatal personal leave during any fifty-two week calendar period.
15 Paid prenatal personal leave shall mean leave taken for the health care 16 services received by an employee during their pregnancy or related to 17 such pregnancy, including physical examinations, medical procedures,
18 monitoring and testing, and discussions with a health care provider 19 related to the pregnancy. Paid prenatal personal leave may be taken in 20 hourly increments. Benefits for paid prenatal personal leave shall be 21 paid in hourly installments. Employees shall receive compensation at the 25 in this section shall be construed to require an employer to pay an 26 employee for unused paid prenatal leave upon such employee's termi-

28 5. a. An employer may not require the disclosure of confidential
29 information relating to a mental or physical illness, injury, or health 30 condition of such employee or such employee's family member, or informa-31 tion relating to absence from work due to domestic violence, a sexual 32 offense, stalking, or human trafficking, as a condition of providing 33 sick leave, paid leave, or paid prenatal personal leave pursuant to this 34 section.

35 b. An employer may set a reasonable minimum increment [~~for the use of~~ 36 ~~sick leave which shall~~] not to exceed four hours of paid leave per day 37 or paid sick leave per day. If a covered employee's scheduled workday is 38 less than the minimum increments above, the minimum increment of time 39 shall not exceed the covered employee's regular scheduled workday.
40 Employees shall receive compensation at [~~his or her~~] such employee's 41 regular rate of pay, or the applicable minimum wage established pursuant 42 to section six hundred fifty-two of this chapter, whichever is greater, 43 for the use of paid sick leave or paid leave.

44 6. An employee's unused sick leave and paid leave shall be carried 45 over to the following calendar year, provided, however, that: (i) an 46 employer with fewer than one hundred employees may limit the use of sick
47 leave to forty hours per calendar year and up to forty hours of paid
48 leave; and (ii) an employer with one hundred or more employees may limit 49 the use of sick leave to fifty-six hours per calendar year and forty 50 hours of paid leave per calendar year. Nothing in this section shall be 51 construed to require an employer to pay an employee for unused sick
52 leave or paid leave upon such employee's termination, resignation, 53 retirement, or other separation from employment.

54 7. No employer or their agent, or the officer or agent of any corpo-
55 ration, partnership, or limited liability company, or any other person, 56 shall discharge, threaten, penalize, or in any other manner discriminate

1 or retaliate against any employee because such employee has exercised 2 their rights afforded under this section, including, but not limited to,
3 requesting sick leave, paid leave, or paid prenatal leave and using sick 4 leave, paid leave, or paid prenatal leave, consistent with the 5 provisions of section two hundred fifteen of this chapter.

6 8. An employer shall not be required to provide any additional sick
7 leave or paid leave pursuant to this section if the employer has adopted 8 a sick leave policy or paid time off policy that provides employees with 9 an amount of leave which meets or exceeds the requirements set forth in 10 subdivision one of this section and satisfies the accrual, carryover, 11 and use requirements of this section.

12 9. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. prohibit a 13 collective bargaining agreement entered into, on or after the effective 14 date of this section from, in lieu of the leave provided for in this 15 section, providing a comparable benefit for the employees covered by 16 such agreement in the form of paid days off; such paid days off shall be 17 in the form of leave, compensation, other employee benefits, or some 18 combination thereof; or

19 b. impede, infringe, or diminish the ability of a certified collective 20 bargaining agent to negotiate the terms and conditions of sick leave 21 different from the provisions of this section.

22 Provided, however, that in the case of either paragraph a or b of this 23 subdivision, the agreement must specifically acknowledge the provisions 24 of this section.

25 10. Upon return to work following any sick leave, paid leave, or paid 26 prenatal leave taken pursuant to this section, an employee shall be 27 restored by their employer to the position of employment held by such 28 employee prior to any sick leave or paid prenatal leave taken pursuant 29 to this section with the same pay and other terms and conditions of 30 employment.

31 11. Upon the oral or written request of an employee, an employer shall 32 provide a summary of the amounts of sick leave and paid leave accrued
33 and used by such employee in the current calendar year and/or any previ-
34 ous calendar year. The employer shall provide such information to the 35 employee within three business days of such request.

36 12. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a city with 37 a population of one million or more from enacting and enforcing local 38 laws or ordinances which meet or exceed the standard or requirements for 39 minimum hour and use set forth in this section, as determined by the 40 commissioner. Any paid sick leave or paid leave benefits provided by a 41 sick leave or paid leave program enforced by a municipal corporation in 42 effect as of the effective date of this section shall not be diminished 43 or limited as a result of the enactment of this section.

44 13. The commissioner shall have authority to adopt regulations and 45 issue guidance to effectuate any of the provisions of this section.
46 Employers shall comply with regulations and guidance promulgated by the 47 commissioner for this purpose which may include but are not limited to 48 standards for the accrual, use, payment, and employee eligibility of 49 sick leave.

50 14. The department shall conduct a public awareness outreach campaign 51 which shall include making information available on its website and 52 otherwise informing employers and employees of the provisions of this 53 section.

54 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
