Introduced by M. of A. CHANG -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to providing college credits for students who receive high marks on regents examinations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 239-c 2 to read as follows:

3 § 239-c. Scores required on regents examinations for college credit.

4 1. A student shall receive an average score of eighty across all ten 5 regents examinations, and attain a regents diploma, in order to receive 6 three college credits towards general coursework at a university. Each 7 university shall determine which general education coursework those 8 credits may be applied to on an individual basis and in consultation 9 with such student.

10 2. A student shall receive an average score of eighty-five across any 11 four regents examinations, and attain a regents diploma, in order to 12 receive three college credits towards general coursework at a universi-
13 ty. Each university shall determine which general education coursework 14 those credits may be applied to on an individual basis and in consulta-15 tion with such student.

16 3. A student shall receive an average score of ninety across any four 17 regents examinations, and attain a regents diploma with an advanced 18 designation with honors, in order to receive six college credits towards 19 general coursework at a university. Each university shall determine 20 which general education coursework those credits may be applied to on an 21 individual basis and in consultation with such student.

22 4. A student shall be prohibited from availing themselves of multiple 23 provisions of this section.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
