Introduced by M. of A. DINOWITZ, SEAWRIGHT, STIRPE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary -- recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary in accordance with Assembly Rule 3, sec. 2 -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to arbitration agreements

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Article 75 of the civil practice law and rules is amended 2 by adding a new section 7500 to read as follows:

3 § 7500. Definitions. As used in this article:

4 (a) "Arbitration" means the use of a decision making forum conducted 5 by an arbitrator or panel of arbitrators within the meaning and subject 6 to the provisions of this article.

7 (b) "Neutral third-party arbitrator" means an arbitrator who does not 8 have an undisclosed known, direct or material interest, including a 9 financial or personal interest in the outcome of the arbitration 10 proceeding, or a known, existing or past relationship with any of the 11 parties to the agreement to arbitrate or the arbitration proceeding, 12 their counsel or representatives, a witness, or another arbitrator.

13 (c) "Employment" means a relationship between an employer and an 14 employee as defined in section three of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 15 1938 (29 U.S.C. § 203) but who is neither an officer nor employed pursu-16 ant to an individualized, mutually-negotiated employment contract.

17 (d) "Consumer" means a natural person residing in this state who is 18 involved in a consumer dispute.

19 (e) "Consumer dispute" means a dispute between an individual who seeks 20 or acquires real or personal property, services (including services 21 relating to securities and other investments), money or credit, for 22 personal, family or household purposes and the seller or provider of 1 such property, services, money or credit, but shall not include any such 2 property or service, including financial products and services where the 3 terms of acquisition of such product or service are mutually negotiated 4 between the seller and the purchaser of such property or service.

5 § 2. Section 7501 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by 6 chapter 532 of the laws of 1963, is amended to read as follows:

7 § 7501. Effect of arbitration agreement. A written agreement to 8 submit any [~~controversy~~] employment dispute or consumer dispute there-9 after arising or [~~any~~] then existing [~~controversy~~] to arbitration is 10 enforceable without regard to the justiciable character of the [~~contro-~~ 11 ~~versy~~] dispute and confers jurisdiction on the courts of the state to 12 enforce it and to enter judgment on an award; provided, however, and 13 except where inconsistent with federal law, that language requiring such 14 employment or consumer dispute be submitted to an arbitrator or arbi-15 tration organization that is not a neutral third-party arbitrator, shall 16 be deemed void. The requirement that such employment or consumer 17 dispute be heard by a neutral third-party arbitrator may not be waived 18 by a party prior to the service on such party of a demand for arbi-
19 tration. Upon disclosure pursuant to section seventy-five hundred five-a 20 of this article, a party shall be deemed to have waived any objection to 21 the arbitrator by failing to raise same within thirty calendar days of 22 receiving the disclosure. In determining any matter arising under this 23 article, the court shall not consider whether the claim with respect to 24 which arbitration is sought is tenable, or otherwise pass upon the 25 merits of the dispute.

26 Arbitration of any employment or consumer dispute shall be conducted 27 by a neutral third-party arbitrator. Appointment of any arbitrator 28 shall reasonably ensure the personal objectivity of the arbitrator and 29 the right of each party to present its case, to be in attendance during 30 any presentation made by the other party and to rebut or refute such 31 presentation.

32 § 3. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new 33 section 7505-a to read as follows:

34 § 7505-a. Disclosure by arbitrator in employer and consumer disputes.
35 (a) Before accepting appointment to any employment or consumer dispute, 36 an individual who is requested to serve as an arbitrator, after making a 37 reasonable inquiry, shall disclose to all parties to the agreement to 38 arbitrate and the arbitration proceeding, and to any other arbitrators 39 any known facts that a reasonable person would consider likely to affect 40 the impartiality of the arbitrator in the arbitration proceeding, 41 including:

42 (1) a financial or personal interest in the outcome of the arbitration 43 proceeding; and

44 (2) an existing or past relationship with any of the parties to the 45 agreement to arbitrate or the arbitration proceeding, their counsel or 46 representatives, a witness, or another arbitrator.

47 (b) An arbitrator has a continuing obligation to disclose to all 48 parties to the agreement to arbitrate and the arbitration proceeding, 49 and to any other arbitrators any facts that the arbitrator learns after 50 accepting appointment which a reasonable person would consider likely to 51 affect the impartiality of the arbitrator.

52 (c) If an arbitrator discloses a fact required by subdivision (a) or 53 (b) of this section and a party timely objects to the appointment or 54 continued service of the arbitrator based upon the fact disclosed, the 55 objection may be a ground for vacating an award made by the arbitrator

1 if the court holds that the arbitrator was partial as provided for in 2 section seventy-five hundred eleven of this article.

3 (d) If the arbitrator did not disclose a fact as required by subdivi-4 sion (a) or (b) of this section, upon timely objection by a party after 5 discovery of such non-disclosure, the court may vacate an award based on 6 such non-disclosure if the court holds that the arbitrator was partial 7 as provided for in section seventy-five hundred eleven of this article.

8 § 4. Section 7506 of the civil practice law and rules is amended to 9 read as follows:

10 § 7506. Hearing. (a) Oath of arbitrator. Before hearing any testimony, 11 an arbitrator shall be sworn to hear and decide the controversy faith-12 fully and fairly by an officer authorized to administer an oath.

13 (b) Time and place. The arbitrator shall appoint a time and place for 14 the hearing and notify the parties in writing personally or by regis-15 tered or certified mail not less than eight days before the hearing. The 16 arbitrator may adjourn or postpone the hearing. The court, upon applica-17 tion of any party, may direct the arbitrator to proceed promptly with 18 the hearing and determination of the controversy.

19 (c) Evidence. The parties are entitled to be heard, to present 20 evidence and to cross-examine witnesses. Notwithstanding the failure of 21 a party duly notified to appear, the arbitrator may hear and determine 22 the controversy upon the evidence produced.

23 (d) Postponements and adjournments. The arbitrator may for good cause 24 postpone or adjourn the hearing upon request of a party or upon the 25 arbitrator's own initiative. If a party to an arbitration intends to 26 present testimony from a witness at the hearing, absent good cause 27 shown, the identity of the witness must be given to all parties at least 28 seven calendar days prior to the hearing.

29 (e) Representation by attorney. A party has the right to be repres-30 ented by an attorney and may claim such right at any time as to any part 31 of the arbitration or hearings which have not taken place. This right 32 may not be waived. If a party is represented by an attorney, papers to 33 be served on the party shall be served upon [~~his~~] the party's attorney.
34 It shall be discretionary with the arbitrator to permit the attendance 35 of any other persons.

36 [~~(e)~~] (f) Determination by majority. The hearing shall be conducted by 37 all the arbitrators, but a majority may determine any question and 38 render an award.

39 [~~(f)~~] (g) Waiver. Except as provided in subdivision [~~(d)~~] (e) of this 40 section, a requirement of this section may be waived by written consent 41 of the parties and it is waived if the parties continue with the arbi-42 tration without objection.

43 § 5. Section 7507 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by 44 chapter 952 of the laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:

45 § 7507. Award; form; time; delivery. (a) Except as provided in 46 section 7508, the award shall be in writing, signed and affirmed by the 47 arbitrator making it within the time fixed by the agreement, or, if the 48 time is not fixed, within such time as the court orders.

49 (b) In an arbitration involving a consumer dispute or an employment 50 dispute where arbitration was held pursuant to a contract, and except 51 where inconsistent with federal law, the award shall state the issues in 52 dispute and shall set forth an explanation of the reasons for the award.
53 The award shall contain a decision on all issues submitted to the arbi-54 trator.

55 (c) The parties may in writing extend the time either before or after 56 its expiration. A party waives the objection that an award was not made

1 within the time required unless [~~he~~] the party notifies the arbitrator 2 in writing of [~~his~~] the party's objection prior to the delivery of the 3 award [~~to him~~].

4 (d) The arbitrator shall deliver a copy of the award to each party in 5 the manner provided in the agreement, or, if no provision is so made, 6 personally or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

7 § 6. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding two new 8 sections 7517 and 7518 to read as follows:

9 § 7517. Prohibited predispute arbitration agreements. (a) Defi-
10 nitions. (i) The term "consumer dispute" means a dispute between an 11 individual who seeks or acquires real or personal property, services 12 (including services relating to securities and other investments), 13 money, or credit for personal, family or household purposes and the 14 seller or provider of such property, services, money or credit.

15 (ii) The term "employment dispute" means a dispute between an employer 16 and employee arising out of the relationship of employer and employee as 17 defined in section three of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 18 U.S.C. § 203) but who is neither an officer nor employed pursuant to an 19 individualized, mutually-negotiated employment contract.

20 (iii) The term "predispute arbitration agreement" means any agreement 21 to arbitrate a dispute that had not yet arisen at the time of the making 22 of the agreement.

23 (b) Prohibition. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, 24 and except where inconsistent with federal law no predispute arbitration 25 agreement shall be valid or enforceable if it requires arbitration of an 26 employment dispute or consumer dispute.

27 § 7518. Prohibited provisions. (a) Prohibition of effect of certain 28 arbitration clauses or agreements. Mandatory arbitration clauses or 29 agreements covering consumers and employees are contrary to the estab-30 lished public policy of this state. Because employees and consumers are 31 forced to assent to these agreements as a condition of being an employee 32 or consumer before any dispute has arisen with the employer or merchant, 33 these agreements do not offer employees and consumers a meaningful 34 choice about how to resolve their disputes with the employer or 35 merchant. In addition, mandatory arbitration agreements prevent employ-36 ees and consumers from effectively vindicating their rights under state 37 law. For these reasons, except when inconsistent with federal law, the 38 state prohibits the formation and enforcement of mandatory arbitration 39 agreements in employment and consumer contracts.

40 (b) Prohibition of arbitration clauses in employment contracts for 41 workers exempted from the Federal Arbitration Act. A mandatory arbi-42 tration agreement within or part of any written contract of employment 43 of seamen, railroad employees or any other class of workers engaged in 44 foreign or interstate commerce is unenforceable and void. Any such arbi-45 tration agreement shall be considered severable, and all other 46 provisions of the employment contract shall remain in effect and given 47 full force.

48 (c) Prohibition of arbitration clauses that are not governed by feder-49 al law. Any mandatory arbitration agreement, or portion thereof, in an 50 employment or consumer contract is invalid, unenforceable and void, when 51 the enforceability of such arbitration agreement, or the portion at 52 issue, is governed by state law. Any such arbitration agreement shall be 53 considered severable, and all other provisions of the employment 54 contract shall remain in effect and given full force.

1 (d) Exclusion. The provisions of this section shall not apply to 2 agreements negotiated with any labor union through collective bargain-3 ing.

4 § 7. Enforcement. Any injured private person and any enforcement
5 agency or official responsible for enforcing the provisions of this act 6 may bring suit for injunctive relief against an entity that violates 7 such provisions, and may recover reasonable attorney fees and other 8 costs if an injunction or equivalent relief is awarded. Injunctive 9 relief shall be the only relief available in a suit arising from failure 10 to comply with this act.

11 § 8. Severability. If any provision of this act or the application 12 thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity 13 shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act that can 14 be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to 15 that end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

16 § 9. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-17 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
