AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the crimes of aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the first, second and third degrees; to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to the arrest of persons believed to have committed aggravated falsely reporting an incident; to amend the penal law and the civil rights law, in relation to including falsely reporting an incident as a hate crime; to amend the executive law, in relation to establishing databases of law enforcement officers and persons who have been convicted of falsely reporting an incident; and to amend the criminal procedure law and the civil practice law and rules, in relation to notifying persons of the termination of certain criminal actions or proceedings and the timeframe for bringing a cause of action for false reporting

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "false reporting survivors act".
3 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding three new sections 240.80, 4 240.81 and 240.82 to read as follows:
5 § 240.80 Aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the third degree.
6 A person is guilty of aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the 7 third degree when with intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm another 8 person, because of a belief or perception regarding a person's race, 9 color, national origin, ancestry, religion, gender, disability, sexual 10 orientation, gender identity or expression, or ethnicity regardless of

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD00358-06-6

1 whether the belief or perception is correct, such person commits the 2 crime of falsely reporting an incident in the third degree pursuant to 3 section 240.50 of this article. For the purposes of this section, the 4 term "person" shall be deemed to include a law enforcement officer.

5 Aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the third degree is a 6 class E felony.

7 § 240.81 Aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the second degree.

8 A person is guilty of aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the 9 second degree when with intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm 10 another person, because of a belief or perception regarding a person's 11 race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, gender, disability, 12 sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or ethnicity regard-13 less of whether the belief or perception is correct, such person commits 14 the crime of falsely reporting an incident in the second degree pursuant 15 to section 240.55 of this article. For the purposes of this section, the 16 term "person" shall be deemed to include a law enforcement officer.

17 Aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the second degree is a 18 class D felony.

19 § 240.82 Aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the first degree.

20 A person is guilty of aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the 21 first degree when with intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm anoth-22 er person, because of a belief or perception regarding a person's race, 23 color, national origin, ancestry, religion, gender, disability, sexual 24 orientation, gender identity or expression, or ethnicity regardless of 25 whether the belief or perception is correct, such person commits the 26 crime of falsely reporting an incident in the first degree pursuant to 27 section 240.60 of this article. For the purposes of this section, the 28 term "person" shall be deemed to include a law enforcement officer.

29 Aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the first degree is a 30 class C felony.

31 § 3. Section 140.10 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding 32 a new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

33 7. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, a police 34 officer shall arrest a person, and shall not attempt to reconcile the 35 parties or mediate, where such officer has reasonable cause to believe 36 that a felony constituting falsely reporting an incident in the third 37 degree pursuant to section 240.50 of the penal law, falsely reporting an 38 incident in the second degree pursuant to section 240.55 of the penal 39 law, falsely reporting an incident in the first degree pursuant to 40 section 240.60 of the penal law, aggravated falsely reporting an inci-41 dent in the third degree pursuant to section 240.80 of the penal law, 42 aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the second degree pursuant 43 to section 240.81 of the penal law, or aggravated falsely reporting an 44 incident in the first degree pursuant to section 240.82 of the penal law 45 has been committed by such person; provided, however, that:

46 (a) to ensure that a pending active criminal investigation or prose-47 cution is completed without interference, a police officer shall not 48 accept or process civilian cross-complaints for aggravated falsely 49 reporting an incident in the first, second, or third degree during such 50 pending active criminal investigation or prosecution;

51 (b) notwithstanding any other provision of law, a police officer shall 52 not take a written report for, nor effectuate an arrest for, aggravated 53 falsely reporting an incident in the first, second, or third degree 54 until such time as the underlying criminal proceeding initiated by the 55 initial report has been officially dismissed, acquitted, or overturned 56 by a court of competent jurisdiction;

1 (c) a mandatory arrest under this subdivision shall only occur when 2 there is independent supporting evidence proving that the report was 3 fabricated. No charges shall be initiated pursuant to this subdivision 4 unless such evidence has been verified by the office of the attorney 5 general to ensure the charge is based on proof of a deliberate fabri-6 cation rather than a "good faith" mistake;

7 (d) the provisions of this subdivision shall not limit a police offi-8 cer's authority to effectuate an arrest when such officer has immediate, 9 independent proof that they have been personally and willfully misled.
10 In instances where a police officer can verify a fabrication through 11 direct evidence at the scene, independent of any civilian cross-allega-12 tion, such officer shall proceed with an arrest for aggravated falsely 13 reporting an incident in the first, second, or third degree; and 14 (e) police officers shall formally instruct the complainant to submit 15 their allegation, along with any independent supporting evidence, 16 directly to the office of the attorney general for intake and prelimi-

17 nary review. No local law enforcement agency shall log, file, or act 18 upon a civilian complaint under this subdivision without direct written 19 authorization and referral from the office of the attorney general.

20 § 4. Subdivision 3 of section 485.05 of the penal law, as amended by 21 section 2 of part C of chapter 55 of the laws of 2024, is amended to 22 read as follows:

23 3. A "specified offense" is an offense defined by any of the following 24 provisions of this chapter: section 120.00 (assault in the third 43 or biological weapon in the first degree); or any attempt or conspiracy 44 to commit any of the foregoing offenses.

45 § 5. Subdivision 2 of section 79-n of the civil rights law, as amended 46 by chapter 213 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

47 2. Any person who intentionally selects a person or property for harm 48 or causes damage to the property of another or causes physical injury or 49 death to another, or subjects a person to conduct that would constitute 50 harassment under section 240.25 of the penal law, or subjects a person 51 to conduct that results in a conviction under section 240.80 (aggravated 52 falsely reporting an incident in the third degree), section 240.81 53 (aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the second degree), or 54 section 240.82 (aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the first 55 degree) of the penal law, or summons a police officer or peace officer 56 without reason to suspect a violation of the penal law, any other crimi-

1 nal conduct, or an imminent threat to a person or property, in whole or 2 in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding the 3 race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious 4 practice, age, disability or sexual orientation of a person, regardless 5 of whether the belief or perception is correct, or any person who aids 6 or incites any such conduct, shall be liable, in a civil action or 7 proceeding maintained by such individual or group of individuals, for 8 injunctive relief, damages, or any other appropriate relief in law or 9 equity. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice 10 that the respondent has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction 11 may be issued by such court or justice, enjoining and restraining any 12 further violation, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, 13 been injured or damaged thereby. For the purposes of this subdivision, a 14 person lacks reason to suspect a violation of the penal law, any other 15 criminal conduct, or an imminent threat to a person or property where a 16 reasonable person would not suspect such violation, conduct, or threat.

17 § 6. Subdivision 3 of section 75 of the executive law is amended by 18 adding two new paragraphs (a-1) and (c-1) to read as follows:

19 (a-1) receive and investigate complaints or reports from any source, 20 or upon the deputy attorney general's own initiative, concerning any 21 allegations involving falsely reporting an incident pursuant to article 22 two hundred forty of the penal law;

23 (c-1) establish a public, searchable database of all officers or 24 employees of covered agencies who have been convicted under section
25 240.80 (aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the third degree), 26 section 240.81 (aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the second 27 degree) and section 240.82 (aggravated falsely reporting an incident in 28 the first degree) of the penal law where such officer or employee 29 committed the offense in whole or in substantial part because of a 30 belief or perception regarding the race, color, national origin, ances-31 try, religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity 32 or expression, or ethnicity of a person, regardless of whether the 33 belief or perception is correct. Such database shall include the name 34 and a photo of the officer or employee who committed the offense;

35 § 7. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 76 to read 36 as follows:

37 § 76. False reporting database. The office of the attorney general 38 shall establish a public, searchable database of all convictions under 39 section 240.80 (aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the third 40 degree), section 240.81 (aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the 41 second degree) and section 240.82 (aggravated falsely reporting an inci-42 dent in the first degree) of the penal law where a person committed the 43 offense in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or percep-44 tion regarding the race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, 45 gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, 46 or ethnicity of a person, regardless of whether the belief or perception 47 is correct. Such database shall include the name and a photo of the 48 officer or employee who committed the offense.

49 § 8. Section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding
50 a new subdivision 6 to read as follows:

51 6. The prosecutor shall provide a comprehensive report to the defend-52 ant or the defendant's attorney within five days following the dismissal 53 or other termination in favor of the defendant of any criminal action or 54 proceeding related to a violation of section 240.80 (aggravated falsely 55 reporting an incident in the third degree), section 240.81 (aggravated 56 falsely reporting an incident in the second degree), or section 240.82

1 (aggravated falsely reporting an incident in the first degree) of the 2 penal law, regardless of the legal basis for such dismissal or termi-3 nation, including but not limited to procedural, technical, constitu-4 tional, evidentiary, jurisdictional, statutory, or discretionary 5 grounds. The comprehensive report shall include: (a) the explicit iden-6 tity of the accuser; (b) whether the accuser changed their mind about 7 testifying; (c) whether the accuser possessed any supporting evidence to 8 back up the original claim; and (d) all unredacted police reports, inci-9 dent reports, 911 call records, and related law enforcement records 10 connected to the criminal action or proceeding, including any reports or 11 records relied upon, referenced, or used in connection with the investi-12 gation, arrest, prosecution, or termination of the case.

13 § 9. Subdivision 3 of section 30.10 of the criminal procedure law is 14 amended by adding a new paragraph (i) to read as follows:

15 (i) A prosecution for any felony defined in sections 240.80, 240.81, 16 and 240.82 of the penal law relating to aggravated falsely reporting an 17 incident may be commenced at any time.

18 § 10. The section heading of section 214 of the civil practice law and 19 rules, as separately amended by chapters 485 and 682 of the laws of 20 1986, is amended and a new subdivision 8 is added to read as follows:

21 Actions to be commenced within three years: for non-payment of money 22 collected on execution; for penalty created by statute; to recover chat-23 tel; for injury to property; for personal injury; for malpractice other 24 than medical, dental or podiatric malpractice; to annul a marriage on 25 the ground of fraud; or for falsely reporting an incident.

26 8. an action to recover damages as a result of conduct that results in 27 a conviction under section 240.80 (aggravated falsely reporting an inci-28 dent in the third degree), section 240.81 (aggravated falsely reporting 29 an incident in the second degree), or section 240.82 (aggravated falsely 30 reporting an incident in the first degree) of the penal law; provided, 31 however, that an action to recover damages as a result of such conduct 32 that results in such a conviction may be commenced beyond such three-33 year time limit if the victim of such conduct provides proof that one or 34 more of the following hardships prevented the victim from filing an 35 action within the three-year time limit:

36 (a) Lack of knowledge of the three-year time limit;

37 (b) Delayed discovery of injury or harm;

38 (c) Mental or physical incapacity;

39 (d) Being a minor at the time of the incident;

40 (e) Pending investigations or criminal proceedings;

41 (f) Court closures or emergencies;

42 (g) Difficulty finding an attorney or gathering evidence;

43 (h) Fear of retaliation or intimidation;

44 (i) Lack of access to financial or legal resources;

45 (j) Police obstruction or refusal to file a report;

46 (k) New evidence discovered that was previously unknown or suppressed;

47 or

48 (l) Freedom of information requests denied by police or the district 49 attorney's office for police reports, court records, court investi-
50 gations, or sealed records related to the victim's case.

51 § 11. This act shall take effect immediately.
