AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to setting standards for advertising deeply affordable housing

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 350-a-1 to read as follows:

§ 350-a-1. Standards for advertising deeply affordable housing. 1. A housing unit may only be advertised as "deeply affordable" if it is affordable to a very low income family, as defined by 24 CFR 5.603.

2. (a) Describing a housing unit that does not meet the applicable criteria of subdivision one of this section as deeply affordable in any physical or digital promotional material created by a person or entity with a financial interest in such housing unit shall be considered false advertising for the purposes of section three hundred fifty of this article.

(b) In cases where a person or entity is advertising housing units in a building or housing development that are market rate along with units which meet the definition of deeply affordable, such advertisement shall clearly state either (i) the percentage of units in such building or housing development that meet the definition of deeply affordable or (ii) the number of units that meet the definition of deeply affordable and the number of units that are market-rate.

3. When a municipal government or the state provide information to the public about available deeply affordable housing units, they shall adhere to the definition and advertising rules established pursuant to

1 this section. This includes public-facing communications, databases,
2 and promotional materials regarding available housing units.

3 4. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to impact
4 eligibility for tax credits, grants, or other incentives for affordabil-
5 ity programs with definitions that differ from those in this section;
6 provided, however, that advertisement of any housing unit under such a
7 tax credit, grant or other incentive program shall be governed by the 8 provisions of this section.

9 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 10 it shall have become a law.
