AN ACT to amend the labor law and the estates, powers and trusts law, in relation to establishing protections for minors who are featured in compensated video content

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The article heading of article 4-A of the labor law, as 2 added by chapter 630 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

3 [~~EMPLOYMENT AND EDUCATION OF~~] REQUIREMENTS FOR 4 CHILD PERFORMERS
5 AND MINORS FEATURED IN COMPENSATED VIDEO CONTENT

6 § 2. Section 150 of the labor law is amended by adding five new subdivisions 7 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13 to read as follows:

8 9. "Online platform" shall mean any public-facing website, web application, 9 or digital application, including a mobile application. "Online 10 platform" includes a social network, advertising network, mobile operating 11 system, search engine, email service, or Internet access service.

12 10. "Family" shall mean a group of persons related by blood or 13 marriage, including civil partnerships, or whose close relationship with 14 each other is considered equivalent to a family relationship by the 15 individuals.

16 11. "Content creation" shall mean video content shared on an online 17 platform in exchange for compensation.

18 12. "Content creator" shall mean an individual or family that creates 19 video content, performed in the state, in exchange for compensation, and

1 includes any sole proprietorship, partnership, company, or other corpo-2 rate entity assuming the name or identity of a particular individual or 3 family for the purposes of that content creation. "Content creator" does 4 not include any person under the age of eighteen who produces their own 5 pieces of video content.

6 § 3. Section 154-a of the labor law is renumbered section 156 and a 7 new section 155 is added to read as follows:

8 § 155. Minors featured in compensated video content. 1. (a) Except as 9 otherwise provided in this section, a minor is considered featured in 10 compensated video content when the following criteria are met at any 11 time during the previous twelve-month period:

12 (i) at least thirty percent of a content creator's compensated video 13 content produced within a thirty-day period included the likeness, name, 14 or photograph of the minor. Content percentage is measured by the 15 percentage of time the likeness, name, or photograph of the minor visu-16 ally appears or is the subject of an oral narrative in a video segment, 17 as compared to the total length of the segment; and 18 (ii) the number of views received per video segment on any online 19 platform met the online platform's threshold for the generation of 20 compensation or the content creator received actual compensation for 21 video content equal to or greater than ten cents per view.

22 (b) A minor featured in compensated video content shall not be deemed 23 a child performer for the purposes of this article.

24 2. Every content creator whose content features minors under the age 25 of eighteen and satisfies the criteria provided in subdivision one of 26 this section shall establish a minor content creator trust account 27 pursuant to the provisions of section 7-7.2 of the estates, powers and 28 trusts law for each such minor.

29 3. All content creators whose content features a minor under the age 30 of eighteen and satisfies the criteria provided in subdivision one of 31 this section shall maintain the following records and shall provide them 32 to the minor on an ongoing basis:

33 (a) the name and documentary proof of the age of the minor featured in 34 compensated video content;

35 (b) the number of pieces of content that generated compensation as 36 described in subdivision one of this section during the reporting peri-37 od;

38 (c) the total number of minutes of the content that the content crea-39 tor received compensation for during the reporting period;

40 (d) the total number of minutes each minor was featured in content 41 during the reporting period;

42 (e) the total compensation generated from content featuring a minor 43 during the reporting period; and 44 (f) the amount deposited into the trust account for the benefit of the 45 minor featured in compensated video content, as required by section 46 7-7.2 of the estates, powers and trusts law.

47 4. If a content creator whose content features minors under the age of 48 eighteen and satisfies the criteria provided in subdivision one of this 49 section fails to maintain the records as provided in subdivision three 50 of this section, the minor may commence a civil action to enforce the 51 provisions of this section.

52 5. (a) A person thirteen years of age or older who was featured as a 53 minor child in content of a content creator may request the permanent 54 deletion of the content from an online platform. An online platform must 55 have an easily accessible form available online for submission of the 56 deletion request.

1 (b) An online platform that receives a deletion request shall remove 2 and permanently delete the content for which the request was made within 3 seven days after the request was submitted.

4 (c) Any contract between a content creator and an online platform that 5 would reasonably be anticipated to feature a minor child must include 6 notification from the social media platform of the rights under this 7 subdivision.

8 6. If the commissioner finds that a content creator or online platform 9 has violated any relevant provision of this section or any rule or regu-10 lation promulgated thereunder, the commissioner may commence a civil 11 action to enforce the provisions of this section.

12 § 4. The estates, powers and trusts law is amended by adding a new 13 section 7-7.2 to read as follows:

14 § 7-7.2 Minor content creator trust account

15 1. As used in this section, the term "content creator" shall have the 16 same meaning as defined in subdivision twelve of section one hundred 17 fifty of the labor law.

18 2. A minor satisfying the criteria described in subdivision one of 19 section one hundred fifty-five of the labor law must be compensated by 20 the content creator. The content creator shall set aside gross earnings 21 on the video content including the likeness, name, or photograph of the 22 minor in a trust account to be preserved for the benefit of the minor 23 upon reaching the age of majority, according to the following distrib-24 ution:

25 (a) where only one minor meets the content threshold described in 26 subdivision one of section one hundred fifty-five of the labor law, the 27 percentage of total gross earnings on any video segment equal to the 28 percentage that includes the likeness, name, or photograph of the minor 29 as described in subdivision one of section one hundred fifty-five of the 30 labor law; or

31 (b) where more than one minor meets the content threshold described in 32 subdivision one of section one hundred fifty-five of the labor law and a 33 video segment includes more than one of those minors, the percentage 34 described in paragraph (a) of this subdivision for all minors in any 35 segment shall be equally divided between the minors, regardless of 36 differences in percentage of content provided by the individual minors.

37 3. A trust account required under this section shall provide, at a 38 minimum, the following:

39 (a) that the funds in the account shall be available only to the minor 40 featured in compensated video content;

41 (b) that the account shall be held by a bank or trust company, as 42 those terms are defined in section two of the banking law;

43 (c) that the funds in the account shall become available to the minor 44 featured in compensated video content upon the minor attaining the age 45 of eighteen years or until the minor is declared emancipated; and

46 (d) that the account meets the requirements of part six of this arti-47 cle.

48 4. If a content creator knowingly or recklessly violates this section, 49 a minor satisfying the criteria described in subdivision one of section 50 one hundred fifty-five of the labor law may commence an action to 51 enforce the provisions of this section regarding the trust account. The 52 court may award, to a minor who prevails in any action brought in 53 accordance with this section, the following damages:

54 (a) actual damages;

55 (b) punitive damages; and

1 (c) the costs of the action, including attorney's fees and litigation 2 costs.

3 5. If the commissioner finds that a content creator knowingly or reck-4 lessly violates this section, the commissioner may commence an action on 5 behalf of the minor to enforce the provisions of this section regarding 6 the trust account. The commissioner may recover costs and fees that 7 result from this action.

8 6. This section shall not affect any right or remedy available under 9 any other law of the state.

10 7. Nothing contained in this section shall be interpreted to have any 11 effect on a party that is neither the content creator nor the minor 12 featured in compensated video content.

13 § 5. Subdivision 2 of section 130 of the labor law is amended by 14 adding a new paragraph i to read as follows:

15 i. A minor under fourteen years of age featured in compensated video 16 content in compliance with section one hundred fifty-five of this chap-17 ter.

18 § 6. Subdivision 3 of section 131 of the labor law, as amended by 19 chapter 975 of the laws of 1996, is amended by adding a new paragraph h 20 to read as follows:

21 h. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a minor
22 fourteen or fifteen years of age from being featured in compensated
23 video content in compliance with section one hundred fifty-five of this 24 chapter.

25 § 6-a. Subdivision 3 of section 131 of the labor law, as amended by 26 section 3 of part X of chapter 56 of the laws of 2025, is amended by 27 adding a new paragraph f to read as follows:

28 f. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a minor
29 fourteen or fifteen years of age from being featured in compensated
30 video content in compliance with section one hundred fifty-five of this 31 chapter.

32 § 7. Subdivision 3 of section 132 of the labor law is amended by 33 adding a new paragraph g to read as follows:

34 g. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a minor 35 sixteen or seventeen years of age from being featured in compensated
37 chapter.

38 § 8. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 39 have become a law; provided, however, that the amendments to subdivision 40 3 of section 131 of the labor law made by section six-a of this act
41 shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as section 3 42 of part X of chapter 56 of the laws of 2025 takes effect. Effective 43 immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regu-44 lation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective 45 date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective 46 date.
