Introduced by M. of A. DINOWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to arbitration clauses in employment contracts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph 4 of subdivision (a) and subdivision (b) of 2 section 7515 of the civil practice law and rules, as added by section 1
3 of subpart B of part KK of chapter 57 of the laws of 2018, is amended to 4 read as follows:

5 4. The term "arbitration" shall mean the use of a decision making 6 forum conducted by an arbitrator or panel of arbitrators within the 7 meaning and subject to the provisions of this article [~~seventy-five of~~ 8 ~~the civil practice law and rules~~].

9 (b) (i) Prohibition. Except where inconsistent with federal law, no 10 written contract, entered into on or after the effective date of this 11 section shall contain a prohibited clause as defined in paragraph two of 12 subdivision (a) of this section.

13 (ii) Exceptions. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed 14 to impair or prohibit an employer from incorporating a non-prohibited
15 clause or other mandatory arbitration provision within such contract, 16 that the parties agree upon; provided, however, that in the event that a 17 party is required to sign a contract for employment containing a manda-
18 tory arbitration clause the representative shall disclose the mandatory 19 arbitration clause to the party and clearly explain, in plain language, 20 what an arbitration clause is. If the party is agreeing to a contract by 21 any form of contact that is not personal, including but not limited to,
22 electronically, using the internet or through the mail, such contract
23 shall have, at the end of such contract, information informing the party
24 that they are signing a mandatory arbitration clause and an internet

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

2 clause is.

3 (iii) Mandatory arbitration clause null and void. Except where incon-4 sistent with federal law, the provisions of such prohibited clause as 5 defined in paragraph two of subdivision (a) of this section shall be 6 null and void. The inclusion of such clause in a written contract shall 7 not serve to impair the enforceability of any other provision of such 8 contract.

9 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
