Introduced by M. of A. JACOBSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Corporations, Authorities and Commissions

AN ACT to amend the public service law, in relation to authorizing consideration of non-economic loss suffered by consumers when determining penalties

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 25 of the public service law is amended by adding a 2 new subdivision 8 to read as follows:

3 8. In determining penalties pursuant to this section, including any 4 negotiated settlement agreements between the department, the commission,
5 and a public utility company, corporation or person and the officers, 6 agents and employees thereof, the commission may consider non-economic 7 loss suffered by consumers including, but not limited to, pain and 8 suffering or mental anguish.

9 § 2. Section 25-a of the public service law is amended by adding a new 10 subdivision 12 to read as follows:

11 12. In determining penalties pursuant to this section, including any 12 negotiated settlement agreements between the department, the commission,
13 and a combination gas and electric corporation or the officers thereof,
14 the commission may consider non-economic loss suffered by consumers,
15 including but not limited to, pain and suffering or mental anguish.

16 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
