2 criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 661 of the laws of 1972,
3 is amended and two new paragraphs (c) and (d) are added to read as 4 follows:

5 (b) In any case in which the defendant's appearance is required by a 6 summons or an appearance ticket, the court in its discretion may, for 7 good cause shown, permit the defendant to appear by counsel instead of 8 in person[-]; or

9 (c) In any case in which an appearance ticket has been issued for a 10 violation of a local zoning ordinance or local zoning law or of a build-11 ing or sanitation code and such violation is punishable by a penalty of 12 no greater than five hundred dollars, the defendant may enter a plea of 13 not guilty by mailing to the court of appropriate jurisdiction the 14 appearance ticket indicating such plea. Such plea shall be sent by 15 registered or certified mail, return receipt requested or by first class
16 mail. Upon receipt of such ticket and statement, the court shall advise 17 the defendant, by first class mail, of an appearance at which no testi-
18 mony shall be taken. If a trial is requested, the court shall set a 19 trial date on a date subsequent to the date of the initial appearance
20 and shall notify the defendant of the date by first class mail;
21 provided, however, that no warrant of arrest for failure to appear may 22 be issued until the defendant is notified of a new court appearance date 23 by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested and such 24 defendant fails to appear.

1 (d) A defendant may enter a plea of guilty by mailing to the court of 2 appropriate jurisdiction by first class mail or by registered or certi-
3 fied mail, return receipt requested, the appearance ticket and an appli-
4 cation setting forth: (i) the nature of the charge, (ii) the information
5 or instructions required to be given to the defendant upon arraignment, 6 (iii) that defendant waives arraignment in open court and the aid of 7 counsel, (iv) that defendant pleads guilty to the offense as charged, 8 (v) that defendant elects and requests that the charge be disposed of 9 and the fine or penalty fixed by the court, pursuant to the local ordi-
10 nance or code, (vi) any statement or explanation that the defendant may 11 desire to make concerning the offense charged, and (vii) that defendant 12 makes all statements with respect to such application under penalty of 13 perjury. Thereupon the local criminal court may proceed as though the 14 defendant had been convicted upon a plea of guilty in open court; 15 provided, however, that any imposition of fine or penalty pursuant to 16 this subparagraph shall be deemed tentative until such fine or penalty 17 shall have been paid and discharged in full, prior to which time such 18 court, in its discretion, may annul any proceedings hereunder, including 19 such tentative imposition of fine or penalty, and deny the application, 20 in which event the charge shall be disposed of pursuant to the applica-21 ble provisions of law, as though no proceedings occurred pursuant to 22 this subparagraph. If upon receipt of the aforesaid application such 23 court shall deny such application, the court shall thereupon inform the 24 defendant of this fact and that the defendant is required to appear 25 before such court at a stated time and place to answer the charge which 26 shall thereafter be disposed of pursuant to the applicable provisions of 27 law.

28 § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 340.20 of the criminal

31 (a) Subject to the provisions of [~~paragraph~~] paragraphs (b) and (c) 32 of this subdivision, a plea to an information must be entered orally by

39 (c) If the only offense or offenses charged is a violation of a local 40 zoning ordinance or local zoning law or of a building or sanitation code 41 and such violation is punishable by a penalty of no greater than five

43 relating to pleas in such cases, is, when appropriate, applicable and 44 controlling.
