Introduced by M. of A. BROOK-KRASNY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to parking regulations for the Seagate police department

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1203 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new subdivision (e) to read as follows:

(e) Where parking is prohibited by signs, but not where stopping or standing is prohibited, a peace officer, as designated under section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law, employed by the Seagate police department and acting within the scope of such peace officer's official duties, may park a motor vehicle owned by such police department, identified by a special placard issued by the commissioner pursuant to section four hundred four-ff of this chapter.

§ 2. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 404-ff to read as follows:

§ 404-ff. Distinctive placard for the Seagate police department. 1. The Seagate police department, upon request, shall be issued a set of distinctive placards each bearing a unique serial number in such form and detail as the commissioner shall prescribe. Application for such placard shall be filed with the commissioner and shall be verified annually by the applicant.

2. The distinctive placards authorized under subdivision one of this section shall be issued upon proof, satisfactory to the commissioner, that the applicant is presently a member of the Seagate police department and such placards shall be used when the Seagate police department is on official business as peace officers, as designated under section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law.

3. The distinctive placards issued pursuant to this section shall be issued upon payment of an initial one time service charge to be prescribed by the commissioner.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
