The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

11 right to counsel in such proceedings. Counsel is often indispensable to 12 a practical realization of due process of law and [~~may be helpful to~~] in 13 helping the court [~~in making~~] to make reasoned determinations of fact 14 and proper orders of disposition. The purpose of this part is to provide 15 a means for implementing the right to assigned counsel for [~~indigent~~ 16 ~~persons~~] adults in proceedings under this act who are financially unable 17 to obtain counsel.

18 § 2. The section heading and subdivision (c) of section 262 of the 19 family court act, as added by chapter 682 of the laws of 1975, are 20 amended to read as follows:

2 unable to obtain counsel.

3 (c) Implementation. (i) Any order for the assignment of counsel issued
4 under this part shall be implemented as provided in article eighteen-B 5 of the county law.

6 (ii) The determination of whether persons are financially eligible for 7 assignment of counsel under this part shall be made in accordance with 8 rules promulgated by the chief administrator of the courts.

9 (iii) Where representation is provided to an eligible adult prior to 10 the filing of a petition under article ten or ten-A of this act or to a 11 parent, caretaker or interested adult prior to the filing of a petition
12 under article ten-C of this act, such representation shall be eligible 13 for compensation under paragraph (i) of this subdivision.

14 § 3. The family court act is amended by adding a new section 1016-a to 15 read as follows:

16 § 1016-a. Representation for adults subject to a child protective 17 services investigation and/or child protective proceeding. (a) An adult 18 who is the subject of a child protective services investigation has the 19 right to counsel prior to the initiation of any court proceeding. If 20 such a person appears in court without counsel at the first appearance 21 for any matter under this article, the court, at the outset of the 22 proceeding, shall inform the person of the right to be represented by 23 counsel of their own choosing, of the right to have an adjournment to 24 confer with counsel, and of the right to publicly funded legal represen-25 tation if the person is financially unable to obtain counsel. For 26 purposes of this section, such person shall be referred to as an "eligi-27 ble person".

28 (b) Whenever a person has been provided with publicly funded legal 29 representation under this article, such representation shall continue 30 during (i) the period in which an order of disposition issued by the 38 of continuing jurisdiction.

39 (c) All notices and reports required by law and all motions made by 40 any other party to the proceeding or the attorney for the child shall be 41 served upon the attorney for the eligible person.

42 (d) Representation of the eligible person terminates only if the court 43 relieves the attorney, or a final order is issued and the eligible
44 person is informed of any existing right to appeal and declines to exer-
45 cise any existing right to appeal and where no further jurisdiction 46 continues under section one thousand eighty-eight of this act or any 47 other provision of law.

48 (e) The attorney for the eligible person may be relieved as counsel 49 upon application to the court for termination of the appointment. If

4 court may receive and approve periodic requests by attorneys for payment 5 for all such services provided.

17 article, such representation shall be eligible for compensation under 18 section two hundred sixty-two of this act;
