Introduced by M. of A. BRONSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to the applicability of the New York state labor relations act

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 715 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 890 of 2 the laws of 1968, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 715. Application of article. 1. The provisions of this article shall 4 not apply to: [~~1~~]

5 (a) employees of any employer who concedes to and agrees with the 6 board that such employees are subject to and protected by the provisions 7 of the national labor relations act or the federal railway labor act; 8 provided, however, that the provisions of this article shall apply to 9 affected employees upon or after the effective date of the chapter of 10 the laws of two thousand twenty-five that amended this section or the 11 date when any of the following events occur:

12 (i) in the event that the national labor relations board:

13 (1) declines jurisdiction over any employer, employees, trade or 14 industry;

15 (2) determines that any of such provisions fall outside the scope of 16 the national labor relations act's coverage; or

17 (3) cannot execute its statutory duties for reasons including but not 18 limited to a lack of quorum; or

19 (ii) in the event that:

20 (1) the national labor relations act is repealed or otherwise narrowed 21 so that it no longer covers a certain type, class, or industry of work-22 ers; or

23 (2) the preemptive effect of the national labor relations act is no
24 longer effective; or [~~2~~]

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (b) employees of the state or of any political or civil subdivision or 2 other agency thereof.

3 2. In the event that subparagraph (i) or (ii) of paragraph (a) of 4 subdivision one of this section become controlling, the board shall,
5 upon application, promptly certify the exclusive bargaining represen-
6 tative of any bargaining unit previously certified by the national labor 7 relations board and whose certification remained in effect until federal 8 preemption was no longer effective. The board shall establish rules and 9 procedures for the prompt verification of evidence of a certification 10 formerly granted by the national labor relations board, which shall 11 include the procedure for petitioning the board, and which shall further 12 provide that, absent exceptional cause, the verification procedure shall 13 last not longer than thirty days after the petition is filed with the 14 board. All existing terms and conditions of employment between a former-15 ly national labor relations board-certified exclusive bargaining repre-
16 sentative and an employer shall remain in full force and effect through 17 the board's verification process.

18 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
