IN ASSEMBLY

May 16, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. STECK, WALSH -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to requiring employers to include an epinephrine auto-injector device in first aid supplies required by federal law

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 27-f to read as follows:

§ 27-f. Requiring first aid materials in a workplace to include an epinephrine auto-injector device. 1. All employers that are federally mandated to have first aid supplies readily available for the treatment of all injured employees must include an epinephrine auto-injector device in such first aid supplies.

2. For the purposes of this section:

(a) "employer" shall include any person, corporation, limited liability company, or association employing any individual in any occupation, industry, trade, business, or service, but shall not include a governmental agency.

(b) "epinephrine auto-injector device" shall have the same meaning as provided in paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section three thousand-c of the public health law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
