Introduced by M. of A. CLARK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to directing school districts to establish parent advisory councils on special education

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 4402 of the education law is amended by adding a
2 new subdivision 10 to read as follows:

3 10. The board of education or trustees of each school district shall 4 establish a parent advisory council on special education. Membership of 5 such council shall be offered to all parents of children with disabili-
6 ties in the school district and other interested parties. The parent
7 advisory councils' duties shall include, but not be limited to, advising 8 the board of education or trustees of the school district on matters
9 that pertain to the education and safety of students with disabilities,
10 and meeting regularly with school officials to participate in the plan-
11 ning, development, and evaluation of the school district's special
12 education programs. Parent advisory councils shall establish by-laws 13 regarding officers and operational procedures. In the course of its 14 duties under this section, a parent advisory council shall receive 15 assistance from the board of education or trustees without charge, upon 16 reasonable notice, and subject to the availability of staff and 17 resources.

18 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
